

October VALUES

Our prices are low, our merchandise is of quality — You will find the latest in styles too — YOU SAVE.

Pure Silk, full fashion Hosiery, irrs	59c
Ladies' Sturdy Oxfords	$1.98
Ladies' Style Shoes	$2.95
Heavy Outing Flannel, dark or lite 12c yd.
80 sq. Prints, fast color	17c yd.
Satin Slips, bias or 4 gore	98c
70x80 Sheet Blankets	59c
Umbrellas, children & ladies	98c up
2-lb. All Wool Batts, dark	98c
Men's Dress Oxfords	$1.98
Men's rub'r shoes, 6-in. raw cord sole	$2.45
Rain Test Pants, Lt. weight	$2.95
Rain Test Hats by Hirsch-Weis	89c
Boy's Heavy Tan Cords	$1.95
Men's Heavy Tan Cords	$2.49
Wool Work Socks	15c
Med. Weight Unions	79c
Plaid Flannel Shirts, cotton	$1.19
Heavy Canvas Gloves	2 pr. 25c
Rubber Rain Jackets	79c
Wool socks, med. heavy	35c
Hirsch-Weis Rain Test Coats	$4.50
Hirsch-Weis Rain Test Pants	$3.95
West Coast 12-in. Calked Loggers	$11.95

We Give and Redeem S.&H. Green Stamps

Petersen's

Cottage Grove, Oregon.

CITY BRIEFS

Hall and Johnston, Real Estate, Loans, Sure Insurance. Phone 58.

William Thum, Fred Blicke and H. W. Lombard were among the salmon fishermen on the Umpqua Sunday. It was Mr. Blicke's first salmon fishing expedition, and he proceeded to show up his companion, Mr. Lombard, who drew a blank, 'tis reported. Bill Thum also connected, but apparently their scales were out of order, for no weights have been reported.

The Juniors of the Presbyterian Sunday school are to have a party at the church Saturday, 4 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Smith in charge.

Georg Bjorset spent a few days in Portland the first of the week visiting his brother, whose ship was in port there for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Martin and family visited with Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fox of the Springfield community Sunday.

John W. McCain and Catherine Ophelia Stith, both giving Cottage Grove as their home address, were united in marriage by Judge N. E. Glass at Eugene Monday.

Dr. W. E. Lebow was in Portland the latter part of last week in attendance at a dental clinic.

Clifford Smith returned Monday to the Veterans' hospital in Portland for examination and treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Schofield Stewart spent a few days last week in Portland on business and attending the Pacific International Stock show.

Mrs. Eva Hemenway, who visited for a month at the home of her son, W. A. Hemenway, returned Sunday to her home in Portland. James Hemenway, a grandson, motored to Portland with her.

Mrs. Winnie Allen of John Day returned home Wednesday after a two weeks' visit with her brother, F. L. Grannis, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wilkenson and son of Portland were here a few days this week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Wilkenson's aunt, Mrs. James Potts. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McQueen, parents of Mrs. Wilkenson.

Mrs. Ella Caukins of Nampa, Idaho, and Mrs. John Blue and Will Carlile, both of Myrtle Creek were guests for a few days this week at the A. L. Woodard home. Mrs. Caukins was enroute to Pasadena, California.

Battery E is back on regular schedule with drill every Tuesday night. The battery can use a few more good young men for replacements, according to sergeant P. S. Bukowski.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Wheeler, who were fishing on the Umpqua Monday, returned with three salmon, two silvers and a 30-pound chinook. For the benefit of those who have been asking Rex how it is done, The Sentinel wishes to state that Mrs. Wheeler caught all the fish.

Bob Mills, stationed with the army at Fort Stevens, spent a few days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Mills. Mrs. Mills and Mrs. Claude Cruse motored to Ft. Stevens with him Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Spies of Eugene are the parents of a daughter born Thursday, October 6, at the Sacred Heart hospital. The infant is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Spies of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Harms of Portland spent the week end in the city. James Robison, father of Mrs. Harms who had visited a few days in Portland, returned with them. Mr. and Mrs. Harms left Monday for Gold Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ferrin returned Saturday from a business trip to Portland. Mrs. Glennie Frost, who had recently undergone an operation on an eye in Portland, returned with them.

Mrs. Karl Bracher and daughters Dorothy and Jean left Sunday to join Mr. Bracher and make their home in Salem. The Bracher family came here several years ago from Junction City and Mr. Bracher was manager of the Twin Oaks until they closed their local store some time ago.

Sam Schwartz, U. S. postal inspector located in Salem, was in the city Friday and Saturday. Mr. Schwartz was formerly a postal clerk in the local post office.

Mr. and Mrs. Faye Stewart, newlyweds, returned Friday from California. They will be at home in Villard Court.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hewitt, former residents, from North Bend, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Hewitt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Breedlove. The Breedloves and their guests made a business trip to Portland Thursday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt expect to return home the last of the week.

Harold Spriggs, stationed in a naval base training camp at San Diego, arrived the latter part of the week to spend his furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Spriggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Williams, Mrs. Kenneth Ward, Mrs. A. W. Shofstall, Mrs. S. L. Godard and Miss Eunice VanDenburg attended a meeting of the Evangeline Chapter of Eastern Star in Eugene Friday evening.

Red Rose Butter and Ice Cream.

Ask for them. C. G. Creamery. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Arnest of Lakeview were here last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Sannie Anlauf, aunt of Mrs. Arnest. They also visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Arnest and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Maulding. They returned to Lakeview Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Grannis and their house guests, Mrs. Winn Allen and son Jim of John Day, Oregon, motored to Umpqua Beach and Lakeside Sunday. Miss Mary Clerin accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Amil Thies returned Friday from an extended visit with relatives and friends at Woodward and other Oklahoma points. They drove over 4,000 miles before returning home.

Two transients were arrested last week at Creswell, charged with the theft of a car from T. O. Gunderson and were taken to Eugene. State police officers made the arrests.

The Karl Bracher family left the first of the week with their household goods, for their new home at Salem, where Mr. Bracher, former manager of the Twin Oaks store here, has been employed for several weeks.

Jim Allen, senior at the University of Oregon, spent a few days last week at the home of an uncle, F. L. Grannis, recuperating from a recent illness. He returned to school Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Grannis left today for Salem where Mr. Grannis goes as a delegate to the State Principals' conference. They will also visit their son Bob, who attends Willamette University. Mrs. Grannis expects to go on to Portland to visit their daughter Carolyn. Mr. Grannis will return home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Goff of Portland visited here over the week end.

Francis Horn attended the Pacific Livestock Exposition in Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mueller of Silverton were week end guests of Mr. Mueller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wheeler.

The fine new home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eakin, east of Cottage Grove, nears completion. Carpenters have about a weeks work left in finishing the house, it has been reported.

Nels Nielson, who is superintendent of a sawmill at Salem, spent the week end at his home here.

Bob Savage and Clyde Roberts left Tuesday for a week's outing on the Rogue river.

Doc and Buss Pitcher killed a large black bear in the Ball orchard near Culp Creek recently.

Mrs. Lee Dugan has returned home from a Eugene hospital.

S. T. Rose was in Eugene Friday attending the funeral of an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bohart, who were killed last week in an automobile accident near Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rose of Roseburg, who also attended the funeral, visited briefly at the Rose home here Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watt of Grants Pass visited Sunday afternoon here at the home of Mrs. Watt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Nielson, and with a daughter, Shirley Watt, who is staying at the home of her grandparents and attending school.

Mrs. Mary McCargar of Grants Pass, a former resident of the Dorena community, is spending a week at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Alvis Wicks.

H. S. Mendenhall, for many years a Cottage Grove merchant, but for the past two years located in Seal Beach, California, where he in connection with C. H. Ames operates the M. & A. Motorist, spent a few days in Cottage Grove over the weekend. Mr. Menhall reports business good in the Long Beach section.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Summers of Black Butte Wednesday evening, October 5th.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Arnest, who are located near Lakeview, spent a few days in Cottage Grove at the parental Arnest and Maulding homes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Maulding and Ed Wiese made a business trip to Portland the first of the week.

Charles Shinn, Wichita Falls, Texas, executor of the estate of his father, the late Judge Shinn, has been in Cottage Grove for several days attending to business matters.

Mrs. Carl King and Mrs. Karl Bracher were Junction City visitors Thursday.

G. R. Blalock, manager of the local Safeway store, who accompanied Carl Powell, district manager and Wendell Deller, manager of the Springfield Junction Safeway store on a fishing trip on the Deschutes south of Bend, returned Friday night. Mr. Blalock reports the weather was cold in eastern Oregon, and a light snow falling as they crossed the pass.

Greta Leum, daughter of Mrs. Edward J. Leum, 819 First street, Cottage Grove, was selected for the first soprano section of the women's chorus at the Oregon Normal School, where she is enrolled in an education course. The chorus has begun preparation for a series of musical programs, the principal one of which will be the Christmas assembly program, under the direction of Mrs. Florence W. Hutchinson.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Titus and son Jack of Eugene were overnight guests here Saturday, visiting at the Albert Helliwell and Roy Short homes.

Horace Sutherland and John Wilson of the local postoffice were deer hunting Saturday in the Bohemia area, bringing back a buck.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bartell of Corvallis and their daughter, Mrs. Bob Williams of Portland, arrived Tuesday to visit friends here and to spend some time at the Bartell's summer home at Lundpark. Mr. Bartell is a former Cottage Grove hotel man.

Miles Wicks returned Saturday night from a deer hunting trip in eastern Oregon. Nine were in the party and the group brought home nine bucks. Six of the nine dressed out at over 200 pounds each.

Mrs. Clyde Roberts, Mrs. Robert Savage, Mrs. Joe Smith and Mrs. James P. Graham went to Corvallis Tuesday. They attended a reception given by the Corvallis Eastern Star chapter, honoring Ben Nichols, grand associate patron of the order. Mr. Nichols is a worthy patron of the Corvallis chapter.

Homer Nelson returned Tuesday from a Eugene hospital, where he had spent several days recovering from a minor leg operation. Pete Nelson motored up for him.

Mmes. E. R. Crabb and W. C. Martin attended a meeting of the Eugene P. E. O. chapter A. M. yesterday afternoon.

NO HUNTING ALLOWED.

Because two of my registered cattle have been shot by hunters recently and several other head of stock previously, I am forced to prohibit hunting or trespassing on my property. Violators will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

9-1tp. A. W. WHITE.

PROTECT

Your investment in your property with PAINT.

The time is right, the price is right.

Vinal Randall Building Service

Phone 60

Don'ts for Tourists

Don't look for the Sistina Madonna in the Sistina chapel at Rome; it is in Dresden. Don't look for the Mons Meg, the great cannon, at Mons in Belgium; it is in Edinburgh castle. Don't look for Londonderry near London; it is in Ireland.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to our neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our wife, mother and sister. We also appreciate the beautiful floral offerings.

—James Potts and family. 9-1tp

Electric Motors

(New and Used) FARM LIGHTING PLANTS (New and Used) WIRING: Let us rewire your home and lesson the fire hazard or wire in electric outlets for the convenience of your home.

M. H. MORRIS

Electric Contractor. Phone 187J 16 South 10th St.

Two standard typewriters for rent. The Sentinel office. 4-1tc

Radio Ray

A. C. Radios $9.95 to $159.50

Battery Radios $15 to $79.50

1 Volt, 2 Volt, and 6 Volt National Union Tubes. —Mallory Condensers. —Yaxley Volume Controls.

Folks Really Appreciate The Convenience and Comfort of GAS At This Season

Now—when there is a rush to get the children off to school—and to serve them with a hot lunch at noon, the quick, dependable and economical service of gas heat is really appreciated.

DO YOU HAVE A MODERN GAS RANGE IN YOUR HOME?

If not—let us show you one of the new ranges now on display. A gas heater will be mighty convenient these cool mornings, too.

Cottage Grove Gas Co.

Canned Goods Sale

Store-wide Sale on All Canned Goods in Lots of 6, 12 or 24 Cans.

Free—Samson Card Table Let Us Explain

Extra Specials for Friday and Saturday

Flour	Hard Wheat	49-lb. sack	99c
Beans	Small White New Crop	5 lbs.	25c
Carrots	Extra Nice	2 bunches	5c
Beets	Extra Nice	2 bunches	5c
Vinegar	Best Grade	Gallon	19c
Fruit Jars at Cost
Powdered Sugar		3 lbs.	19c

See Our Large Hand Bills Each Week for Extra Specials.

SMITH-SHORT GROCERY

Save Every Day the I-G-A Way PHONE 1

Attend the 6:30 BAKED SALMON DINNER AND FLOOR SHOW.

Sponsored by Rainbow Girls at MASONIC HALL Thursday, October 20th Dinner, 50c a Plate

LEARN TO DANCE Waltz, fox trot, swing, etc. Tap, ballet, toe, acrobatic. PHYLLIS-CHARLES STUDIOS C. G. HOTEL