ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

The American Legion and Auxiliary met at the armory on Monday evening for their annual Christmas dinner and party. Following the dinner, a short program with a tree and gifts for the children was enjoyed.

A brief business meeting of the Auxiliary was held after the program. A hospital report was given that a carton of Christmas cards, two bouquets, three sacks of rug tags, and a box of magazines had been sent to the Roseburg Veterans' hospital; with a gift box containing a gift for a mother, two girls and two boys, had been sent to the Veterans' Gift Shop at the Portland hospital. Following the holidays, used Christmas cards may be left at Bill's Market to be sent to the veterans hospitals, where they are used in making cards and decorations.

The next meeting of the Legion and Auxiliary will be held January 15th, as New Years falls on the regular meeting date.

RAINBOW GIRLS

The annual Christmas party of the Rainbow Girls was held in the Masonic Temple Monday evening. At the business meeting preceding the party, committees were appointed to be in charge of the formal dance to be held December 28th. Margaret Monson was appointed chairman of a committee for the decorations and the program and Nancy Anlauf, chairman of the refreshment committee. Plans are being made to purchase a radio and one was tried out during the course of the evening. A lighted and beautifully decorated Christmas tree was the center of attraction as gifts were exchanged, displayed and re-wrapped to be sent to the Shrine hospital at Portland. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

PRESBYTERIAN MISSIONARY

Mrs. A. W. Shofstall was hostess to the Presbyterian Missionary Wednesday afternoon. The theme of the devotional which was led by Mrs. George Matthews, was the Christmas story. Carols were sung and a playlet given. Those participating in the playlet, which was entitled "Christmas Lights in Many Lands," were Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. L. W. Coiner, Mrs. S. C. Hunter, Mrs. O. W. Blackmore, Mrs. Harold Houser, Mrs. H. B. Ferrin and Mrs. E. F. McFarland. Doris Morelock sang a special number, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. H. A. Hagen. Mrs. Judson Allen was a guest. Dainty refreshments were served at the tea hour by the hostess.

SOCIAL TWELVE

The Social Twelve club met at the home of Mrs. N. E. Compton Thursday for the annual Christmas party. Mrs. M. Backensto and Mrs. Herbert Eakin assisted Mrs. Compton as hostesses. A guest at the meeting was Mrs. Janey Brace of Vancouver, Washington, who is visiting at the home of Mrs. B. R. Job. At the business meeting a letter was read from Mrs. James Smith of Salem, wife of the former Presbyterian pastor. Mrs. W. A. Hemenway was welcomed on her return to the club. Gifts were exchanged and refreshments served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Nannie Smith.

M. P. G. CLUB

The M. P. G. club held their Christmas tree and exchange of gifts Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Beidler. A Christmas dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Short at 7:00 o'clock in the evening at which there were twenty present. Husbands of the members were guests. The table was centered with a miniature stage coach and appropriate favors were at each place. The evening following the dinner was spent socially.

TUESDAY EVENING CLUB

The Tuesday Evening club held their regular meeting in the library last week. Mrs. Dan Hamant reviewed the biography of Benjamin Franklin by Carl Van Doren. Mrs. Charles Adams of Eugene, a former member of the club, related the story of her vacation trip to Hawaii in June. She displayed various articles which she had brought back from the islands with her. At the business meeting it was decided to purchase a chair to present to the library.

NEIGHBORS OF WOODCRAFT

The Neighbors of Woodcraft met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. S. Powell. Mrs. Hazel Chapman assisted as hostess. A 7:30 dessert was served. Bridge followed with five tables in play. Several prizes were given during the evening. Mrs. Fanny Lebow held high score and Mrs. Mabel Sowles second high. Christmas gifts were also exchanged during the evening.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR U. O. "DAD'S DAY."

EUGENE, Oregon—Plans for a week end that is expected to be the biggest "Dad's Day" in the history of the University of Oregon were completed on the campus this week at a meeting of students, faculty and members of the Dad's organization.

Setting the week end of January 26-27 as the time when students will entertain their fathers who visit on the campus, the committee innovated a plan under which various schools and departments will be asked to hold special open house. Cooperation of student honor societies will be enlisted to give information to the fathers, it has been announced by John Cavanagh, Salem, general chairman of the week end.
