William V. Hands Passed Away Friday

William V. Hands, aged 87, well known resident of this section, died Friday. A native of Albion, Illinois, Mr. Hands lived there until 1913 at which time he moved to Los Gatos, California, and lived there a few months before moving to Cottage Grove on February 1, 1913. He bought a small farm three miles east of here where he entered the poultry business and operated the farm until he retired in 1936. During his life he had followed the occupations of railroad man, farmer and poultryman.

Mr. Hands was engaged in the poultry business here for a number of years, having retired from this business several years ago. His wife, Mrs. Hands, died here in 1933.

Funeral services were held here Monday afternoon from the Mills chapel and interment was made in the Masonic-L.O.O.F. cemetery. Surviving are two sons, Roy S. Hands of Cottage Grove and Bert V. Hands of Dade City, Florida. Also two grand children, three great grand children and a host of friends and neighbors.

Miss Tiny Sutherland is now with the Beauty Clinic and is qualified to give any beauty service. Friends and acquaintances of Miss Sutherland are cordially invited to call and avail themselves of her services. Phone 34-1tc-3i
