SLEEPERS MORE—FINES LESS

In the monthly police report, the number of sleepers cared for in March increased over the previous month of February, while the total amount of fines declined. For the month of February there were 109 sleepers cared for, thirty business houses left unlocked and eight gas pumps left unlocked while in March the number of sleepers cared for were 125, thirty six business houses left unlocked and three gas pumps left unlocked. Fines collected for March were only $35.

FIREMEN'S PENSION BILL VETOED

Governor Sprague vetoed senate bill No. 417, which would have enabled cities and towns to set up a pension for firemen.

★ FASHION PREVIEW ★

At times it's smart not to be all dressed up. The dress above, of dark blue Celanese rayon crepe with a white pique cravat and white pique at the sleeves and pockets, is just the thing for a small dinner out or a party at home.
