THREE FROM OREGON WILL GO TO NATIONAL 4-H CAMP

Oregon will be represented at the national 4-H club camp in Washington, D. C., June 15 to 21 by two club members and one local leader, reports H. C. Seymour, state club leader. This is the largest group to attend from here in several years.

The three making the trip are Mrs. Edna Michaels, local leader; her daughter, Helen Michaels, and Marjorie Jensen, all of Lane county. Helen Michaels won the Moses leadership trophy in 1937. In Washington the delegates will camp near the department of agriculture where daily conferences and tours will give the delegates opportunity to study the work of the department and other government agencies and become better acquainted with the problems and ideals of rural youth the

ANNOUNCING THE PURCHASE OF BECK'S BETTER BAKERY

And introducing the new owner, F. H. Doleman. We have recently purchased the Better Bakery from Mr. Cecil Beck and are taking this means of asking patrons of the Better Bakery for a continuation of their patronage and inviting new patrons to call on us for their bakery needs.

We shall endeavor to offer you a high quality bakery product at all times, believing that with our experience we can offer you bread and pastry products second to none.

We do not contemplate any immediate changes in the operation of the bakery plant, although we do plan to add new products as the demand may justify.

Please accept this as a personal invitation to call on us, and to ask you to try our bread and pastries, if you are not a patron of the Better Bakery. We appreciate the loyalty of the local people in patronizing us and shall strive to merit your confidence at all times.
