

Silk Creek

Aug. 23.—Mrs. Shade Burcham left Sunday morning to spend a few days vacation with relatives near Salem, Independence and other valley points.

Grange Meets

The Silk Creek grange met Tuesday evening for a regular business session. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wheeler and two daughters of Goshen were guests. Mr. Wheeler is master of the Pomona Grange and also manager of the county fair. He explained the rules for exhibits and gave a general outline of the fair program. Mrs. Wheeler is president of the Pomona Home Economic club and gave helpful suggestions for the workers in this department of the grange. Mrs. Wilson, from Mapleton, a sister of Mrs. C. E. Ruth, was also a guest and spoke briefly of the Grange activities at Mapleton. Two names were voted on and approved for membership. Mr. and Mrs. Orval Whaley. The next meeting will be the first Tuesday in September.

Mrs. Callie Vincent and her sister from Missouri visited at the Keller home the first of the week and called on old friends.

About sixty from the Silk Creek, Gowdyville and Cedar districts attended the picnic at Hemeway's grove Thursday evening. Everyone brought well-filled baskets and enjoyed a supper under the trees. Afterward there was a large bonfire and singing, accompanied by several guitars.

Melvin Allen had the misfortune to tear the ligaments in an ankle while at work at Schneider's mill Saturday morning and is going about on crutches this week.

Mrs. C. E. Ruth's sister, Mrs. Emily Wilson, and her small granddaughter of Mapleton visited the first of last week at the Ruth home.

Edna Pointer of Portland visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ashby, last week, returning home Sunday morning.

Mrs. Maggie Wertz and son drove over the McKenzie pass and visited relatives at Sisters, Oregon, Sunday.

Mrs. Ed Ashby visited her sister, Mrs. L. J. McCoy, at Blue Mountain Friday afternoon.

There was a good attendance at the Sunday school picnic Sunday on Woolcott's creek. The crowd gathered after the morning services with a basket dinner and the afternoon was spent visiting. Rev. and Mrs. Tilton of the Grove and Art Boyd and Bert Ragan of Gillespie Corners were guests.

Mrs. Ralph Ruth and small son Charles of Eugene came Wednesday to visit C. E. Ruths. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Teague and Mary Lou and Ralph Ruth drove down Saturday evening and all attended the picnic Sunday and returned home that evening.

Henry Williamson, high school agricultural teacher from the Grove, was out Monday to inspect Russell Woolcott's corn project.

Neal McCoy from Smith River visited his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Will McCoy, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Keller and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cobb of Eugene enjoyed a picnic dinner in the city park Sunday, the occasion being Mr. Cobb's birthday.

Will McCoy's are building a new fireplace on their home.

The directors of the Cedar school and their wives met recently to transact business and clean the school house. They enjoyed a picnic dinner under the trees at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Roth of Oakland, California, came Monday to visit Mr. Roth's sister-in-law, Mrs. Nettie Estes. They are Arnold Roth's father and mother and are staying temporarily in their house until Mrs. Roth returns to take up her school duties here.

Roy Duer of Harlan, Kansas, called at the J. G. Grimes home Saturday morning. Mr. Duer went to Mr. Grimes' school 35 years ago.

Carroll Grimes has secured employment in Eugene and started work this week. His wife and small daughter are staying at the J. G. Grimes home for the present.

The H. Rohde family attended the Odd Fellows and Rebecca's picnic held at the city park.

Howard Miller of Portland visited with John Ashleys Sunday. Mr. Miller is their nephew and they had not seen him for 20 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Parks of Eugene spent the week end with their folks here, Mr. and Mrs. John Ashby.

Word came Monday afternoon that Chas. Trembley had passed away in a Eugene hospital. The funeral was held at Royal church Wednesday forenoon at 10:30 and burial was in the Silk creek cemetery beside his wife, who died in 1936. He had no near relatives but many friends in this neighborhood.

Journey Also a Day's Work
"Journey" originally meant a day's work or travel, and the distance covered in a day, usually reckoned in the Middle Ages as 20 miles.

Sportsmanlike Driving—Watch the Driveway

Do you back your car from the garage into the street without first watching for pedestrians and oncoming vehicles? The Sportsmanlike Driver does not. He stops at the sidewalk and at the curb. He blows his horn, but places greater dependence on being alert.
