The Home Ec club and the boy's home economics class displayed their dramatic abilities Friday in a play entitled "Never too Many" followed by a tap dance by June Eastburn; a duet, "Winter Wonderland" by Audrey Turner and Bernice Smith; a piano medley by Orlena Martin; a reading, "Shakespeare Returneth", by Dorismae Blalock.

The play case includes: Louise Aubrey, the older sister of an orphaned family who kept the home fires burning, Audrey Turner; Helen Aubrey, who was learning to become an experienced seamstress, Bernice Smith; Jack Aubrey to whom cooking just came natural, Lorin Raper; Betty Martin, the waffle fiend, June Rorer; Al Aubrey, who turned to the dishpan for collecting old china, Thomas Stout; and Marguerite Logan, Jack's stenographer girl friend who finally turned domestic, Anita Duncan.

In the girl's league assembly this afternoon, (Thursday) a one act play, entitled "The Christmas That Bounced", will be given.

Other numbers on the program are a song by the senior trio, Betty Jones, Patty Short, and Dorismae Blalock, entitled "The Night Before Christmas". And to climax the afternoon good old Saint Nicholas in person will appear with something for everyone.

Christmas Concert

The annual glee club and orchestra Christmas concert was presented Friday night under the direction of Miss Marion Jelinek in charge of glee club, and Mr.
Dykstra in charge of orchestra.
The solos by Dorismae Blalock, Betty Jones, and Bill Spies, the violin obligato by Marie Gilham, the boy's octet, girls' sextet, and a duet by Lois and Patricia Baldwin added much to the program which consisted of traditional Christmas hymns and more modern choruses. Frances Hughes and Patricia Baldwin were accompanists.

The color scheme of black and white was carried out by the chorus, the girls wearing white blouses and dark skirts and the boys dark suits. A white cross was the decoration on the back stage drop and the gymnasium was decorated with fir boughs.

One of the most noticeable incidents, was the large chorus of 150 voices, standing and setting as one person.

In spite of the note asking them not to, the audience because of their deep appreciation and enjoyment could not refrain from applause.

Delmar Franklin, a sophomore, withdrew from school last week on December 14.

Albert Smith, sophomore, is going to Springfield, Oregon, to visit an uncle over the Christmas vacation.

At this friendly season we wish to extend our sincere wishes for a happy
holiday season.
