

SOCIETY

CLUB CONTRIBUTES TO FUND

The Social Twelve club met Thursday of last week with Mrs. J. Backensto, who entertained with a 1:30 dessert at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Savage. A short business meeting was held and the club voted a contribution to the scholarship loan fund which is a project of the Oregon State Federation of Women's clubs. A social afternoon was enjoyed.

W.C.T.U. MEETS.

The W. C. T. U. met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James A. Smith, Mrs. Mary Smith was an assistant hostess. Devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. N. E. Compton was in charge of the program on child welfare. The resignation of Mrs. H. C. Reynolds, president, who left last week to make her home in Decring, Idaho, was accepted and Mrs. Skuzie was elected to that office. A letter of thanks from the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis, acknowledging the Christmas box sent by the local organization was read. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. F. C. Houser.

LEGION AUXILIARY

The American Legion Auxiliary met at the armory Monday night. Committee chairmen gave reports as follows: Community service, Mrs. Leon Morton; hospitalization, Mrs. P. S. Bukowski; child welfare, Mrs. Max Bird; Americanism, Mrs. Bayard Reed; membership, Miss Eunice Vandenberg. Miss Vandenberg reported that 40 had paid membership dues. The quota to be reached is 50. Plans were made to attend a district conference in Albany Friday night. Department officers will be present at the conference. The auxiliary meeting for February 6 will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. Joe Smith, due to the fact that the armory will be in use for Battery inspection that night.

CLUBS POSTPONED.

Both the Joker and Utopia clubs postponed their meetings scheduled for Monday and Thursday of this week owing to the death of A. A. Richmond. Mrs. Nelson Durham, a member of both clubs, was a sister-in-law of the deceased. Mrs. Richmond was a member of the Utopia while a resident of Cottage Grove.

HONORED ON BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.

Mrs. Eliza Howe and daughter Bertha entertained a small group of friends Sunday evening complimenting J. H. Bennett on his birthday anniversary. Games furnished entertainment for the social hours. The hostess served refreshments at the close of the evening. Guests were Mr. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Al Rosenthal, Mrs. Stella Baker and Mrs. Ida Veatch.

M.P.G. CLUB AT HELLIWELL HOME.

Mrs. A. W. Helliwell was hostess Tuesday for the M.P.G. club. A 1 o'clock luncheon was served. Daffodils and acacia formed an attractive centerpiece for the table. Mrs. Nanny Smith, mother of Mrs. Helliwell, was an additional guest. The afternoon hours were spent socially. Mrs. W. E. Lebow will be hostess for the next meeting.

MRS. ARNEST HOSTESS.

The Ad Libitum club was entertained Thursday of last week at the home of Mrs. G. B. Arnest who invited as additional guests, Mrs. Mary McCargar of Grants Pass, a guest at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Alvis Wicks; Mrs. Henry Williamson and Mrs. Curtis. Refreshments were served following a social afternoon. The club will meet next with Mrs. Ransom Cone.

Are You Entertaining Soon?

If So You Must Have Flowers Let Us Help You Plan Your Decorations

Sunnyside Greenhouses

Telephone 182

EASTERN STAR.

The Order of Eastern Star met Friday night with the newly installed officers in the chairs. Mrs. Charles Hall, retired worthy matron, was presented with a Bible in white binding. Mrs. Anna Keller became a member by affiliation. Reports were given of a meeting of Evangeline chapter, Eugene, which a local group attended Wednesday night. It was announced that Mrs. Doris Stipe, grand associate matron, would pay an official visit Friday, January 27. Mrs. S. L. Godard named the following standing committees for the year: Relief, Mrs. Sylvia Griggs, Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, Mrs. William Petersen; finance, Knaffle Haynes, Miss Eunice VanDenburg, Mrs. Joe Smith; examining, Mrs. Chas. Hall, Mr. Haynes, Mrs. Glennie Frost; refreshment, Mrs. F. L. Grannis, Mrs. Chester Anlauf, Mrs. Herbert Lombard; entertainment, Mrs. Georg Bjorset, Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. Albert Woodard; house, Mrs. A. C. Spriggs, Mrs. Vinal Randall; instruction, Mrs. James P. Graham, Mrs. C. S. Roberts, Wilbur L. Workman; Rainbow, Mrs. Karl K. Mills, Mrs. Robert Savage, Mrs. Lynch Currier.

EDUCATIONAL MEETING FOR TEACHERS.

The Faculty club of the city schools met Monday night at the H. B. Ferrin home for a study hour. Dr. Parr of the Oregon State College department of education was the guest speaker. Dr. Parr spoke informally on the future need of class room facilities to aid the problem children, providing varied forms of individual instruction. He also advised a reorganization of the grading system now in use. Following his talk the meeting was opened to questions and general discussion. Light refreshments were served by Mrs. Ferrin. The Grade school club held a short business session early in the evening.

BROTHERHOOD ENTERTAIN

The Brotherhood of the Methodist church entertained the congregation with an oyster supper and entertainment Monday night at the church. The dining room was filled to capacity and a table was set in an adjoining room to take care of additional diners. Following the supper a program was presented in the church auditorium. The Rev. Joseph Knotts, former pastor, was present from Medford and gave a talk on "Fellowship." C. E. Umphrey introduced the speaker. Musical numbers were furnished by the Sunday school orchestra, the Junior choir, and vocal selections by a girls' sextette. Lowell Tedford announced the program.

The Georgianns will present a three-act play, "The Mystery of the Masked Girl," February 13 in the school gymnasium. The cast includes Mrs. Don Moore, Mrs. Jack Caton, Mrs. Henry Williamson, Mrs. Wayne Monroe, Mrs. Howard Taylor, Mrs. Curtis French, Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. Lee Smith and Mrs. Kenneth Mickey.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS CLUB.

Mrs. Wilbert O. Wilson and Mrs. Frank Gireau entertained the Royal Neighbors club with a 7:30 dessert Monday night at the Wilson home. Mrs. A. W. Swanson was a special guest. At cards, played during the evening, Mrs. Fred Anderson and Mrs. Oscar Lee won prizes.

SPHINX CLUB

Miss Nancy Anlauf was hostess for the Sphinx club meeting at her home Monday night. A short business meeting was held and social entertainment enjoyed. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

MRS. BLICKLE ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Fred Blickle entertained the LaComus club Tuesday for a 1:30 dessert bridge. Mrs. Kenneth Mickey and Mrs. Guy Earl were additional guests. At cards Mrs. C. J. Kem received the high score prize and Mrs. Earl won the guest prize. Mrs. Warren Edwards will entertain at the W. W. McFarland home for the next meeting.

DINNER PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Mills were hosts Friday evening at a dinner party given at the Mills home. Guests were: Messrs and Mmes. Ollie Pickens, Benton Schrenk, A. C. Spriggs, W. C. Martin, the Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Davis and Miss Lola Howe.

ENTERTAINS FOR GALLOPING TEA.

Mrs. O. W. Backmore entertained with two tables of bridge Friday evening when guests came for a "galloping tea." Mmes. Edna Burleson and Harriet Plath were the prize winners. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

A surprise birthday party was given at the home of Mrs. Eliza Howe and daughter Bertha, Saturday evening honoring J. H. Bennett. After an evening of games, a dainty luncheon was served.

To Speak on the Prevention of War

J. J. Handsaker, of Portland, who will speak at the Methodist church here Sunday on the activities aimed to prevent war. Mr. Handsaker, an ordained minister of the Congregational church, spent twelve years following the World war as regional director of Near East Relief. In 1921 he was sent to the near east to get first hand view of what war had done to the children of the war desolated lands. One night he closed the Near East Relief offices and opened them as headquarters for the prevention of war.

BIRTHDAY OF FOUNDER CELEBRATED

The Cottage Grove Townsend club met Friday in the Townsend hall, and celebrated the 72nd birthday anniversary of the founder, Dr. Townsend, and also the fifth anniversary of the Townsend movement. The program was opened with prayer and the flag salute. Musical numbers were given by a string orchestra composed of L. D. Tucker, Jack Tucker, John Stalder, P. S. Bukowski, R. D. Long and Frank Hazen. Readings were given by Vesta Spencer and Mrs. Herald. Tap dances were features given by Irene Shaffer and Betty Caviness with Bernice Smith at the piano. Songs were sung by J. H. Bennett and Mr. Veatch. Mrs. Abeene sang two numbers, one being dedicated to Dr. Francis E. Townsend, accompanied by Mrs. Vinson. The program closed with the audience singing. About 100 attended. The program committee was Mrs. Cad Wallace and Elmer J. Kent. Refreshments were served following the program.

STORE BURNS.

The Madaugh two-story store building at Veneta was destroyed by fire Monday afternoon. The blaze of undetermined origin, did about $8,000 damage. The loss was partly covered by insurance.

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS.

Officers of the Presbyterian church are making "Every Member Canvass" for the maintenance of the church another year and are meeting with splendid response. Mrs. W. H. Daugherty is the financial secretary and Eunice VanDenburg, treasurer.

UNEMPLOYMENT IMPROVES.

Salem, Ore. — Oregon enjoyed an employment complexion improved five percent over November, figures covering the December experience of the Oregon state employment service released by the over-all state agency here today disclosed. Placements totaled 2715 and 49 percent were in private jobs.

Eugene, covering Lane county, accounted for 163, or 6 per cent of the state total.

A man's age: A man is young when a woman can make him happy or unhappy; middle-aged when a woman cannot make him unhappy; and old when a woman can neither make him happy nor unhappy.

Grade A Raw Milk

Wholesome, clean, nourishing. Let us supply you with milk, your best food.

Moody's Dairy

Phone 21F4

Joint Installation of I.O.O.F., Rebekah Held Last Thursday

Last Thursday evening about 125 Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their friends attended a joint installation of the officers of these lodges at the I.O.O.F. hall. Curtis Hansen, deputy grand master and Myrtle Kent, deputy district president of the assembly acted as the installing officers, assisted by Chas. McKibben and Eva Aubrey, deputy grand marshalls and staff.

Acting in behalf of the Rebekah lodge, Alta Plunkett, noble grand presented Hazel Culver, retiring noble grand with a past noble grand's pin. A short program followed the installation of the new officers. Odd Fellow officers inducted into office included: Ben Chilson, noble grand; Robert St. Elmo, vice grand; George Sweet, secretary; Curtis Hansen, treasurer; Otho Van Schoiack, warden; W. L. Perry, conductor; J. Sanders, R.S.N.G.; Clinton Garoutte, L.S.N.G.; Alfred Beidler, R.S.N.G.; Hugh Trunnell, L.S.V.G.; Albert Harris, inside guard; C. A. King, outside guard; W. M. Black, chaplain; Wilber Hoopes, R.S.S.; Howard Jones, L.S.S.

Rebekahs installed were: Alta Plunkett, noble grand; Edith Van Schoiack, vice grand; Alice Conner, secretary; Martha Eastham, financial secretary; May Aubrey, treasurer; Beatrice McCoy, warden; Nellie Peterson, conductor; Mearl McKibben, R.S.N.G.; Edith Sanders, L.S.N.G.; Elsie Currin, R.S.V.G.; Mina Clark, L.S.V.G.; Elsie Chilson, inside guard; Marion Armstrong, outside guard; Rosa Peterson, chaplain; Nettie Gawley, musician.

Singing Group Elect Officers Thursday

At the meeting of the Carolers last Thursday evening at the Presbyterian church, officers were elected for the ensuing year. Mrs. Edna Leslie Pearson was chosen director; Mrs. Ruth Stewart Caldwell, accompanist; Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton, president; Mrs. Ruth Caldwell, vice president; Mrs. C. H. Kime, secretary; Mrs. C. C. Cruson, treasurer and Miss Patricia Baldwin, librarian.

Of interest is the announcement that the Carolers and Balladeers are planning a joint concert to be given sometime in March. Joint rehearsals for the coming program were started last Thursday evening. Each organization now has about twenty members. The Carolers have several members from Drain.

APPOMATTOX W.R.C. MEETS.

The Appomattox W.R.C. met Saturday at the home of Mrs. Aubrey with twelve present. New officers installed at the business session included: Nellie Paul, president; Minnie Ashley, S.V.; Addie Hallgarth, J.S.; Annie Schoen, treasurer; Malinda Aubrey, conductor; Rosa Currin, guard; Eva Aubrey, secretary; Minnie Morelock, color bearer No. 1; Millie Hodgson, color bearer No. 2.

The next meeting, January 28, is a social meeting. All are requested to bring quilt pieces.—Contributed.

The high school Sunday school class and the Intermediate League of the Methodist church will go to the Midway ring for a roller skating party Friday night.

NOTICE

My office will be closed January 20th and 21st.

I shall attend the annual winter clinic and lectures of the Oregon State Chiropractors Association to be held in Portland, January 20, 21, 22.

DR. H. A. HAGEN.

OUTSTANDING STUDENT

Miss Marjorie Quigley, granddaughter of the Rev. and Mrs. V. McGee of Cottage Grove, is the outstanding student in the Albany high school. A press notice of Miss Quigley's accomplishment is as follows:

Marjorie Quigley, daughter of Mrs. Robert Quigley of Albany, was chosen by the senior class of Albany high school as the outstanding senior girl at a recent voting conducted at the high school.

Miss Quigley was chosen from a group of three senior girls named by the high school faculty as candidates for the annual D. A. R. award, given in every high school in Oregon where a chapter of the organization is conducted. Basis of the selection includes service, leadership, character and scholarship.

Names of representatives from other schools are sent to Salem, where a drawing is held, with the winner being given a right to represent the state at the annual D. A. R. national convention held each year in Washington, D. C.

Miss Quigley will be presented a medal as a reward for her selection, the date of the presentation yet to be named. E. A. Hudson, high school principal, announced today.

The new American motto: "Give me liberty or gimme death—anyhow gimme!"

Mimeograph stencils. Sentinel.

BONE DRY WOOD

$3.00 per cord

Also No. 1 and No. 2 Block

Ervin Hansen

707 No. 10th Phone 184R

ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY

We will repeat our special hour sale again Saturday when all ladies silk dresses go at one price—$2.95, for one hour only—between 3 o'clock and 4 o'clock.

No refunds or exchanges from special hour sales.

Ladies Hats, regardless of former price, 50c and $1.00

A few sizes in ladies coats — Values at prices you will not want to overlook.

Arnest Dress Shop

KELLY'S CUT RATE DRUGS

Strong Flint Glass

Thin As The Finest China — Made by Makers of Pyrex

See Our Window

- Cup and Saucer 5c
- 9 1/4-inch Plate 5c
- Creamer and Sugars, pair ... 19c
- New—M.D. Sanitary Naps 17c
- 75c Listerine 59c
- $1.00 Miles Nervine 89c
- 40c Castoria 31c

Pen-Lax

A Vegetable Laxative — No After Effect
25c Box

- $1.35 Lydia Pink. Veg. Co. $1.00
- 60c Bromo Seltzer 49c
- 50c Ipana Tooth Paste 39c
- 50c Pepsodent Tooth Powd. 39c
- 1 Quart Milk Magnesia 49c
- Super D Cod Liver Oil $1.19
- 10c Red-E-Aid Aspirin 3c
- TOBACCO—At Cut Rate

Make Our Drug Store - Your Drug Store