Married September 4Silver Anniversary of Bride's Parents and the Fifty-first of Her Grandparents.

At a very prettily appointed luncheon given by Mrs. K. K. Mills, the wedding date for the marriage of Miss Margaret Short, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Short to Alvin Hodgson of Albany, son of Mrs. Millie Hodgson of Cottage Grove, was announced.

The guests were members of the M.P.G. club with Mrs. Chas. Adams and Mrs. Harry Titus, former members, and Mrs. Raymond Grube and Miss Lola Howe as additional guests.

Silver moon roses in white pottery reflected in a large mirror formed an attractive centerpiece, the table services being in silver and white on a flowered table cloth.

The place cards were white folders lettered in silver containing the pictures of Margaret and Alvin and miniature pictures of the parents of the bride-to-be. The date chosen for the wedding is September 4th, the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Short and the fifty-first anniversary of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Veatch.

A bouquet and gift accentuating the silver and white theme was presented Miss Short by the hostess.

"BUY IT AT HOME"

An age-old slogan—"buy it at home"—but one that is ever timely.

Your home town merchants support your town. You know them. They are your friends and neighbors. Money spent with them will in return be spent for payment of taxes to the city, for the employment of local labor and for community development.

Local business men need your cooperation. So, buy in Cottage Grove.
