DORENA GRANGE

The regular meeting of Dorena Grange was held in the Grange hall last Thursday evening. Of interest to members was the report of Henry Williamson, local ag instructor, urging peach growers to spray for peach curl now. Almond Hemenway asked that all who wanted sulphur phosphate to contact the county agent now so as to receive a supply as soon as more phosphate is available. Lula Bettis, home economics chairman, announced the start of a class in basket weaving, which meets at the community hall each Wednesday evening. George Layng, introduced as the oldest grange member, was a special guest at a birthday table. The grange decided to honor the birthdays of its members on the last meeting of each month. The first and second degree work will be given a number of candidates at the next regular meeting, February 1st.

THE JEWS.—GOD'S CHOSEN PEOPLE—Chosen to be a blessing to all nations. Refused to hear the true Prophet. Rejected Jesus Christ the Promised Messiah. Are beginning now to reap the terrible harvest—which is growing worse daily. Will we profit by their ruin—turn to God or reap a like harvest?

VICTORY BANQUET

Messrs. Clark Van Fleet, Shell Oregon division manager; P. G. Drew, Oregon sales manager, W. Wirth, Oregon operations manager, were hosts last Wednesday evening at a victory banquet for the personnel of the Cottage Grove Shell depot.

The occasion was in celebration of the winning by Cottage Grove of the "1939 World's Fair Sales Race" from a field of 32 contesting depots. The contest was awarded on the basis of greatest percentage of sales increase over the preceding year. Suitable prizes were awarded to Roy Sunderland, Leonard T. Maxwell, Glen Swanson and Leo Waldo.

SPECIAL MEETING

The disabled veterans of the world war will hold a special meeting at the armory Friday, January, 26th at 8:00 p. m. All veterans are cordially invited to attend.

Remember this also, and be well persuaded of its truth: the future is not in the hands of Fate, but in ours.—Jules Jusserand.
