Farmers Legislative Candidates.
Farmers dominate the list of 141 republican and democratic candidates who will battle for the 76 legislative positions to be filled this fall.

An occupational survey reveals that 32 of the 141 candidates are farmers. Next high is the legal profession—with 29 lawyer candidates. Three candidates are stockmen, two dairymen and two fruit growers. The candidates are engaged in 38 occupations. Others are brokers, physicians, automobile dealers, secretaries, clerks, real estate men and timber workers.

Oregon Flax Twine for Navy.
The Salem linen mills this week received a contract for supplying 15,000 pounds of flax twine to the U. S. Navy through the efforts of Governor Martin. A Scotland firm had submitted a lower bid than did the Salem firm, but the governor telegraphed navy department officials that he believed the contract should go to a United States firm.

Water Overheating Costly
Overheating the domestic water supply is a destructive practice, for corrosion activity doubles with every ten-degree increase in temperature.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.
