Cubs Take Easy Game From Springfield

(By Johnson and Bachelder)
The Cottage Grove junior high school cubs added another victory to their winning streak, defeating Springfield in a hard fought game 27 to 20. Getting off to a flying start the cubs easily led throughout the half and at half time had amassed a 19 to 1 lead. The second half was more interesting with Springfield fighting hard to overcome the cubs. High scorer for the cubs was Donald Davenport with 11 points and Fritts of Springfield led the visitors with 7 points. The preliminary game was won by the Springfield second string, 16 to 9.
