SCHOENBOEN-KING.

At a pretty garden ceremony under an archway of white roses, Canterbury bells and Regal lilies, at the home of the bride's parents Sunday morning, June 26, at 10:30 o'clock, Miss Violet Schoenboen of Meaver Creek, Oregon City, became the bride of Norris W. King, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. King of Cottage Grove. The ring ceremony was used. The Rev. E. Simpson of the Evangelical Church of Liberty, Ore., officiated. Miss Ruth Feyberger played the wedding march.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Albert Schoenboen. Her dress was white chiffon net over white marquisette with white tulle finger tip veil held in place with a band of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of rosebuds, lilies of the valley and gardenias. Mrs. Leona Schoenboen, the bride's honor attendant, wore a dress of blue taffeta and a corsage of sweet peas and rosebuds. Lois King, sister of the groom, maid of honor, wore a dress of blue acetate crepe with lace trimmings and a corsage of rosebuds and sweet peas. LaVzla Jean Campbell, Nellie King and Margaret Herbert were flower girls and wore pink organdy. Donald Schoenboen, brother of the bride, acted as best man and Leonard King, brother of the groom, was usher.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. The bride cut the wedding cake, assisted by Miss Ruth Feyberger. Others assisting were Miss Caroline Bremer, Dorothy, Laura and Alice Bremer.

The bride is a graduate of Oregon City high school and attended Oregon State college. The groom is a graduate of Cottage Grove high school and the University of Applied Science of Chicago. After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home at Seaside, Ore.

COINER-LEWIS.

Miss Evelyn Coiner and Norman Lewis were united in marriage at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 25, at the L. W. Coiner home at 1250 east Jefferson avenue. Rev. James A. Smith, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated. Lorraine Coiner, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Oscar Newton best man.

The ceremony took place in the living room before a fireplace banked with white lilies, sweet peas, roses and Canterbury bells in pastel shades.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of London tan. Her accessories were of beige and London tan. She also wore a corsage of yellow rosebuds. The bridesmaid wore a purple afternoon dress with peach carnations.

Only relatives and close personal friends of the bride and groom were guests. After the ceremony a short reception was held and the couple left immediately for a short trip to coast points.

The bride has been the secretary to the school administration for some time past and the groom is an employe of the Woodard Lumber company.

RUSSUM-JONES

Miss Eloise Russum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Russum of Cottage Grove, became the bride of Eldon Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jones of Cottage Grove Sunday morning, June 26, at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride wore a white chiffon dress with a finger tip veil. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds, white sweet peas and gardenias. Miss Helen Jones, sister of the groom, the bridesmaid, wore a pink organdy dress and a white rosebud corsage. Dean Russum, brother of the bride, was best man. The ceremony, which took place under an archway of beautiful flowers, was performed by Rev. James A. Smith, minister of the Presbyterian church.

Those present at the ceremony, aside from the bride's parents, were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jones, parents of the groom; Carlis Jones; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Scott, the latter a sister of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Dykester of Sheridan, the latter a sister of the bride; Mrs. Lenore Lane of Portland, a sister of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Russum, Cottage Grove, the former an uncle of the bride.

BRIDAL SHOWER

Miss Gail Lindamood and Miss Donna Safley gave Miss Betty Jacobsen a bridal shower last Thursday at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Clara Stevens. The evening was spent socially and playing cards. Refreshments were served. Miss Jacobsen plans to leave sometime next month for Kodiak, Alaska, to be married to Glen Wilson, former pharmacist at Kem's for Drugs. Glen left here several months ago and has charge of the drug department of a large general store.

Their many friends here wish Miss Jacobsen a pleasant trip to her new home and many years of happiness. The following were the invited guests: Madelle Beidler, Isabelle Safley, Margaret Short, Genevieve Bressler, Daisy Zimmerly, Elta Hohman, Bernadine Wiese, Maxine Nixon, Mrs. Bill Collins, Maurine Shearer of Eugene, Mrs. Karl Thomson, Elizabeth Crabb, Thelma Coltrain, Louise Wynne, Mrs. Glenn (Bede) Simkins, Lillian Young, Ruth Mitchell of Corvallis, Peggy Savage, Mrs. Kenneth Ward.

ENTERTAIN FOR JULY BRIDE

Mrs. Glennie Frost, Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, Mrs. W. Johnson and Mrs. J. P. Graham gave a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Frost, complimenting Miss Betty Jacobsen who is leaving next month for Kodiak, Alaska to be married to Glen Wilson, who was the pharmacist in Kem's drug store.

A 7:45 dessert was served. Bonnyjean Skilling and Jane Beidler carried in a canoe loaded with gifts.

A mock wedding ceremony was a feature at which Mrs. C. J. Kem played the wedding march. Mrs. William Thum, appropriately gowned, was the preacher; Mrs. George Matthews was the groom; Mrs. Graham was best man; Mrs. Umphrey, bridesmaid; Mrs. Johnston, the father; Bonnyjean Skilling, ring bearer; Jane Beidler, flower girl.

The dining table, at which the bride-to-be was seated was centered with a boat load of lilies and orange blossoms, and decorated with white tapers. The rooms were decorated with baskets of lilies and orange blossoms.

A unique feature of the party was a series of beautifully decorated boats placed about the room, one for each port at which Miss Jacobsen's boat will call enroute to her new home at Kodiak. Miss Jacobsen was escorted to each of these "ports of call" while an original poem was being read, and at each "port" was presented with a beautiful gift.

Miss Jacobsen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobsen of this city, a graduate of Cottage Grove high school and of Junior College at Riverside, Cal. Mr. Wilson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilson of Woodburn and a graduate pharmacist of O. S. C., Corvallis.

Sportsmanlike Driving—Watch Hill Crests

There is a popular song entitled "One Never Knows." It is apropos of driving at hill crests. One never knows what lies just over the crest. The road may be clear or cars may be piled up in a bad accident. The Sportsmanlike Driver always slows down when approaching a "blind" hill crest.
