WOOLEY-CUSHING

Announcement has been received here of the marriage of Miss Faye Hope Wooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Wooley to Ralph S. Cushing, which was solemnized in Portland last Thursday October 20th. Further details of the wedding have not been received. Mr. and Mrs. Cushing are at home to their friends at 2029 N. W. Hoyt Street, Portland.

The bride, well known here, is a graduate of the Cottage Grove high school with the class of 1934 and for the past two and a half years has received nurses' training in Portland. She had lived here for twelve years.

The groom is now employed by the Oregon Publishing company. Previous to his present employment he spent two and a half years in Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Cushing are expected here next week for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wooley.

TIMMONS-LASWELL

Of interest to her many friends here is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Lasswell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Lasswell of Portland, former Cottage Grove residents, and Charles O. Timmons of Los Angeles, Cal. The marriage was solemnized at 8 p. m. Friday, October 21, at the Church of the Angels in Pasadena. The bride wore a Boy Blue afternoon dress with hat to match and wore a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley. She was given in marriage by her cousin, Harry Cosgrove of Burbank, Cal. Mrs. Maylon Hall of Los Angeles, sorority sister of the bride, was matron of honor. W. J. Revell acted as best man for his nephew. The bride attended Oregon State college and was affiliated with Chi Omega sorority. Mr. and Mrs. Timmons will make their home in Los Angeles.
