MISS DELLA FINNERTY WED

An announcement received here yesterday tells of the marriage of Miss Della Finnerty, daughter of Mrs. Blanche Cleland and granddaughter of the late Mrs. Lora Finnerty and niece of G. E. Finnerty and Mrs. Kate Burrows, both of Cottage Grove, to Ula Morris, which was solemnized at Camas, Washington, last Thursday. The ceremony was read at the Christian church by the Rev. Crockett in the presence of 150 guests.

The bride was given in marriage by Dr. Arthur Forshaw of Portland. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Earl Chandler sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Jack Arvidson, who also played the wedding march. Mrs. June Fifield, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Shari Runyan was flower girl and Loy Morris, brother of the groom, was best man.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors and immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Morris left for their home at Fort Rains.

55th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parker celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary at their home on east Main street on Christmas day. They were united in marriage at the home of Mrs. Parker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Hunsaker at Dexter in 1884. To this union were born four children, Basil and Dan Parker of Dunsmuir, Curtis Parker of Dexter and Mrs. J. V. Stewart. They have seven grandchildren now living. The Parkers have lived in Cottage Grove for the past thirty years. Eleven guests were present for the celebration.

CHRISTMAS GUESTS

Christmas dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph T. Long of Cottage Grove were Mr. and Mrs. Otis Chapman and family of Dorena, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Baxa of Dorena, Mr. and Mrs. James Bridges and family of Creswell, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Addington and family of Cottage Grove, Myron Long of Cottage Grove, Mrs. Mary Enright of Saginaw, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Burleson and son and Grandma Burleson of Saginaw, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Whetham and Henry Whetham of Saginaw, Edward Carpenter, and Charlie Whetham of Eugene.—Contributed.

JUSTAMERE CLUB

The annual Christmas party for the Justamere club was held at the home of Mrs. Walter Trembley Friday evening. For the dessert, which was served at 7:30, the tables were spread with white tablecloths with a large red bow in the center and a red streamer running to each side of the table to represent a Christmas package. Red candles, pine cones and fir were other attractive decorations. The dessert was followed by a Christmas tree and exchange of gifts and an evening of cards at which Mrs. Lloyd Griggs won first prize. Mrs. Loren Schroeder was a guest for the evening.

CLASS PARTY

Mrs. Clark's class of the Baptist church held their Christmas party and exchange of gifts at the church last Friday. The afternoon was spent playing games with refreshments served at the close. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Hansen, Mrs. Truman Clark, Carmen White, John Beasley, Bruce Bush, Mary Hansen, Alma and Caroline Magnusson, Maxine Hunter, Orlena Martin and Milo McCall.

CHRISTMAS DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. William Petersen entertained with a Christmas dinner on Sunday at their home. The table was artistically centered with candles and holly and other Christmas decorations including a lighted Christmas tree which were in evidence about the house. Guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Petersen, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wylie of Ashland and Mr. and Mrs. McLain.

GO CAROLING

Some fifteen young people of the Presbyterian church, after their worship service, sang Christmas carols on Christmas eve before several homes where there was illness and the homes of some of the older members of the church. After the singing of the carols they gathered at the manse for a social time and exchange of Christmas gifts. Refreshments were served by Mrs. McFarland.

ANNUAL PARTY

Mrs. Glennie Frost, Belle Burkholder and C. S. Burkholder were guests Christmas eve at the J. P. Graham home for the annual Christmas tree and party which has been given each year by Mr. and Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Nancy Oglesby since the passing of Dr. Frost and Mrs. Clara Burkholder.
