Tucker-Benedict.

The marriage of Miss Norma Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Tucker, of Cottage Grove, to Lambert Benedict, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Benedict of Canby, was solemnized Saturday, August 13, at 2:30 at a ceremony held in the Pentecostal Assembly of God church, with The Rev. Atwood Foster officiating.

Preceding the ceremony Charles Cochran played a trumpet solo, "God Make Thee Mine," and Kenneth Shortridge sang "All for You." The wedding music was played by Mrs. Atwood Foster.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Dorothy Tucker, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore blue organdy, carrying as flowers pink gladiolas. Little Beverly Jones was flower girl and scattered pink rose petals along the aisle, and was dressed in pink silk net over satin. Ted Lippincott of Raymond, Washington, was the groom's attendant.

The church was decorated in pink gladiolas, lavender phlox and baby breath.

The bride wore a dress of white silk lace of floor length, with finger tip veil. For her flowers, the bride carried a shower of pink and white carnations with blue forget-me-nots.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Dave Benedict and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lippincott of Canby, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lippincott and children of Raymond, Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brittan and children of Lowell. After a short wedding trip to Portland the couple will be at home in Canby.

Jacobsen-Wilson

Word has been received here of the marriage at Kodiak, Alaska, on July 24, of two former Cottage Grove residents, Miss Betty Jacobsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jacobsen of this city, and Glen Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilson of Woodburn. The groom is a former employe of Kem's for Drugs, and is now connected with a mercantile establishment in Kodiak.

The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Erskine by the Rev. Clarence W. Riley, Baptist minister. The rooms were decorated with wild Alaskan flowers. The bride wore a navy blue suit with blue and white accessories and a corsage of orchids. She carried a white Bible. She is a graduate of the Cottage Grove high school and Riverside junior college of Riverside, California. The groom is a graduate of Oregon State college where he was affiliated with Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.

The Cottage Grove high school alumni dance for the classes of 1932, '33, '34, '35, and '36 will be held Friday night, August 19 in the I. O. O. F. hall. Patrons and patronesses for the affair will be: Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ferrin, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Grannis, Mr. and Mrs. George Currin, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Glass, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Goff, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wyatt, Mr. and Mrs. Worth Harvey, Dr. and Mrs. Claude Kime, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Breese, Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Bagley, Miss Elsie Lea, Miss Myrtle Kem, Dr. H. A. Hagen.

Bridal Shower.

Mrs. W. D. Lovegren entertained a group of the young people of the Assembly of God church at her home Friday afternoon at 2:30 with a kitchen shower, honoring Miss Norma Tucker, Bride-elect. Invited guests were the Misses Gladys Lemley, Mary Trent, Ialo Partridge, Audrey Mulvihill, Agnes Graham, Wanda Shortridge, Ruth Davenport, Margaret Deere, Louise Armstrong, Dorothy Tucker, the honor guest, Norma Tucker, and Mrs. Atwood Foster. Many useful gifts were presented Miss Tucker, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Doris Gutekunst of Salem, who was also a guest. The church presented Miss Tucker with a shower, also, on Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Tucker.

The Tuesday Bridge club, which has discontinued meetings for the summer, will resume their regular meetings on September 20.

Miss Madelle Beidler returned to Cottage Grove last week from Los Angeles, wher she had been attending the summer session at U. of S. C. Accompanying Miss Beidler were four friends, Miss Helen Luhrs, Miss Helen Cooper and Miss Mabel Mercer of Rockport, Missouri, and Miss Mary Ballinger of Albuquerque, New Mexico. After spending a short time at the Matthews summer home on the Umpqua, the group left for Yellowstone park. Miss Beidler, who has taught in the Harrisburg schools for the past two years, plans to return to Los Angeles and attend the university there for the next school year.

About 100 guests attended the annual picnic of the Cottage Grove Rebekah and Odd Fellows lodge held Tuesday evening at the city park. The dinner was served at 6:30, and was followed by a short program. The committee in charge were: Minnie Willits, Mearl McKibben, Lita Stewart, Chas. McKibben and Jim Bennett. The next meeting of the Rebekah lodge will be August 19.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Townsend club is meeting every Thursday afternoon at the Townsend hall and quilting. One quilt is nearing completion and another will be started this week. Members are also making pot holders to sell.

Invitations have been extended to the wedding of Miss Margaret Short and Mr. Alvin Hodgson at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Short, at 210 South Fifth street, on Sunday evening, September fourth.

A shower complimenting Miss Margaret Short was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Axley Wednesday evening by the MPG club. Twenty-four guests were invited to the "gadget show-er" and 7:30 dessert, which was followed by a lawn party featuring the story of a garden wedding. The bride-elect received numerous gifts.
