HOHMANN-GRAY

The Westminster Presbyterian church in Portland was scene for the wedding Saturday evening at 9:00 o'clock of Miss Elta Hohmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hohmann, and Ronald Gray, son of Mrs. Lillian McCormick. The service was read by Dr. Warrington, professor at Oregon State college at Corvallis. The bride wore a dark blue street dress with dusty pink accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridesmaid, Miss Marie Hohmann, sister of the bride, wore a navy blue suit with white accessories. The groom was attended by Lawrence Wiese. The bride is a graduate of Oregon State college. Mr. Gray attended the Benke-Walker business college in Portland. They will make their home in Portland where Mr. Gray is employed.

RENSHAW-MONROE

Miss Florence Renshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Renshaw of Portland, and Carl D. Monroe of Eugene, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Monroe of Cottage Grove, were united in marriage by the Rev. Fred W. Mueller, pastor of Laurelhurst Baptist church in Portland, Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Palms and tall candelabra with white burning tapers arranged on either side of the fireplace and a basket of regal lilies, pink and white larkspur and delphinium on the mantel formed the setting for the ring ceremony. The bride was lovely in a floor-length dress of tea rose lace. She carried a bouquet of white sweetpeas, gardenias and pink roses. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Wayne Monroe, sister-in-law of the groom, played "I Love You Truly" and the wedding march from Lohengrin. Immediate relatives and close friends of the couple were guests. After a buffet luncheon the couple left on a short wedding trip. The bride is a graduate of Jefferson high school and O.I.T. business college in Portland. The groom is a graduate of the local high school and of the University of Oregon in Eugene. The couple will make their home in Eugene.

MISS MORSS WED

The wedding of Miss Margaret Morss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morss of Redding, California, to Chester Valquette took place at the home of the bride's parents Sunday in the presence of about forty relatives and friends. After the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to Yosemite valley. Mr. and Mrs. Valquette will make their home in Sacramento, California, where Mr. Valquette is employed on the staff of the U. S. weather bureau. Mrs. F. E. Goude, grandmother, and Misses Frances and Olive Gawley, cousins of the bride, attended from Cottage Grove.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Announcement has been made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Evawynne Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Jones of Dufur, Oregon, to Wendell Spriggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Spriggs of this city. The wedding will take place July 16th at 12:00 o'clock noon at the Christian church at Dufur. Only close relatives and friends will be guests. The bride-elect was a teacher in the local Central grade schools the past two years. Mr. Spriggs is a graduate of the Cottage Grove high school. The couple will make their home at Hood River, where Mr. Spriggs is employed.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. S. L. Godard entertained Tuesday evening at her home with a dinner honoring her husband on his birthday anniversary. After the dinner a boat ride on the Coast Fork river was enjoyed by all present. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Silsinger, Mrs. Gilmore, Mrs. Roy Graham and Mrs. Geo. Graham, all of Eugene, and the guest of honor, Mr. Godard.

BEIDLER-MOLINO

At an impressive candlelight ceremony at the First Presbyterian church Thursday evening Miss Madelle Beidler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beidler, became the bride of Henry S. Molino of Coronado, California. The service was read at 8:30 o'clock by the Rev. James Aikin Smith before a large gathering of relatives and friends. Palms, baskets of white carnations, snapdragons and lilies and candelabras with tall white tapers formed the setting. Preceding the ceremony George Matthews, uncle of the bride, sang, "I Love You Truly." The wedding march from Lohengrin and the recessional by Mendelssohn were used with Mrs. Roy Short at the organ and Miss Marjorie Scobert of Eugene at the piano. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a white satin princess style dress fashioned with a short train. With it she wore a finger-tip length veil of net arranged with a cluster of white bouvardia and lilies of the valley. Her bouquet was an old-fashioned nosegay of pink rap-ture rosebuds, lilies of the valley and white bouvardia. The maid of honor, Miss Maryjane Smith, cousin of the bride, wore a frock of pink embroidered net and carried a nosegay of lavender sweet-peas and yellow roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Lucy Molino, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Paris Breedlove, cousin of the bride. Miss Molino wore a dress of pink moire and Mrs. Breedlove, one of blue moire. They carried colorful nosegays of sweetpeas and roses. Jane Beidler, sister of the bride, and Helen Axley, as flower girls, wore floor length dresses of pink net and blue net and carried nosegays of sweetheart roses. Sevy Molino, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Allan Ferrin and Richard Smith were ushers. A reception was held following the wedding at the home of the bride's parents. The dining table was centered with a wedding cake and white tapers. Mrs. Ira Beidler and Mrs. Harold Axley cut the cake. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Joe Smith and Mrs. George Matthews. Mrs. Boyd Rasmussen of Powers, Mrs. Alvin Hodgson of Yoncalla and Miss Adeline Adams of Eugene assisted with the serving.

For traveling, the bride wore a suit of French blue with fuschia and white accessories and an orchid corsage. Following a short wedding trip north the couple left for southern California. They will make their home in San Diego where Mr. Molino is a teacher in the San Diego schools. The bride is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. Mr. Molino is a graduate of the University of Redlands, California, and a member of Kappa Sigma Sigma fraternity. He will receive his masters degree this summer from the University of Southern California.
