CHURCHES

Catholic Church, Father Anthony Gerace.—Mass each Sunday at 9:30 a. m., except the third Sunday when the hour is 8 a. m.

Methodist Episcopal, Ellsworth M. Tilton, Pastor.—Sunday school 9:45, James Tedford, Supt.; forenoon service, 11, sermon subject, "The Redemptive Quality of Fellowship;" evening service, 7:30, youth chorus and orchestra; Epworth and Intermediate Leagues, 6:30; fireside study group, 8:30; prayer meeting, Thursday, 7:30.

Assembly of God, Atwood Foster, Pastor.—In new church building.—Sunday morning at 11 and Sunday evening at 7:30.—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Prinec of Congo, Africa, will be speaking. Also on Monday evening they will have charge of the service and will be showing slides taken while in Africa.

First Baptist, Henry W. Davis, Pastor.—Bible school, 10 a. m., Mrs. Mills, Supt.; Worship at 11 with sermon by the pastor. Theme "Our Father Who Art in Heaven." This is the first in a series of Sunday morning sermons on the Lord's Prayer. Young people's meeting at 6:30 p. m. will be led by Miss Dodson. At the evening worship period, 7:30, the pastor's theme will be, "Jesus Comes to Town." All are cordially invited.

Presbyterian, James A. Smith, Pastor.—Sunday, 11 a. m., morning worship. Theme of sermon, the Presbyterian Church." This is the third in a series of messages on "The Church." The vested choir will sing an anthem, 6:30, a special service, with Mrs. C. L. Camp, wife of the Methodist Pastor at Creswell, speaker. She with her husband have been missionaries in India for some 28 years. She will bring several costumes of that country with her and have six of the young people of the Christian Endeavor society dressed in them. This is a meeting in which the Christian Endeavor and adults join about the table for light refreshments and to get a first hand glimpse of that far away land. Remember the hour, 6:30. This will take the place of the evening preaching service.

Free Methodist.—The pastor, the Rev. Louis A. Skuzie, will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening. Morning theme, "This Land." The land that flows with "Milk and Honey" is the possession which God has promised to the human race, for their enjoyment and prosperity. But they are missing the "Land" socially, financially, and spiritually. But the promise is still there to all who will, may enter in. In the evening the subject will be, "How Much Owest Thou."

Christian Science Society, 942 Second St.—Sunday school, 9:45; forenoon service, 11, subject, "Love." Evening service, second Wednesday of each month at 8 p. m. Wednesday, general meeting of the Woman's Council.

Umpqua Baptist Association Holds Mid-year Meet 20th

The mid-year meeting of the Umpqua Baptist association was held in the Cottage Grove Baptist church last Friday. It was attended by delegates from Roseburg, Coquille, Marshfield, Bandon, Veneta, Springfield, Junction City, Eugene and Cottage Grove.

The discussion centered around evangelism and missions. The local pastor, the Rev. H. W. Davis, gave the keynote address at 10:30 on "Vision, Love and Service," as exemplified in the ministry of Christ, setting forth the necessity for a well-balanced program in our churches. This program must emphasize evangelism, christian education and missions to all the world.

Dr. F. W. Starring, secretary of the Oregon Baptist convention, spoke on "Missionary Work in Oregon."

Dr. Eden, the new director of evangelism for the Pacific coast, gave two addresses on evangelism.

The Rev. Ted Gilford, who has been holding meetings in Eugene the past week, spoke in the afternoon. His address was a protest against the subtle infiltration of communistic and fascist influence from abroad and against the atheistic teachings in some American universities.

The Young People's banquet was held at 6:30 in the church basement, being served by the women of the church. Eighty-five were served. Miss Ruby Allen, president of the Association B.Y. P.U., presided. Dr. Starring acted as toastmaster. After many songs and a short business session, the final consecration meeting was held in the auditorium. This meeting was addressed by the Rev. Mr. Madgen of Junction City, and the Rev. Lloyd T. Anderson, state president, from Burns, Oregon.

The conference was pronounced one of the best ever held.

7:30 p. m. Wednesday, prayer service and Bible study. 7:30 p. m. Thursday, young people's Bible study. 7:30 p. m. Friday, choir rehearsal.
