SOCIETY

HAZEL ROSE TO WED
Announcement has been made of the coming marriage of Miss Hazel Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rose of Cottage Grove, and Donald Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Kelly of Lorane. They will wed at Eugene Saturday, July 30, in a quiet wedding with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith as their attendants. Mrs. Smith and Miss Rose are sisters.
The bride is a graduate of the Cottage Grove high school, class of '38, and the groom a Lorane high school graduate. After a short wedding trip to points on the coast they will make their home at Lorane.

The Mosonic-Eastern Star picnic Monday evening at the city park again proved to be one of the most popular social events of the season. More than 200 were present. Tables were spread under the trees and a social evening followed the dinner. Jess Lansing Jr. was chairman of the committee for the Masonic lodge and Mrs. S. L. Godard for the Eastern Star.

Mrs. Charles Adams and daughter Adeline of Eugene and Mrs. B. R. Job entertained at the Job home Friday evening in honor of Miss Margaret Short, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Short, whose coming wedding was announced several weeks ago. A 7:30 dessert was served and the evening was spent socially.

The Mothers club will meet at the city park Tuesday, August 2, at 3:30 p. m. Members and their families will enjoy a pot luck supper at 6:30 p. m. All are requested to bring table service.

I. O. O. F. PICNIC

The annual intersectional picnic of the I.O.O.F. and Rebekah lodges will be held Sunday, July 31 at Lost Creek on the McKenzie. Sports will commence at 9 a. m.

GAROUTTE FAMILY PICNIC

It has been announced that the Garoutte family picnic will be held Sunday, July 30, at Roseburg.

MINNESOTA PICNIC

A state wide gathering of former Minnesota residents will be held at Champeog Sunday, July 31. A program has been prepared and there will be sports for the youngsters. A large attendance is expected, according to Elbert Bede, who is handling the publicity for the event.

NEBRASKA PICNIC

The Fifteenth Annual Nebraska Picnic will be held at the City Park (South edge of city on Highway) in Corvallis, Oregon, August 7, 1938.

Free Coffee. Bring your cups and trimmings. Seats for all. Short snappy program—leaving plenty of time for visiting. Come and see Nebraskans you knew "back home"! There were over 1500 present last year.

NORTH CAROLINA PICNIC

The annual North Carolina picnic will be held at Bryant's Park, Albany, Oregon; August 7. All former residents of North Carolina and their families are urged to attend.

Fifty Years Ago Event Celebrated

(Contributed)

The meeting last Sunday at the Presbyterian church in memory of the great revival God sent 50 years ago to Cottage Grove, and the arrival of Will V. McGee and evangelist Rev. B. H. Baker was enjoyed by some 150 or more.

Those who failed to be present lost a great chance to honor an outstanding event of that day. The following is the roll call by families who were here during the great awakening. More than 100 gave God a chance to give them life eternal. Yet many put it off—procrastinated. When more than one family by the same name is mentioned the Christian name is used.

Adams, Doek; Adams, Oskeh; Allen, Bales; Beidler; Brumbaugh; Barrett; Currin; Cooley; Cochran; Carey; Curry; Chrisman; Cathcart; Conner; Chausey; Cathey; Carper; Craghead; Dillard, Rev. Sam; Durham; Downs, Doblittles; England; Eakin; Edwards; Gowdy; Garoutte; George; Griffin; Hunt; Harmes; Holderman; Hawley, Ira; Hawley, Bill; Hemenway; Harding, Judge; Jones, Cramp; Jones; Jackson; Johnson; Knox; Kelly; Kerr; Kirk; Lewis; Lebow; Linebaugh; La Joy; McFarland; Mosby; Medley; Markley; McKibben; Martin; McNab; Mount; Miller; Nelson; Oglesby; Pitcher; Perkins; Porter; Piper; Pervance; Patton; Redford; Sharp, Rev. Joe; Sharp, Bohemia; Sears; Shields; Spray; Spare; Sanford; Thompson; Thornton; Thorp (first editor of city paper) Teeters; Veatch; Vaughn; Van Schoiack; Vandervert; Wooley; Wynne, Dr.; Wallace, Rev. Ham; Walker; Walden; Whipple; Woods; Whorton; Walker.

We have attempted to recall the families of 50 years ago. Almost an impossibility. Any seeming slights or mistakes are of the head and not of the heart.

Silk Creek

The young people of the Epworth League gathered at the school grounds Friday evening for a picnic supper. There were 17 young people present beside the sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Grimes. Baseball and other outdoor games were played during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Whaley left Sunday to work in the bean fields near Eugene.

Lucille Conklin returned Thursday from Walla Walla, Washington where she had spent the summer with the Arnold Roth family. Mrs. Roth is still attending summer school there and will return later to take up her work at the Royal school.

Mr. and Mrs. James Scott from east of town called on Mrs. Estes Sunday evening. The Scotts formerly lived in this neighborhood and friends here had not heard of their son Stanley's recent marriage in southern California.

The Neighborhood Friendship club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Rose Lowrance. Officers for the next six months were elected as follows: Mrs. Laura Allen, president; Mrs. Lizzie Rohde, vice-president; Mrs. Rose Lowrance, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Helen Grimes assistant secretary. Other work was dispensed with for the afternoon on account of the heat and the time spent in visiting. Mrs. Lowrance served ice drinks and cookies. The next meeting will be a picnic supper Thursday evening, August 18 at the W. A. Hemenway grove to which the entire neighborhoods of Silk Creek and Cedar districts are invited.

The Silk Creek Grange met Tuesday evening in regular business session. Plans were begun for an exhibit at the County Fair and the committee in charge urged everyone to prepare something to display. Several reported that they had already prepared grasses etc. for exhibit. Frank Overholzer reported on the survey of the building site donated by Mr. Curtis and the terms were found agreeable. This plot adjoins the church and school grounds and will be used for a Grange hall. Mrs. Nellie Paul, Lecturer, presented a short program.

The Bonnie Perini family were dinner guests of Ed Ashby Friday evening.

Leland Parker, who has been spending the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bolton, left Wednesday for his home in Long Beach, Calif.

Mrs. Wertz visited relatives in Eugene Sunday.

Mrs. F. M. Keller was greatly surprised Tuesday afternoon when a group of friends and neighbors came in to celebrate her birthday. They brought several nice gifts and spent a very pleasant afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woolcott returned Monday evening from a few days vacation trip. They motored north to Milwaukie where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Matthews Wednesday and Thursday. From Portland they visited Bonneville Dam, drove the Mount Hood loop and visited Timberline lodge, leaving Friday morning for Astoria, then south to Seaside and Tillamook where they visited the Jack Goddard family. Mr. Goddard taught school here many years ago and is remembered by old settlers. They also visited friends in McMinnville and Earl Goddard's chicken ranch at Junction City, where he raises many chickens in batteries. They report very warm weather in the Portland area but found the beaches delightfully cool and pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Overholzer had as their guests Thursday evening Mrs. Overholzer's cousin, Miss Helen Scott and Miss Scott's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Reese and son Boyd. Mr. and Mrs. Reese are missionaries in Africa but the young people have been attending school in Texas the past year and all are on vacation this summer.

There was a school meeting Wednesday afternoon to discuss plans for adding a room to the school house. There will be a later meeting called to vote bonds for the necessary improvements. Arthur Myer has returned after visiting in Washington, Idaho and eastern states in search of a location and has purchased a farm near his brother, J. E. Myer's place. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Grimes and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Monroe motored to Salem Sunday and visited relatives.

Miss Elizabeth Baker and mother of Balboa, Calif visited George Moxley Saturday afternoon. They drove on to Eugene to spend a few days and will return for a longer visit with the Moxley's.
