FLOWERS ON NEW YEAR DAY

While communities in the mid-west and on the Atlantic seaboard in the same latitude as the Willamette valley, shiver in the snow and ice, flowers bloom here. A. E. Smith of 1865 Main street reports that he had primroses, pansies and carnations blooming in his yard. He brought to the Sentinel office a specimen of the Chinese lily or Joss flower, which bloomed two months early this year. Incidentally, he said he found wild strawberries in bloom also.

Nor are the garden flowers and wild strawberries ahead of some of the other native flowers and shrubs. Pussy willows have been budding several weeks early this year.

AFTER HOLIDAY HEADACHES

Among the after holiday headaches received by local business people are blanks for making the state and federal income tax returns. Approximately 70,000 tax blanks have been sent out from the federal office at Portland.

These notices are in addition to a manufacturing census blank sent out and to come shortly are county tax notices to be sent from the court house.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

LOIS HANSEN, Editor

FFA Banquet

Several speakers talked before the local Future Farmers at their annual banquet held at the armory last evening.

Among them were Manning Becker, state secretary who spoke on project activity; O. S. Fletcher, county agent, who spoke on the possibilities of Lane county farmers; Morris C. Buchanan, agriculture instructor from Eugene, who gave a chalk talk.

Dean Chapman gave the opening address. George Stout, president of the local FFA, was toastmaster. Group singing was led by Miss Jelinek of the music department.

The FFA boys furnished the food which was cooked and served by the Home Economics club.

Dr. H. A. Hagen talked before the boys' federation Friday on the topic of health and human body.

He compared the human body to the new automobile. Babies and new automobiles are being born every day and both should be taken care of and not run too hard. Dr. Hagen said the garage was for the automobile just as the hospital is for the people, although the human body is much more delicate than a car. The stomach is a "work shop" and not a "playhouse" to be stuffed with undesirable food. With plenty of good food, rest, and fresh air our bodies will not let us down.

Mr. Beghtol spoke about the future of the Grove basketball team. He said they had plenty of pep and were athletic minded, but their skill wasn't complete. Bennett Newton explained the need of cooperation between the players and the fans, and Bill Zimmerly explained some new basketball rules. Bill Spies sang "Old Black Joe."

Home Talent Program
A home talent program was the main feature at the girls' league meeting Friday. Martha Arnold was in charge of the following program: A tap dance by Virginia Lee, accompanied by Arline Anderson; vocal solo by Bernice Smith, entitled "I Poured My Heart Into A Song," accompanied by Donna Hatch; a reading, "Ginger" by Cleora Korstjens; two piano solos, "South of the Border" and "An Apple for the Teacher," Iris Montiech; a vocal solo, "My Prayer," Edith Gamet, accompanied by Arline Anderson.

School yells were led by Arline Anderson. Group songs were sung by all the girls, with Pat Baldwin as accompanist.

Pass Hi-Y Test

Fourteen students of the Cottage Grove high school passed an oral test given Wednesday by the board of examiners of the Hi-Y club. They are now eligible to become chapter members. The ones who passed the test are: George Dugan, Harry Sturges, Ray Gamet, Bill Spies, Alden Garoute, Ray Randall, Vinal Randall, Allan Reed, Jim Bickie, Paul Davenport, Dick Smith, Roy Barr, Charles Brown and Bob Daugherty.

Macbeth to Be Presented

Shakespeare's great tragedy, "Macbeth," will be presented by each of the three English IV classes during the last week of the semester. This project in English requires each student to do research work for costumes suitable for this period and to memorize their lines. Selected scenes of one act is to be presented each day next week by each class to any upper class students able to visit the class during periods one, five, and six.

The following students spent their vacation out of town: Anna Bain at Eugene, Peggy Sharpe at Corvallis, Dorothea Goddard at Eureka, California; Gladys Lemley at San Francisco, Allen Reed at Portland; Virginia Andrews at Portland; Velma Bennett at Eugene, Marjorie Woodard at Dallas, Elizabeth McGregor in Kansas; Bob Jordan at Newport, Nancy Anlauf at Portland, Shirley Jepson in Washington, Miriam Ferrin at Portland, Roy Barr at Newport, Darrell Sarff at Salem, Ray Randall at Los Angeles, Bill Workman at Timberline Lodge; Vinal Randall and Dick Smith at Belknap.
