NAVAL ACADEMY EXAMS

October 7, 1939, the Civil Service Commission will hold an examination to determine eligible applicants for appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland.

The First Congressional District of Oregon will have two vacancies at that Academy in 1940. The successful candidate will enter the Academy next June. Congressman James W. Mott is anxious that all ambitious young men in the First District, which he represents, have an opportunity to try for these coveted appointments.

Any young unmarried man, not less than sixteen years of age nor more than twenty years of age on April 1st, 1940, may compete. In order to make the required arrangements it is necessary that the applicant notify Congressman James W. Mott, Salem, Oregon, not later than September 1, 1939, of his desire to participate in the examination.
