According to an announcement made today by W. T. Dinkins, vice president and general sales manager for the Richfield Oil Corporation, his company will enter upon one of the largest newspaper campaigns in Richfield history.

Two hundred and thirty western newspapers will be used to tell the public of the eleven western states the new Hi-Octane story. Large dominating advertisements, many in color, will be released approximately April 22.

According to Mr. Dinkins, newspaper advertising will be used as the backbone of the campaign.

It is understood that this campaign will announce the introduction of a new motor fuel. Although no official statement has been made in regard to the character of the new product, it is believed that the company is prepared to offer the motoring public a new, more powerful gasoline which is entirely new to the petroleum business. Cubs and Yankees Favorites to Cop The Baseball Titles

NEW YORK — The Chicago Cubs are 2 to 1 favorites to repeat in the National league pennant race, according to odds announced at New York, but the Cincinnati Reds are second choices at odds of 1 to 5. Just to add confusion the New York Giants, Pittsburgh Pirates and St. Louis Cardinals all have a chance in the campaign beginning next Tuesday.

In contrast to all that, the New York Yankees are the shortest priced favorites in the history of baseball as they get set for the dash through the American league. They are 2 to 5 choices, with the Boston Red Sox rated second at 3 to 1, the Detroit Tigers next at 4 to 1 and the Cleveland Indians fourth at 6 to 1. Washington's Senators are 10 to 1, the Chicago White Sox, 30 to 1; St. Louis Browns, 50 to 1, and the Philadelphia Athletics, 100 to 1.

Then, according to those figures, the Yankees are virtually sure things, eh?

In the National, the Cardinals are ranked fifth and held at 8 to 1, and the Boston Bees ranked sixth at 30 to 1.
