Royal Neighbors Are Conducting a Slogan Contest Now

A slogan contest for juvenile members of Royal Neighbors of America is being conducted as a feature of the annual summer juvenile membership campaign of the fraternal benefit society, according to an announcement received by Nellie Blackmore of this city, recorder of Camp No. 3539.

The contest and campaign opened on June 1 and will end August 31. To be eligible to enter a slogan, a Royal Neighbor juvenile must obtain a new juvenile member for the society in accordance with rules supplied to camp recorders and district deputies.

The slogan contest is divided into four divisions, girls, ages six to 11 and 11 to 16, and boys, ages six to 11 and 11 to 16. The grand prizes will be bicycles, miniature cameras and gas model airplanes. Prizes will also be awarded to juveniles who obtain one, two, three, four and five new juvenile members and these include cameras, model airplanes and roller skates.

The slogans must be 10 words or less and three disinterested persons will act as judges and their decisions will be final. The names of all prize winners will be published in The Royal Neighbor, official magazine of the society.

DORENA GRANGE MET JUNE 14th

Dorena Grange met in regular session June 14. The agricultural committee chairman, Henry Williamson, urged grange members to plan for the south Lane fair to be held in Cottage Grove the last of August. Legislative chairman E. R. Finnerty read report on State Grange convention held in Corvallis.

Mrs. Bettis of Home Economics department announced an afternoon meeting of the club which was held at the Gierau home last Tuesday. The members are urged to bring soft sox or stockings to be made into soft toys for the children at the Doernbecher hospital.

There were 686 grange slips turned in.

The serving committee as announced to serve at the next regular grange session, July 7, is Mr. and Mrs. Joe Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Dodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williamson attended the San Francisco fair with a group of Future Farmers and gave most interesting reports of their trip.

Orville Horner was elected Juvenile Grange assistant to Mrs. Wicks.

Donna Jennings has been appointed Juvenile Grange reporter and hereafter we shall include a report from that department.

Only Gas Burns

It is impossible for any solid substance to burn. Nothing will burn except gas. In order to use wood, coal, or any other solid as fuel, it is necessary first to apply heat to change them into gas form. Fire is rapid union between oxygen and the gaseous carbon.

Resembles Pig and Elephant

A tapir is a large thick-skinned mammal with the nose prolonged into a short trunk. In appearance the animal somewhat resembles the pig and the elephant.
