

Health-O-Grams

What's the use of running if you're on the wrong road?

Dr. H. A. Hagen

Chiropractic Physician

Phone 30

Cottage Grove

SOCIETY

SPANISH VETS HOLD MUSTER

The thirteenth annual muster roll call was held Friday night in the armory by Bert B. Chandler, camp and auxiliary of the United Spanish War Veterans. Only five members, Bill Miller, William Chapman, Hugh Smith, Elmer Doolittle and George Sweet, responded to the camp's roll call. A 6:30 dinner preceded the muster. The camp and auxiliary held separate business meetings. The auxiliary initiated Mrs. Elmer Doolittle. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Judd Stauffer of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Veatch of Coburg, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Hart, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Heltzer and Sam Richmond, all of Springfield. The Spanish Veterans made plans to attend the state convention to be held in Newport July 15 to 19. They accepted an invitation to attend the annual muster of General Lawton camp of Eugene to be held Sunday, April 23, starting with a 1 o'clock dinner.

EASTERN STAR HONORS BROTHERS

Cottage Grove chapter No. 4, Eastern Star, observed "Brother Night" at the Friday night meeting of the chapter, honoring brothers of the order. Brief talks were given by several of the men. The chapter was given reports of recent trips to other districts. It was voted to accept the invitations of chapters in Oakland and Portland for April 27. Following the regular meeting, a program was presented by students of the seventh and eighth grades. A play, "Troubles of an High School Editor," was given by Joanne King, Patsy Savage, Evelyn Pentico, Rose Ellen Lockwood, Kenneth Hansen, Tommy Linebaugh, Mary Decker, Howard Harpole, Neal Bachelder and Thelma Sweeney. A group of three songs, "When I Was Seventeen," "Sleep, Little One, Sleep," and "It Was a Lover and His Lass," was sung. Joanne King was soloist and the chorus was Marion Turner, Mary Decker, Doris Bjorset, Virginia Lee, Caroline Magnusson, Betty Powell and Patsy Savage. Donna Chestnut was accompanist. Miss Marian Jelinek, high school music instructor, directed the singing. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by a committee headed by Mrs. Glennie Frost.

SOCIAL TWELVE ENTERTAINED

Mrs. J. Backensto was hostess at a 1:30 dessert for the Social Twelve Thursday afternoon at the Robert Savage home. Mrs. Chas. Adams of Eugene was bidden as an additional guest. A pleasant social afternoon was enjoyed. The club will meet next with Mrs. H. B. Ferrin.

THE CLOSEST WAVE TO THE HEAD EVER DEVELOPED—that's why KOOLERWAVES LAST LONGER

THE NEW

Rilling KOOLERWAVE PERMANENT

For matchless beauty in a Permanent Wave, we feature the new Rilling KOOLERWAVE. Positively waves closer to the head... gives an unusually even curl... leaves hair marvelously soft and lovely regardless of texture and color. Your wave will last much longer.

It is cool... featherweight... only six minutes on the head. Ask us for a test curl. No machine—no electricity—not like any other permanent waving method.

It's Thrilling to Have a Rilling

Beauty Clinic

Phone 204

SOCIAL CLUB ENTERTAINED

Mrs. W. O. Wilson and Mrs. Sylvia Widener entertained the Social Club with a 1:30 dessert Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wilson. A pleasant afternoon was spent playing bridge. Mrs. James P. Graham held high score and Mrs. Bragg low.

GEORGIANNAS MEET

The Georgiannas were entertained at a 1:30 dessert Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Wuhlschlager. A business meeting was held and plans were made for decorating and painting the kitchen of the Methodist church. A pleasant social afternoon followed.

I. O. O. F. MEETS

The Odd Fellows met Thursday evening of last week in I.O.O.F. hall, inviting members of the Rebekah lodge as guests. The meeting was devoted to a discussion of the activities and problems of the Junior Odd Fellows. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver, head of Junior Odd Fellows, and Past Grand Master Baker of Eugene were guests of the order and outlined aims and ideals of the junior group. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening, members of the Rebekahs assisting in serving.

MRS. WALTER SMITH JOLLY CLUB HOSTESS

The Jolly club was entertained Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Walter Smith, who served a 7:30 dessert. The evening was spent playing bridge. Mrs. Jesse Denny holding high score and Mrs. Fred Hammond low. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Frank Thompson.

W.C.T.U. HOLDS MEETING

The W.C.T.U. met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elsie Wells, with Mrs. F. C. Houser as assisting hostess. Mrs. Louis A. Skuzie, president, presided. The Rev. C. E. Thayer of the Nazarene church led devotions. Mrs. Thayer gave a reading. The program leader was Mrs. James A. Smith and the program topic was "Temperance and Missions." Prayers and responsive readings were given. An article on "Temperance and Divorce" was given by Mrs. N. E. Compton. Miss Stella Adams read an article on temperance among young people of Australia. Mrs. Smith talked on work among the Indians. Mrs. Howland of Seattle made arrangements to present a play, "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," Thursday, April 27, in the high school gymnasium. It was announced that Mrs. Skuzie, local president, and Mrs. Compton, Lane county president, would attend a district conference to be held April 18 and 19 in Corvallis. Sixteen members and one guest, Mrs. Holderman, attended the meeting. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostesses.

TEACHERS' STUDY CLUB MEETS

The Teachers' Study club held a dinner meeting Monday night at the Cottage Grove hotel. Miss Neeley, director of health education, who works under the state board of health, was the speaker of the evening, talking on "What, Who and How." Her first point, "What," dealt with guidance and instruction. The second, "Who," outlined the producers and users and the third, "How," stressed the coordination and organization of the various units of city and county health work. Miss Neeley declared that the schools are one of the prime factors of health education because they are so closely related to the "What" and "Who" of her talk.

LEGION AUXILIARY PLANS SPECIAL MEETING

The American Legion Auxiliary at its meeting Monday night in the armory made plans for a special meeting to be held the afternoon of Thursday, April 27, at the home of Mrs. Joe Smith, president of the group. At this time the department president, Mrs. Hazel Schneider of Astoria, and the district president, Mrs. Adah Cox of Florence, will make their official visit. Following the business meeting the auxiliary joined the Legion for a joint meeting at which George Koehn of Portland, national committee-man for Oregon and a past department commander, spoke on "Americanism." The speaker was introduced by Robert Fromm. Members of the local Boy Scout troop were special guests. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

Miss Madelle Beidler, bride-elect of Henry Molino, whose wedding will be an event of June, was honored at a shower given Monday evening by Mrs. Charles Adams of Eugene and Mrs. B. R. Job at the home of Mrs. Job. The rooms were transformed into a country school with the date the last day of school. Miss Beidler was the teacher who was resigning her position to be married. Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. H. B. Ferrin and Mrs. James A. Smith were members of the school board and Mrs. Charles Beidler, Mrs. Job and little Miss Jane Beidler represented the school patrons. The guests as pupils, board members and patrons presented gifts to the teacher. Pupils read essays that they had prepared as "home work." A 7:30 dessert was served, a feature being the old-fashioned school lunch pails. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Miss Adeline Adams of Eugene and Mrs. George Matthews.

TUESDAY EVENING CLUB

The Tuesday Evening club met this week for a study of international problems centering on the European affairs of today. Miss Mariette Hamant was program leader. "An Appeal to Sanity" by Alford North Whitehead, an article which appeared in a recent issue of the Atlantic Monthly was reviewed. Assisting Miss Hamant in a round table discussion were Mrs. William Thum, Mrs. Dan Hamant, Mrs. H. B. Ferrin, Mrs. Bert Trask and Mrs. F. L. Grannis.

MRS. HOWE ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Eliza Howe entertained with a social evening Thursday night of last week. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Bricher and Mr. and Mrs. Ercel Anlauf and Miss Bertha Howe. The evening was spent playing Chinese checkers. At the close of the evening delicious refreshments were served.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. F. L. Grannis was hostess for the Tuesday Bridge club, entertaining with a 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. John Kelly and Mrs. Carl King were additional guests. The afternoon was spent playing contract. Mrs. Harry Metcalf holding high score. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Herbert W. Lombard.

MRS. BOYD RASMUSSEN ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Boyd Rasmussen of Powers entertained Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, with a shower honoring Miss Madelle Beidler, popular bride-elect. Eighteen guests were bidden. A 7:30 dessert was served. Guests prepared books of cut-outs featuring "Timely Tips for a Bride" and gave to the guest of honor. Games were played. The honor guest received many attractive gifts.

O. L. H. CLUB MEETS

The O. L. H. club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. T. C. Wheeler. A 1:30 dessert was served. Miss Lula Curin was an additional guest. The afternoon was spent playing bridge. Prizes were won by Mrs. W. B. Johnston and Miss Currin. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Glennie Frost.

MRS. CARLSON HOSTESS

The Justamere club was entertained with a 1:30 dessert Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stewart Carlson, who invited Mrs. Harold Shuey and Mrs. Merville Veatch as additional guests. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon. Mrs. Harold Swartz held high score.

MRS. COMPTON ENTERTAINS

Mrs. N. E. Compton was hostess Monday for the Friendly club. Mrs. S. L. Godard was an additional guest. Dessert was served at 1:30 and a social afternoon with needlework followed.

SORORITY SISTERS HONOR BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Madelle Beidler, bride-elect, was honored with a surprise shower Sunday evening at the home of Miss Nancy Lee in Eugene. Assisting was Miss Elinor Stevenson, also of Eugene. Twelve sorority sisters of Miss Beidler from the Tri Delts were included in the guest list. A buffet supper was served and a social evening followed. The honored guest was recipient of many attractive gifts.

DIRECTOR HONORED

Members of the orchestra of the Methodist church honored their director, Harold Reynolds, and his bride, at a social hour after practice last night, April 19. A gift was presented to the couple and refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Hebron

Mrs. Clyde Langdon died at Montebello, California on April 11th, after a brief illness. She was engaged in teaching school. Besides her husband, she leaves three children, one grandchild, her mother, Mrs. Minnie Chesbro, Mrs. Jessie Gilchrist is an aunt. Funeral services and burial were at Montebello.

Hebron church will have as guest speaker on April 30th, Ray Zack, an Indian student of the Northwest Christian college.

Mrs. Clara Morrow attended a teachers' meeting in Eugene Saturday.

Miss Mildred Dugan of the Grove was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Frances Patton, during the week end.

Albert Marcy has practically recovered from face wounds inflicted by a falling limb while he was logging in the Lorane district.

Lower train fares and "all-expense" tours make this the cheapest, easiest way to go!

Our new low fares make riding cheaper than driving. And they give you the comfort, speed and safety of the train.

Where will you stay? What will your trip cost? Just ask about our "all-expense" tours that include practically everything but meals. Hotel space is assured.

Travel while you sleep to get there quicker and have more time where you want it—at the Fair.

You won't want your car

Spare yourself the burden of a car in crowded San Francisco. Street cars and taxis are plentiful and cheap. Ferries directly to Treasure Island, 10c.

NEW COACH FARES TO SAN FRANCISCO

One Way Roundtrip

$12.00 $18.20

Tourist and Standard Pullman fares are low, too!

"ALL-EXPENSE" TOURS

2 days in San Francisco. Roundtrip coach fare, hotel, taxi, room, ticket to Fair, 30-mile sight-seeing trip.

Ask about longer and more elaborate tours. $25.80

Southern Pacific

C. W. Bragg, Agent

Phone 11

Lynx Hollow

Al Eppenbaugh, manager of the Cottage Grove branch of the Pacific Egg Producers, announces that the Co-op has purchased the Twin Oaks building across from the S. P. depot and will remodel it for use as a warehouse and receiving station. Patronage has increased in this section until the old quarters were inadequate.

Mrs. William McBee's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carter, and Mrs. A. Carter of Tullal, Louisiana, arrived here recently. They intend to locate here.

The L. H. C. club held a no-hostess meeting last week with a weiner roast the big moment of the evening. A good time was reported by all.

Mrs. Arthur Skidgel has returned home after spending several days at Dexter with her mother, who has been ill.

Mrs. Ethel Jolliff and Ira Skidgel were honored at a birthday dinner at the Skidgel home recently. After the dinner the group enjoyed a wild flower hunt.

Walter Eccleson has returned from the hospital where he has been treated for an injured hand received while at work in the Green Ridge mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Bennett of Portland were guests of Mrs. Bennett's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fisher, recently.

Films Developed and Printed

25c 6 or 8 Exposures

Free Enlargement of Your Choice With Every Roll REPRINTS 3c EACH

Guaranteed Work

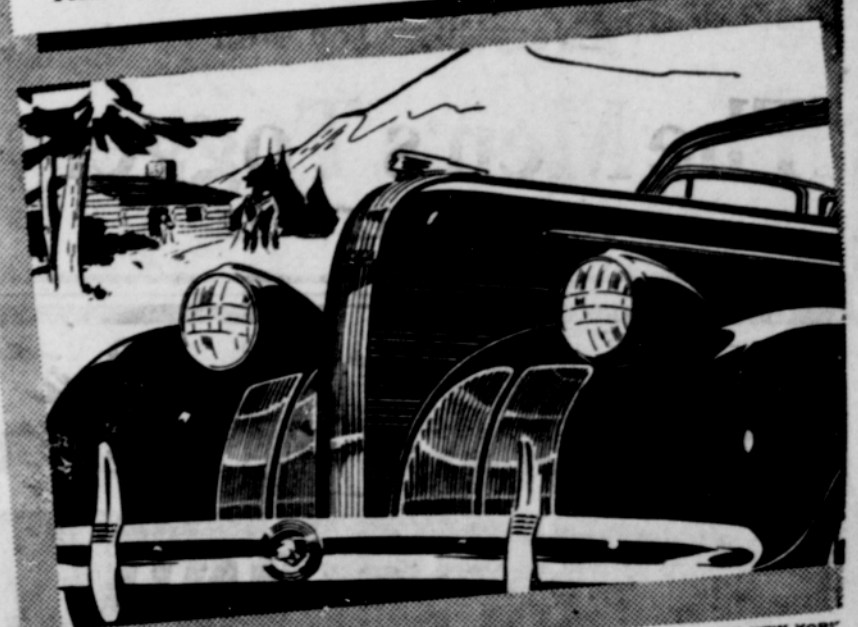

Thrift-Wise

Cottage Grove, Ore.

PONTIAC

GENERAL MOTORS' SECOND LOWEST-PRICED CAR

DESIGNED BY ENGINEERS WHO GAVE THE WORLD OVER 90 BASIC ADVANCEMENTS, INCLUDING...
THE FIRST Duco finished car.
THE FIRST automatic distributor.
THE FIRST harmonic balancer.
THE FIRST mechanical fuel pump.
THE FIRST rubber mounting of an engine about a neutral axis.
THE FIRST electroplated pistons.
THE FIRST gusher valve cooling.
THE FIRST pressure-suction crankcase ventilation.
THE FIRST Safety Shift Gear Control.
THE FIRST variable rate rear springs.

VISIT GENERAL MOTORS' EXHIBITS AT THE NEW YORK AND SAN FRANCISCO WORLD'S FAIRS

THIS IS WHY WE'LL REST OUR CASE WITH YOU ON JUST ONE DEMONSTRATION

ACCORDING to available records, that great driving aid pioneered last year by Pontiac—Safety Shift Gear Control—has swept through the industry faster than any primary engineering advancement ever has before!

That's a tribute to Safety Shift, and to Pontiac engineers, but it's a whole lot more than that. It is valuable additional evidence that Pontiac engineers are the industry's finest—and that no car on earth is better engineered.

That's why you can settle the question of what new car to buy in just one demonstration—and a ten-minute one at that! Great engineering has produced performance, comfort, safety, and thrift as distinctive as the Silver Streak styling, and just as easy to see. You get a brand-new feeling of pleasure, a brand-new sense of confidence, an unequalled glow of pride the instant you take the wheel of America's finest low-priced car.

Yes, we'll cheerfully rest our case on just one demonstration. When you have discovered what Pontiac has and does for a price right down near the lowest, we are confident that you won't want to be without this masterpiece of modern engineering.

PRICES REDUCED AS MUCH AS $92 BELOW LAST YEAR

$758

AND UP, delivered at Pontiac, Mich. Prices subject to change without notice. Transportation, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra.

YOU'LL BE PROUD TO OWN A PONTIAC

MARTIN MOTORS

125 North 9th St.

Cottage Grove, Ore.