was present and a well known lawyer prepared a statement or brief, according to their wishes. This will call attention to the claims to be adjusted and will be presented to the government.

200 Enjoy Hemenway Picnic Tuesday Eve

Picnickers at the Hemenway grove on the Hemenway ranch Tuesday evening had the opportunity to sample the possibilities of Boysenberries. Business men and their families numbering about 200 were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hemenway on this occasion and spread a picnic lunch at the grove. Coffee and Boysenberries were served by the hosts, the berries were available in short-cake, in punch and in jellies.

After the picnic lunch was served, a number of the men enjoyed horseshoe pitching. Others gathered around the campfire for group singing and social conversation.

BEG PARDON

People do read the Sentinel ads as evidenced in the ad of Bressler's last week in which steel beds and coil spring mattresses were advertised at $4.88. The ad was popularly interpreted as a rare bargain through the omission of the word "each." The article was supposed to have been priced at $4.88 each and we take this occasion to beg the pardon of Mr. Bressler and the indulgence of our readers.

Norway's Meat Dishes

In England it's roast beef and in Germany sausage; but in Norway you'll find reindeer steak and roast willow-grouse are the national specialties in meat dishes.
