HORSE SHORTAGE LIKELY IF WAR IS CONTINUED.

If the European war makes much demand on the horse supply in the United States, a pronounced shortage will result, declares Dr. W. H. Lytle, chief of the state department of agriculture division of animal industry.

France has contracted already to purchase in this country 6000 horses for war use, and if the war continues more purchases are anticipated.

The U. S. horse population, already low, decreased further in 1939 due to smaller colt crops, encephalomyelitis and tractor competition.

Even if war demands do not develop materially, there should still be an active demand for horses this year because there is increasing stress on horses for recreational use. Also replacement will be necessary for a certain percentage of the animals used in farm work.

The country had in the neighborhood of 10 million horses and four million mules as the year opened. The federal farm census of 1935 listed 171,071 horses and mules of all ages in Oregon.

Stadiums and Stockholders

The 18 largest football stadiums in the United States, which have an estimated capacity for 1,500,000 persons, would be required to seat all the owners of chain store stocks and bonds in this country.

Liquid Air 'Gun' Pocket Size

A vest pocket liquid air machine weighing only half a pound, but said to be capable of producing between 50 and 60 pounds of liquid air an hour, has been demonstrated in Moscow.

Golf Swing Speed

Golf professionals recently tested their hitting power by aid of a phototube device, and the top swing was 81.1 miles an hour.

Good by loving Sister
But only for awhile
Soon I now meet you
For you left me with a smile.

Yes, O Yes I miss you
From my home so sweet
But soon we shout together
On Heavens golden street.

We loved him yes we loved him
For he was ever true
But we couldn't keep her
For Jesus loved her too.

Oh it was so soon
While earth has lost her beauty
In heaven now she blooms.

He loved to hear us singing
He loved to hear us pray
Now no doubt he's shouting
In God's perfect day.

With patience she did suffer
Jesus gave her grace
And she quietly slipped away
With a smile upon her face.

While in awful suffering
Then Jesus bright and fair
Opened heavens windows
And he saw her mansion there.

She through with pain forever
Her joy cannot be told
She's now at rest with Jesus
In the homeland of the soul.

We say farewell dear sister
In heaven there no shrouds
We will live to meet you
With Jesus in the clouds.

FROM A SISTER.

Film of Siamese Twins

A film was made of the life of the Siamese twins, Irina and Galina, who were kept alive one year and 22 days in a Moscow clinic. The body has been preserved for anatomists, and the Moscow Brain Institute is studying the brains.

Extinct Passenger Pigeon

The passenger pigeon, so numerous that its flocks once darkened American skies for hours at a time, became extinct within a few years when market hunters knocked down the adult birds systematically from their roosts at night.

Volcano Seals Volcanic Ash

Volcanic ash never had a volcano. Yet it supplies more volcanic ash than any other state or territory. The ash is used for scouring soaps, tooth powder, abrasives and so on.

What America Eats

In a single year Americans consumed more than 260,000,000,000 pounds of food, or a ton for each man, woman and child in the country, it is estimated.

Reorganization of Mt. States Power Co. Is Approved

Word was received Thursday by the office of Mountain States Power company that the Federal Securities and Exchange commission on January 24, approved the amended plan of reorganization of Mountain States Power company. The said amended plan provides for the issuance and sale of $7,500,000 of 4 1/4% bonds and also $600,000 of 3% serial notes.

The proceeds of the above sales are to be used to pay present bondholders in full with interest to a date thirty days subsequent to said payment. This amended plan as approved is in lieu of the issuance to the present bondholders of 5% bonds as was provided in the previous plan of reorganization.

All provisions of the amended plan as approved respecting the treatment of present preferred and common stockholders are identical with those of the prior plan and application will be made immediately to the Federal Court by the company for an early hearing on the confirmation of this most recently approved plan.

The company's president, Z. E. Merrill, is in the east at present and attempting to bring this entire matter to an early conclusion with all federal authorities having jurisdiction.

Night Life

The national fitness council is aiming to turn night into day by floodlighting London's playgrounds and playing fields for the benefit of working people. In a report to 1,641 local authorities, the council says that floodlighting would not be costly or injurious to eyesight.

HOMEMAKERS WILL ATTEND COMBINED EVENT AT O.S.C.

Plans to welcome some 1200 Oregon homemakers for the tenth annual Home Interests conference, and for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of home economics at Oregon State college, are being made, says Mrs. Azalea Sager, state home demonstration leader in the extension service. Dates set for the combined event are February 27 to March 1, inclusive.

The joint program is being planned so that Tuesday evening and Wednesday will be devoted primarily to the anniversary celebration, while on Thursday and Friday, the regular events of the Home Interests conference will be emphasized. Demonstrations and discussions featuring all phases of family living will be conducted by leaders in their respective fields, including foods and nutrition, clothing and textiles, home furnishings, home management, parent education and child development, home and community recreation, art, home landscaping and religion.
