MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS BANQUET.

Good fellowship prevailed at the mothers' and daughters' banquet at the Christian church Monday evening when 160 mothers and daughters were seated at the banquet table. Mrs. Elsie Lukens was toastmistress. The program was arranged by Mrs. Hazel VanNortwick and Mrs. Edward L. Kechley and included pep singing led by Mrs. Marvin Shaw, accompanied by Mrs. VanNortwick; talk to the mothers and daughters, Mrs. W. A. Hemenway; "End of the Rainbow," a playlet by the Triangle class of girls; numbers by a quartet from the Ladies' Council. Mrs. Ed Finnerty was in charge of table decorations. Pink gladioli and rosebuds were attractively arranged. Boys from the Kingfisher class served.

GUESTS ENTERTAINED.

Mrs. and Mrs. William Petersen entertained as dinner guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hegburg, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. William R. Anderson and daughter Eleanor, all of Eugene.

CLUB TAKES NEW MEMBERS.

Mrs. Schofield Stewart and Mrs. Donnel Allen were hostesses for the Constellation club Thursday of last week at the Masonic hall. Mrs. Foster of Lorane and Mrs. Eileen Currin of the Coast Fork were welcomed as new members. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

MRS. JOB HOSTESS.

Mrs. B. R. Job entertained Social Twelve with a 1:30 dessert this (Thursday) afternoon.

RAINBOW DONATES FUNDS

The Rainbow group made plans for a benefit dinner, to be given Thursday, October 20, in the Masonic hall, at their meeting Monday night. The dinner entree will be baked salmon. Proceeds from the dinner will replenish the assembly treasury. They voted $5 toward the school children's fund, sponsored by the Public Health group.

NEW TEACHERS ENTERTAINED

Members of the teaching staff of the city schools, who were teaching here prior to this year, entertained the new teachers, the school board members and their wives, and the faculty wives with a 6:30 dinner Tuesday at the W. W. McFarland home. Entertainment followed the dinner. Mrs. William Thum read an original poem descriptive of the various teachers and school projects. Guessing contests and "bingo" completed the entertainment. Eugene Dove announced the entertainment features. Committees from both high and grade schools planned the affair.

PAST NOBLE GRANDS HONORED

Friday evening at a meeting of the Rebekah lodge Mrs. Hazel Culver, noble grand, presented past noble grand pins to Mrs. Zula Hansen, Mrs. Mina Clark and Mae Aubrey. A communication announced that Mrs. Carrie Rickert, president of the Oregon Rebekah assembly, would pay an official visit to the local lodge November 18. A special meeting for the Staff club was announced for tomorrow (Friday) night. All members were urged to attend as important business will be transacted.

SUPPORT TO CIVIC PROJECT

Mrs. Roy Short was hostess for the M. P. G. club Tuesday. A 1 o'clock luncheon was served, a short business meeting and social hour followed. The club voted $1 each to the milk fund in the Public Health group and to the tennis court fund.

AD LIBITUM CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. WICKS

Mrs. Alvis Wicks entertained the Ad Libitum club at her home last Thursday for the first meeting of the club for the fall season. The organization voted to contribute to the Scout Mother's tennis court fund. Plans were made for a club birthday anniversary luncheon October 20th, at the home of Mrs. Albert Woodard. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of an enjoyable afternoon.

TOWNSEND CLUB HAS SOCIAL SESSION

The Cottage Grove Townsend club enjoyed a social session Tuesday evening at the Townsend hall. A program of music and singing was presented after which refreshments were served. About seventy-eight people were present.

MRS. BLICKLE HOSTESS.

Mrs. Fred Blickle entertained the Joker club Friday at her home with a 7:30 dessert. Bridge was played during the evening hours. Special guests were Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mrs. C. J. Kem, Mrs. Ruth Woodson and Mrs. Harry Metcalf. Mrs. Kem held high score for guests, Mrs. Fay Allison was high for members, traveling prizes went to Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. Carl King and Mrs. Allison. Mrs. Woodson received the consolation prize. The club presented a gift to Mrs. Bracher, who left Saturday to make her home in Salem.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS ELECT

The Royal Neighbors held a business session and practice Tuesday evening. Officers to fill unexpired terms were elected as follows: Marshal, Fern Anderson; I. S. Ila Keibelbeck; Unselfishness—Harriet Plath.

GARDEN CLUB AT WHEELER HOME.

The Garden club met Friday afternoon with Mrs. T. C. Wheeler. Mrs. C. F. Hoskins was program leader. An informal discussion of general garden topics proved helpful. Refreshments were served at the tea hour. Mrs. Rex Wheeler was a guest. The club will meet at the home of Mrs. N. E. Glass in Eugene for the November meeting. Mrs. Andrew Brund, a charter member, who recently returned from a few years residence in California, was welcomed back to membership.

La MERCRELI PONT MEETS.

Mrs. Fred Anderson was hostess Wednesday of last week for the La Mercredi Pont club. Cards followed a 7:30 dessert. Mrs. Lena Sams held high score. The club will meet Wednesday of next week with Mrs. Earl Ballew.

GARDENIA CLUB MEETS.

The Gardenia club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Reed Hemenway with Mrs. G. B. Conner as hostess. Mrs. Lowell Tedford was elected president for the ensuing year, at the election of officers. Mrs. Reed Hemenway was elected secretary-treasurer. Refreshments were served. The club meets again in two weeks.

Celebrates 91st Birthday

Mrs. Georgianna Murray Rozell observed her 91st birthday recently at the home of her son Charles east of town. In honor of the occasion, at the request of Cottage Grove friends, radio station KORE presented Mrs. Rozell's favorite hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross," and friends called at the Rozell home both afternoon and evening, bringing flowers and gifts.

Mrs. Rozell has been a resident of this community for the past six years, coming here to visit a daughter, Mrs. Ada Smampang, now of Medford. While visiting here she suffered a light stroke, and her son Charles moved here to care for her. She has since made her home with her son.

Mrs. Rozell was born in Massillon, Stark county, Ohio, on September 27, 1847. She was united in marriage with Horace Henry Irvin Rozell at Bettsville, Ohio, who later served during the Civil war, during which time, by a coincidence, he met a cousin, a captain in the Confederate army, but lost his cousin's address when his knapsack was stolen, and a pledge to meet again "after the war" was never fulfilled.

After the death of her husband Mrs. Rozell moved to Orange, California, where she resided with her son Charles, until coming to Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Rozell, who gets quite lonesome at times, hopes to move to Cottage Grove in the future, in order for it to be more convenient for friends to call. Her mental and physical health is quite good, and she enjoys very much having friends call.

MRS. BREDOVE SURPRISED

Mrs. Alice Breedlove was pleasantly surprised Monday evening, when a group of Royal Neighbors went to her home for a "galloping tea." Mrs. George Hewett of Marshfield was a guest. Bridge was the entertainment for the evening, prizes going to Mrs. Hewett and Mrs. Blackmore. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Breedlove.

MRS. JACK CATON HONORED.

Mrs. Lowell Tedford and Mrs. Howard Taylor were hostesses at a shower Thursday afternoon at the Tedford home in honor of Mrs. Jack Caton. Refreshments were served after the many gifts had been admired.

Church Societies

PRESBYTERIAN AID HOLDS ANNUAL EXPERIENCE SOCIAL

Members of the Presbyterian Aid met yesterday afternoon at the church parlors and enjoyed the annual experience social, in which members told of their experience in raising funds or earning money. Mrs. Roy Short was captain of the winners and Mrs. L. W. Coiner was captain of the losers. A total of $117.00 was reported raised. The hostess committee was composed of Mmes.

S. L. Godard, Joe Smith and O. O. Veatch. It was announced that the organization is planning a doll show with Mrs. J. P. Graham's dolls and a silver tea at the home of Mrs. Roy Short on November 30th.

ALTAR SOCIETY BUSY.

Mrs. C. J. Kem and Mrs. Clifford Smith were hostesses for the Catholic Altar society Monday at the Kem home. Dessert was served at 1:30 and a business meeting and social hour followed. Mrs. George Keibelbeck presided. Plans were made for cleaning the church. It was decided to hold a rummage sale Saturday next at McLaughlin's store. Announcement was made of a vanishing party to be held Monday at 1:30 at the home of Mrs. W. O. Wilson. The November meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. Keibelbeck. During the afternoon a pottery bowl was auctioned. Mrs. Kem was the lucky bidder.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY GROUP MEETS

The Baptist Missionary society was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ervin Hanson. Eighteen were present. Mrs. Sam Warren led devotionals. The afternoon was spent studying India. Mrs. Ollie Pickens was program leader and a number of the members gave reports on the study subject. At the close of the afternoon a delicious lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Hanson.
