RECEPTION FOR WOODARDS

An informal reception was given Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood, honoring Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Woodard, who were married August 4th at Eugene. Mr. Woodard has been a resident of Cottage Grove and vicinity since 1900 where he has been engaged in the sawmill, shingle mill, pole and wood business. Mrs. Woodard, who before her marriage, was Mrs. Idell Ward, has been a resident of Cottage Grove a number of years. Those attending the reception from Cottage Grove were J. F. Woodard and children Lucille and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Woodard, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Woodard and children Jacqueline, Roy and Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Woodard, Mr. and Mrs. John McCall, Benjamin, Milo, Wayne and Ruth McCall, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hull, Ronald, Donald and Homer Hull, Mr. and Mrs. William Caveness and children William Jr. and Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. George McAlpine, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Swanson and daughter Anne, Doris Wood and Arthur Carlile. Out-of-town relatives of Mr. Woodard were Mrs. Richard Eug and son Richard Jr., William Horton of Seattle, Washington, and Mrs. Murland Johnson of Rujada. Mrs. Woodard's relatives were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Arne and daughter Lois and Frank K. Ward also of Cottage Grove. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Warren, Phyllis Vincent, Evelyn Vincent, Eileen Harpole, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Arne, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chaffee and daughter Evonna and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Woodard. Refreshments of ice cream and cookies were served.

LUNCHEON FOR VISITORS

Mrs. Minnie Willits entertained in her home Friday with a 1:00 o'clock luncheon honoring Mrs. Emma Carey Branstetter of Los Angeles, California, and Mrs. Hattie Best of Portland. Both ladies were old time schoolmates of Mrs. Willits. The centerpiece for the table was of blue hydrangeas, pink roses and babybreath. The afternoon was spent socially. Other guests were Mrs. John Veatch, Mrs. George McQueen, Mrs. Bird Petrie, Mrs. W. W. McFarland and the hostess, Mrs. Willits.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS

The Royal Neighbors met at the Eagles hall Tuesday evening for their regular meeting. The members of the lodge presented a gift to Mrs. Edna Burleson to give to her son Harold, who was recently married. At the close of the meeting all adjourned to a local ice cream parlor for a dutch treat.

PICNIC AT CAMP FISK

A large group of the young people of the Baptist church held a picnic at Camp Fisk Sunday afternoon. The afternoon was spent playing ball and swimming. Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Hansen attended as sponsors for the group.

FAMILY GATHERING

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Means had as their house guests for the past two weeks their four sons from out of state. They were Ray Means and wife of Stillwater, Oklahoma, Perry Means and wife and son of Caldwell, Idaho; Virgil Means and wife of Moscow, Idaho; Kenneth Means and wife and daughter of Coolidge, Arizona. There was also one daughter at home, Mrs. Jack Richards. On Sunday all six sons were home for the first time in six years. Virgil and Kenneth had not met in nine years, and Perry and Kenneth in six years. There were two daughters who were not present. All of the guests left the latter part of the week with the exception of Ray Means and wife who stayed over until Monday. All nine children hope to be here three years from now to celebrate their parents' golden wedding anniversary.

REBEKAH LODGE

At the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge held Friday evening, Mrs. W. Hart of Portland, chairman of the good of the order of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, was introduced. Mrs. Hart told of her visits to the different lodges throughout the state and of their work and gave instructions as to what she would like the local lodge to accomplish during the year. On behalf of the lodge, Mrs. Edith Van Schoick, Noble Grand, presented Alta Plunkett, Past Noble Grand, with a past noble grand's pin. Arrangements are being made for the members to visit at least one lodge each month. Mearl McKibben, degree captain, urged all members of the staff to be present at the next meeting to practice for initiation. Visitors present were Mr. and Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Hattie Best of Portland, and Mrs. Emma Carey Branstetter of Los Angeles, California.

TOWNSEND CLUB MEETS

The Townsend club met at the Townsend hall Monday evening for a regular session. Routine business was transacted with W. E. Masters acting as chairman in the absence of both the president and vice president. A committee of three consisting of Hamilton Veatch, M. M. Wheeler and Mrs. Applewhite was elected to get more of the members out to the meetings and to collect the $2.00 per month that the club voted to send to headquarters to send out trailblazers in those districts where congressmen voted against the Townsend bill. W. E. Masters was elected vice-president for the balance of the year. Mrs. Cad Wallace promises a watermelon feed for the next social meeting to be held August 14th. Everybody is invited.

PICNIC MONDAY

A group of friends enjoyed a picnic and social evening Monday at the picnic grove near the Ben Zendron home. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Spriggs, Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Mills, Lola Howe, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Schrenk and son Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Martin and family and Leona Hamel, Lena Zendron and Ben Zendron.

LADIES GOLF PLAY

There were eight women out at the weekly golf play Wednesday morning. Marian Denson won low putting score. There will be the usual potluck supper and golf Friday evening at 5:30.

SCHOOLMATES PICNIC

A picnic of interest to many Cottage Grove residents was that held by the pioneer schoolmates Saturday at the city park. The picnic was for those who attended school during 1880 to 1890 at the Cottage Grove and Latham schools. Invitations were sent out to all who could be contacted and many from other cities and states attended. About 79 including husbands and wives were present. An enjoyable time was had singing old songs and telling events of old school days. It was decided to make the reunion an annual event and the first Saturday in August was set as the date for the meeting. The Pioneer Schoolmates club was a name suggested and the following officers were elected: Charles McKibben, president; Mrs. May Garoutte Hart, vice president; Mrs. Minnie Horton Willits, secretary. Committee on arrangements, Curtis Veatch of Halsey and Mrs. Hattie Best of Portland. Program committee, Ernest McDole, Mrs. Bird Petrie, Mrs. Dora Veatch Martin.

The following were in attendance: Jessie Garoutte Kelley, Frank Kelly, Anna Griffin Petrie, Albert Griffin, Cora McKibben Teeters, Mabel Wynne Merriman, Ellen Carey Markley, Anna McFarland Chrisman, Wes Chrisman, Charles McKibben, Merle Schmutz McKibben, Minnie Thornton Plaster, Warren W. JOINT PICNIC

The American Legion and the Auxiliary held their annual picnic at Metcalf's grove Monday evening. A potluck supper was served with the Legion furnishing ice cream and coffee. About fifty were present. Following the supper each organization held a short business session.

GARDEN CLUB PICNIC

The Garden club met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. L. Godard. After the regular business meeting, a program was given. The families of the members present joined them at 6:30 for a picnic supper. About eight members and their families were present for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Byrd and small daughter of Roseburg, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Pickens, came up Tuesday evening, bearing a large birthday cake with the words, "Happy Birthday, Mother and Dad," written across the top. They also brought an enameled kitchen table and a moth-proof chest for their mother and father, whose birthdays are only one day apart.

FORMER RESIDENTS IN FILM

Red hair and freckles, an almost inseparable combination, and an eye for business obtained roles as extras at "Hollywood on the McKenzie" for two former Cottage Grove boys, Guald and Gordon Sikes, who formerly lived here with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sikes. One of the lads applied for work in the movie and was immediately given a place and when he informed the management that he had a brother with similar complexion the prother also was put on as an extra.

Mrs. L. J. McCoy, Mrs. Lena Hamloth, Mrs. Cad Wallace, Mrs. Minnie Willits, Mrs. Rosa Currin and Mrs. Elsie Currin attended the Neighbors club at Dorena Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Brumbaugh, Dick Cherry and Mrs. Jennie Cox returned Monday from a week's vacation spent at Rockaway. The Brumbaughs left Wednesday for their home at The Dalles.
