

SOCIETY

UTOPIA LUNCHEON.

Mrs. Fay Allison was hostess for the Utopia club Thursday of last week. A luncheon was served at the home of Mrs. W. W. McFarland after which the club enjoyed their annual Christmas party and exchange of gifts. A centerpiece of holly and red tapers adorned the luncheon table. Mrs. Allison presented each member with a gift and table favors. Mrs. Martin Foster of Lorane was welcomed as a new member. The club will hold their annual meeting and birthday party in January, the place of meeting to be announced later.

CHRISTMAS DAY DINNER.

Mrs. Sylvia Griggs will entertain with a family dinner Christmas day at her home on north Ninth street. Guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Brandeberry and daughter Joan of Berkeley, California; Mrs. Earl Brandeberry, Portland; Miss Ruth Brandeberry, Oregon State college; Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Brandeberry, Longview, Washington; Mrs. Lena Stevens and Mrs. Rankin, Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Griggs and Miss Grace Griggs, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Griggs and son Joe.

LEGION AND AUXILIARY MEET

The American Legion and Auxiliary met Monday night at the armory for a covered dish dinner and Christmas party for the children. After dinner George Matthews led the group in singing Christmas carols. The children gathered around the Christmas tree and were treated to candy, nuts and fruit. Mrs. Leon Morton was chairman of the dining room committee; Mrs. P. S. Bukowski, chairman of the kitchen committee; Mrs. Alvis Wicks, chairman for the treats; Mrs. William Veelman and a group of the eighth grade girl scouts trimmed the Christmas tree. Later in the evening the men adjourned to their meeting room for a business session. The Auxiliary dispensed with their regular meeting.

Proclamation

We of this house tender many thanks for your valued patronage and sincerely hope that you and yours will enjoy a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Smart Shop

ALICE BREEDLOVE
Phone 17

HOLLIDAY-HEMENWAY WEDDING.

Julia May Holliday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Holliday, and James Hemenway, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hemenway, were quietly married at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents near Walker. The marriage ceremony, beautiful in its simplicity, was performed by the Rev. E. L. Kechley, using the ring service. Christmas greenery and holly formed an appropriate background for the ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in the wedding gown worn by Mrs. W. A. Hemenway at her wedding. It was made of white organdy and trimmed with point lace. She carried an arm bouquet of white rose buds. The couple was unattended. A reception followed with close friends and relatives present. The Misses Margaret and Elizabeth Hemenway, sisters of the groom, Mrs. Reed Hemenway, a sister-in-law, and Mrs. Ed Finnerty assisted with the serving. The bride was graduated from the Peerless, Montana, high school in 1936 and Mr. Hemenway was graduated from the Cottage Grove high school the same year. He later attended the University of Oregon. The newlyweds are spending the week at the Cottage Grove summer colony near Scottsburg. Upon their return they will be at home in their new house recently built on the W. A. Hemenway farm west of the city. Mr. Hemenway will be in partnership with his father. Guests for the wedding included Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Read, Mrs. Frankie Callison, the Misses Margaret and Elizabeth Hemenway and William Norris, all of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hemenway, Mrs. Emma Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Read Hemenway and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Finnerty, all of Cottage Grove.

REBEKAH LODGE.

About forty members were in attendance at the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge Friday night. Mrs. Minnie Willets, chaplain of the state assembly who has recently completed a tour of official visits throughout the state, gave a report of various meetings. Of particular interest was a meeting in Portland when Deputy Grand Sire George I. Breiel of the sovereign grand lodge of I.O.O.F. was present and gave a very instructive talk on the needs of the fraternal organizations. It was voted to send Christmas greetings to shut-in members. An invitation was read and accepted to attend a covered dish supper given by the I.O.O.F. Thursday, December 29. There will be a program and social entertainment for the evening and all Rebekahs, their families and visiting members in the community are invited. Announcement was made that the Past Noble Grand club will entertain their husbands and families with a dinner at 6:30 Tuesday, December 27, in the I.O.O.F. hall. Games will be furnished for entertainment.

SCOUT TROOPS MEET.

The Junior Girl Scout troop met at the club house at the close of school Thursday of last week. With the aid of their leader, Mrs. William Veelman, plans were made for their Christmas party which was held this afternoon. Following their meeting the Senior Troop met for a covered dish supper and their annual Christmas party. Gifts were exchanged. Mrs. Max Bird, Scout captain, and Mrs. Veelman were present. It was decided not to meet during the Christmas vacation.

M. P. G. CLUB

The M. P. G. club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Joe Smith for a no-hostess 1 o'clock luncheon and their annual Christmas party. The table was attractive with six red tapers encased in mounds of holly. Unique place cards of miniature turkeys, made from pine cones, were used. Mrs. Charles Adams of Eugene, a former member, was a guest. Gifts were exchanged and members presented Mrs. Smith, the president, with a gift. She in turn presented each member with a gift. Mrs. Adams presented each member with a gift and Mrs. William MacGibbon, a former member now living in Portland, sent each member a gift. During the afternoon Mrs. Benton Schrenk, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Short, sang a Christmas lullaby. The Misses Maryjane Smith and Eleanor Teeters assisted Mrs. Smith with serving.

METHODIST BIBLE CLASS

The Women's Bible class of the Methodist church met Friday at the home of Mrs. Jack Caton. Mrs. Anna Adams and Mrs. S. J. Leonard were hostesses. Following a covered dish luncheon a business meeting and program were held. It was decided to send Christmas greetings to the sick and shut-in members. A silver offering was taken to be used for Christmas cheer for needy families. Gifts were brought by members for the Children Farm Home at Corvallis. Mrs. Ida Swan was in charge of devotionals and Mrs. Frank Babcock gave two readings. During the afternoon a kitchen shower was tendered Mrs. Florence Mills, who has recently moved into her new home. She received many useful gifts. Eighteen members were present. The rooms were attractively decorated with Christmas greenery.

LACOMUS CLUB

The LaComus club met Tuesday for a no hostess luncheon at the home of Mrs. W. W. McFarland, later enjoying the annual Christmas party. Club members exchanged gifts and a gift was presented to Mrs. McFarland, club president. Mrs. McFarland presented each member with a gift. The afternoon closed with bridge. Mrs. Jacobsen held high score. Mrs. Frank Gierau was welcomed as a new member. The club will meet Tuesday, January 3, at the McFarland home with Mrs. O. E. Woodson as hostess.

CARNATION CLUB

The Carnation club met Friday at the home of Mrs. W. W. McFarland for a no hostess dinner and Christmas party. Gifts were exchanged. Bridge was played during the evening with Mrs. Ivan Currin, a member from Eugene, holding high score and Miss Vivian Johnson, second high. Mrs. Fred Hammond and Mrs. Walter Hunter were in charge of the party. The club will meet with Mrs. Ray Nelson for the January meeting.

YOUNGSTERS ENTERTAINED.

Mrs. Glen Flatters entertained the C.R.Y. club Sunday afternoon. A Christmas tree and gifts afforded special entertainment for the children. A 6:30 dinner was served for the parents and a social evening followed. Mrs. Wilbur Spray and son, former members, and Mr. Spray of Albany were guests.

JOKER CLUB CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Joker club met for their annual Christmas party Monday evening at the W. W. McFarland home. A no hostess dinner was served at 6:30. Gifts were exchanged and Mrs. Nelson Durham, president, was presented with a club gift. She presented each member with a potted fern. Cards followed and Mrs. Carl King held high score for the evening.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS TO ELECT.

Cottage Grove Post No. 3473, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will meet at the armory Friday night for the annual election of officers. Bill Patton is retiring commander and Dave VonNeeda, senior vice commander. The organization met last Friday evening, when they were hosts to department officers.

JUVENILES PARTY

The Neighbors of Woodcraft Juvenile group met Monday after school at the home of Mrs. Clifford Smith, senior guardian, for a Christmas party. Gifts were exchanged and games furnished pleasant entertainment. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

ELMARTES CLUB

Mrs. Fred Anderson was hostess Tuesday for the Elmartes club. A 1 o'clock luncheon was served following a Christmas gift exchange. Holly and red tapers were attractive table decorations. Contract was a pleasant diversion for the afternoon hours. Mrs. C. H. Kime held high score. Mrs. Merville Veatch will entertain for the meeting in two weeks.

CHAMBERS HONORED ON FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Chambers entertained with a family dinner party this (Thursday) evening, honoring Mr. Chambers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Chambers on their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Members of the two families, including Mrs. J. H. Chambers' mother, Mrs. Alicia Van Valin, and her brother, Claude Van Valin, of Dorena, and grandsons, Richard and Tommy Chambers, were present. John H. Chambers and Miss Mabel Van Valin were married December 22, 1888, at Vacoma, Nebraska. During early manhood Mr. Chambers was in the banking business in Nebraska. They came to Oregon in 1901, locating in Ashland where they resided for two years. They came to Cottage Grove in 1903 and have continued their residence here since then. Mrs. Chambers until ill health the past year prevented, has been an active worker in the community, taking a definite interest in church, club and civic affairs.

DORENA GRANGE.

The Dorena Grange and the Juvenile grange met Thursday of last week for a covered dish dinner and social entertainment. A program was presented as follows: A playlet, "The Broken Picture," juveniles; piano duet, Albert and Virginia Lee; duet, Rita and Reta Shields, twins; readings, the Cooper twins, Kenneth and Hazel; duet, Mrs. Roberta Smith and Mrs. Oris Steele; solo, Mrs. Lot Wagner; a Christmas quiz for the assembly; group singing. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Black and Butte Mooney were given the first and second degrees, the new officers presiding. Loren Hunt, master, announced the following committee chairmen: Agriculture, Raymond Wicks; relief, Anna Rissue; legislative, Claude Arne; home economics, Mrs. Lulu Bettis; finance, Minnie Wagner; membership, Grace Smith; sales slips, Mary Doolittle and C. W. Hocker; news reporter, Frances Gawley; song leader, Ed Finnerty.

SUB-DEBS ENTERTAIN FOR MOTHERS

The Sphinx club, a group of sub-deb girls honored their mothers and friends with a tea Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Savage. Miss Elizabeth Crabbe, the club advisor, and Miss Jen Savage received. The Misses Virginia King, Arlene Anderson, Betty Jones and Margaret Bressler served. A number of the club members were unable to attend. During the afternoon Miss Betty Jones entertained with vocal selections. Arlene Anderson accompanied at the piano. A miniature Christmas tree and greenery added to the attractiveness of the rooms. An artistic centerpiece of holly and graceful cedar twigs, interspersed with red tapers and silver Christmas bells, adorned the tea table. Mrs. Savage and her mother, Mrs. J. Backensto assisted about the rooms.

TEA HONORING AID SOCIETY MEMBERS

The Georgiannas met Friday at the home of Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton for a no hostess Christmas party. Gifts were exchanged after which members entertained the Aid society members of the Methodist church at tea. Mrs. Alvis Wicks and Mrs. Henry Williamson presided at the tea table.

Other members assisted about the rooms. Mrs. Howard Taylor entertained with two readings and Christmas numbers were sung by a quartet composed of Mesdames Harry Lewis, Brighton Leonard, Wayne Monroe and Ellsworth Tilton. The tea table and rooms were especially attractive with Christmas decorations.

HOWARD HOSMAN INJURED SERIOUSLY

Howard Hosman, son of Chas. O. Hosman of Cottage Grove was seriously injured while working in a logging camp near Hood River Monday, it was learned here. He was taken immediately to the St. Vincent hospital in Portland. Mrs. G. A. Spencer of Oakland and C. A. Hosman of Cottage Grove, sister and brother of the injured man, left for Portland yesterday to be at his bedside.

Mimeograph stencils. Sentinel.

Strength of Glass
Glass can be made so strong that a pressure of 350 tons is required to crush a two-inch cube, and it can be made so fragile, says Collier's Weekly, that the breath will break a drinking glass.

Annual Battery E DANCE

Armory

Saturday Night

Come — Good Music

Merry Christmas

From Your
Texaco Dealers

Flatters Texaco Station
Fifth and Washington

Trembley's Texaco Station
Eighth and Main

Juicy Jumbo Went to Town!

Thank You for Your Generous Response to Our Announcement of

The New Juicy Jumbo Hamburger
"A Square Meal on a Round Bun"

We appreciate the many kind things said about this new, different and better sandwich when we introduced it in Cottage Grove Saturday. If you are one of the few who have not tried Juicy Jumbo's let us remind you they are now available at the

REX CAFE

We want you to have the most of the best to brighten this year's holiday season.

Better Bakery

WATCH OUR WINDOWS FOR
PRE-INVENTORY

BARGAINS

WHICH WILL BE AVAILABLE TO YOU TUESDAY,
DECEMBER 27th

AT 8:30 A. M.

PENNEY'S
J. C. PENNEY COMPANY, Inc.

Give her a POTTED POINSETTIA

Express your Christmas and New Year's greetings with your gift of a living, lasting, vivid Poinsettia plant, grown in our own greenhouse, in rich soil to endure for several weeks. . . A selection of sizes from $1 to $4.

Sunnyside Greenhouses
Phone 182

Season's Greetings

Another Christmas — and another wish — may you have the most of the best to brighten the Holiday Season

Cheesman Transfer

H. L. Cheesman, Prop.