

Remember When?

—Photos by Mobilgas Reporter

Thrilling experiences of the "good old days" are recalled by these pictures received from Don Dawson, general sales manager for the marketers of Mobilgas, showing when roads were like those traveled by the sturdy Franklin (at top); when croquet was the smart set's popular pastime; when we thawed out the pump to get water; and when the auto styles shown here were the height of achievement. Recalling fond memories to those of two and three generations ago, these familiar scenes will also prove interesting to the younger generation of progressive America.

Widows, Children To Receive Federal Insurance Checks

The widow and children of any worker in Lane county whose death occurred after last December 31 are entitled to monthly insurance payments from the federal government if the deceased father had had sufficient employment at jobs covered by the federal social security act with minimum earnings required by the law.

These payments are made regardless of the age at which the father's death occurred, according to Carl D. Monroe, manager of the social security board, located in the Post Office building.

Some claims have been filed with his office, Monroe said, but other families in this county may now be eligible. The Eugene office accepts claims for these payments from Coos, Curry, Douglas, Josephine and Lane counties.

The following requirements must be met to qualify for these monthly benefits: (1) the worker must have died after December 31; (2) the widow must have in her care a child or adopted child of the worker that is less than age 16 or under 18 if in school and (3) the worker must have been employed at jobs covered by the social security act in at least six calendar quarters since January 1, 1937, with earnings of at least $50 in each of those quarters from such employment.

These federal insurance payments, Monroe explained, should not be confused with the state law in behalf of needy dependent children. Federal payments are made as a matter of right, and not based upon need, and can be paid only if the deceased worker's employment record shows that he has met the requirements of the social security act.

Workers in jobs covered by the federal law have a social security account card. They contribute one per cent of their wages or salaries and the employer pays an equal amount.

A free pamphlet entitled "100 Questions and Answers on Social Security" may be obtained by writing to the social security board, Post Office Building, Eugene.

Bohemia News

Two crews are working at the Champion mines in the Bohemia district, drifting on tunnels 9 and 10. The crews working on No. 9 are drifting east. No. 10 is a new tunnel, which is being excavated. Prospecting on the Musick and Noonday has been suspended for the winter. Tunnelling on Nos. 9 and 10 has been slowed down due to the difficulty of penetrating the hard rock.

Approximately 3,500 feet of tunnels has been excavated since mining work was resumed at Bohemia last summer.

Superphosphate Use Increased By AAA Program

Oregon farmers by the hundreds are converging on railway points these days to secure their share of more than 3000 tons of superphosphate being distributed to growers cooperating in the AAA farm program.

Under similar distribution plans, Oregon farmers secured 1080 tons of superphosphate last spring and 1200 tons last fall. These distributions have brought about a marked increase in the use of superphosphate in the state, according to the state agricultural conservation office in Corvallis.

The superphosphate is distributed under a "grant of aid" plan whereby farmers can receive the material now, and pay for it through deduction from their 1940 agricultural conservation checks.

The superphosphate is shipped by rail direct from the factory at Anaconda, Montana. Distribution in each county is cared for by county agricultural conservation offices. Previous to January 10, the material was sold to Oregon farmers at $36 a ton. Since that time, the price has been $40.

Much of Oregon's farm land, especially in the western part of the state, is benefited by application of superphosphate, it is pointed out by N. C. Donaldson of Corvallis, in charge of the state AAA office.

"It is generally recognized that a good share of the farm lands and pastures of western Oregon respond favorably to the use of superphosphate," he said. "Its use benefits many types of farm crops. Since our program stresses conservation, however, we require that the superphosphate distributed under the grant of aid plan be used only on soil-conserving crops such as alfalfa, red clover, leguminous cover crops, and permanent pasture."

Counties receiving superphosphate under the present distribution are Baker, Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Coos, Crook, Deschutes, Douglas, Hood River, Jackson, Josephine, Klamath, Lake, Lane, Lincoln, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Tillamook, Washington and Yamhill.

Moonsless Month

A "moonsless month," meaning a February without a full moon, occurs about five times in a hundred years, according to Collier's Weekly. It happened in 1866, 1885, 1915, 1934 and will take place again in 1961.
