DELEGATES REPORT.

Delegates to a district convention held recently in Junction City gave reports at the Rebekah Lodge session Friday night. Regular routine business concluded the meeting. The Staff club held a short business meeting following lodge. Plans were made for the annual dinner to be held Tuesday evening, December 18. Husbands of members will be guests. It was announced that material for the staff's new uniforms had arrived and work was started on the garments which will be worn by the degree team for the January meeting when the state president will pay an official visit to the Rebekah lodge.

Facts About Flowers

The Mistletoe was used as a decoration in pagan religious festivals as early as 200 B. C. The custom of kissing under the mistletoe came much later. After the kiss the youth would be required to present the girl with one of the mistletoe's white berries. When the berries were gone — no more kisses. Mistletoe is the state flower of Oklahoma.
