

SOCIETY

Miss Rodney Hood, Reporter Telephone 159

CONSTELLATION CLUB

The Constellation club met last Thursday afternoon in the Masonic club rooms. The time was spent socially and in planning and arranging for the evening card party. Refreshments were served by Mrs. George Gates, Mrs. Nelson Durham and Mrs. Sallie Hill. At 7:30 the annual benefit card party was held in the Masonic hall. Mrs. Nettie Gawley, president of the club, was in charge. At contract, Mrs. Schofield Stewart held high score and Mrs. C. F. Hoskins low. Miss Elizabeth Crabbe held high score at auction and Mrs. S. L. Godard low. Ed Wiese, Jess Lansing Jr. and Miss Opal Wagoner won prizes at pinochle and at 500. Mrs. Lynch Currin held high score. Mrs. S. Gates won the prize at pedro. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

SOCIAL TWELVE

The 29th birthday anniversary of the Social Twelve club was celebrated at the home of Mrs. William Petersen last Thursday. A luncheon was served at 1:00 o'clock. The menu and decorations were in green and yellow in honor of St. Patrick's day. A birthday cake with 29 candles was a feature. During the business meeting a letter was read to the group from Mrs. Jessie Backensto, who recently moved to Roseburg, and election of officers was held. Mrs. C. F. Hoskins was elected president, Mrs. N. E. Compton, vice president and Mrs. H. B. Ferrin, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Nannie Smith and Mrs. Petersen were chosen to act as a courtesy committee. The remainder of the afternoon was spent socially. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Nannie Smith.

HONORS DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Salem Magnusson entertained at their home Monday evening in honor of their daughter Alma on her 16th birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in playing games with light refreshments served at the close. Those present were Louise Vance of Roseburg, Mary Ann Hansen, Esther Plumer, Ethel Smith, Betty Yates, Evelyn Pentico, Barbara Bush, Lorane, Caroline and Wanda Magnusson, Richard and Bruce Bush, Melvin and Laurence Keele, Donald, Robert and Gordon Magnusson, the guest of honor and the host and hostess. Many lovely gifts were presented the honoree.

ROYAL CLUB

The Royal club met last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Julia Bartels, with Mmes. Bertha McQueen and Harriet Bartels as assistant hostesses. Five tables of bridge were in play during the evening with high score going to Mrs. Mabel Funk and low to Mrs. Edna Burleson. The table decorations and refreshments were in keeping with St. Patrick's day. The club was invited to meet with Mrs. Edith Allen with Sallie Hill as assistant hostess in April.

GEORGIANNAS

The Methodist church parlors was the meeting place of the Georgiannas club Friday afternoon. Mrs. Henry Williamson was hostess. The celebration of the third anniversary of the club was planned and will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. C. L. Stroup. A covered dish dinner will be served and husbands of the members will be guests. The Rev. Ira Gillet of Portuguese East Africa was a guest speaker. His subject was "East Africa."

THURSDAY

The Past Noble Grands club will meet Thursday afternoon, March 28th.

Cooley Hill club will meet today, March 21st, at the home of Mrs. Ira Beidler at 1:30.

Utopia club will meet today, March 21, at the home of Mrs. Faye Allison for a 1:30 dessert.

Elite Bridge club will meet this afternoon, March 21st, at the home of Mrs. Walter Hunter.

MONDAY

The Joker club will meet for a 7:30 dessert at the home of Mrs. Carl King instead of with Mrs. T. C. Wheeler as before planned.

TUESDAY

The Friendly club meeting scheduled for March 19 has been postponed until March 26th at which time an all day meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Delbert Brown.

Royal Neighbors lodge will meet at 8:00 p. m. in Eagles hall. The anniversary of Supreme camp will be observed. Eugene and Springfield will be guests.

WEDNESDAY

Methodist Ladies Aid will meet in the church parlors for a covered dish dinner at 12:30. Hostesses are Mrs. Ira Beidler, Mrs. S. J. Leonard, Mrs. Herbert Breedlove and Mrs. Earl Cone. All ladies of the church are cordially invited.

Presbyterian Missionary society will be hostess for a Japanese tea in the church parlors at 2:30 p. m. Friends are cordially invited.

NEIGHBORS OF WOODCRAFT

The Neighbors of Woodcraft held their social meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Carl Leabo. A 7:30 dessert was served with Mrs. Bertha Lee assisting as hostess. A special business meeting was held and Mrs. Eunice Smith was obligated into the order. Plans were completed for the joint installation to be held with Creswell here on the first Tuesday in April. The remainder of the time was spent with cards. Mrs. Hazel Chapman held high score and Mrs. Delia Hatch held low.

REBEKAH LODGE

At the regular session of Rebekah lodge Friday evening Mrs. Beatrice McCoy, noble grand, announced a special meeting for Friday evening, March 22, at 7:30. This will be a joint meeting with the Creswell lodge for the official visit of Mrs. Alma Henderson, president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon. At this time three candidates will receive the initiatory degree. Visiting members are welcome. An invitation was accepted to meet with the Odd Fellows Saturday evening, March 23.

W.B.C. CLUB MEETS

The W.B.C. club met yesterday at the home of Elsie DeYoung for a 1:30 dessert. Bridge was the afternoon's entertainment with high prize going to Edna Burleson and Mae Tennis receiving the traveling prize. Anna Gates was a guest.

BAPTIST AID

Baptist Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Ida Terveen Wednesday for a short business meeting and an afternoon of sewing and visiting. Delicious refreshments were served at the tea hour.

CIRCLE MEETINGS

The Pauline Circle of the ladies council of the Christian church met at the parsonage Wednesday. The Workers Circle at the home of Mrs. Ray Vincent and the Sunshine Circle at the home of Mrs. Sam Eastburn. The belated February birthday party was held for the following ladies: Mrs. Walter Lackey, Mrs. Irene Ferguson, Mrs. Allen Sr. and Mrs. Lancaster. Mrs. Eastburn, president, presented the honor guests with gifts. All groups are planning to entertain the C. E. Endeavor to be held at the church March 30 and 31.

CARNATION CLUB

Miss Jean Rose and Miss Vivian Johnston were hostesses to the Carnation club at the home of Mrs. Velma Harrell, Friday evening. St. Patrick's day colors were used in the decorations and the serving, which was a 7:30 dessert. Mrs. Bonita Skilling and Miss Zilda Hayes were guests. At bridge Mrs. Fred Knickerbocker held high score. Mrs. Ray Nelson second and Mrs. Ruth Thompson was low.

JOKER CLUB

Mrs. William Thum was hostess at her home Monday to the Joker club. Huge baskets of daffodils placed about the rooms made a beautiful setting for the evening's entertainment. Mrs. Sylvia Griggs was a guest of the club for the evening. A 7:30 dessert was served followed by three tables of bridge. Mrs. Faye Allison held high score and Mrs. George Jacobson low. The next meeting will be held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Carl King.

JUSTAMERE CLUB

Justamere club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Griggs Tuesday afternoon. A 1:30 dessert was served. Spring flowers were used in decorating. Mrs. T. J. Denson, Mrs. Jack Boyd and Mrs. Palmer Johnson were guests and at bridge Mrs. Boyd held high score. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Walter Hunter for a business and social afternoon instead of the usual bridge.

O.L.H. CLUB

Mrs. T. C. Wheeler entertained the O.L.H. club at her home Tuesday with a 1:30 dessert and bridge. The dining table was beautifully decorated with daffodils and yellow candles and daffodils were in profusion about the house. Mrs. W. B. Johnston held high score at bridge and Mrs. Glennie Frost low. The club will hold their next regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Guy Earl.

LADIES GOLF BEGINS

Cottage Grove golf ladies will hold their first meeting of the season Wednesday, March 27, at 1:00 p. m. with a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Earl Hill. Election of officers and golf play will follow.

BRIDGE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Sherman entertained at their home Saturday evening with three tables of auction. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Miller and Miss Lela Murphy of Eugene. Mrs. J. B. Leonard held high score and Chet Stroup won the prize for honors.

TUESDAY STUDY CLUB

The Tuesday Study club held their regular meeting in the library. Mrs. C. M. Shinn gave a book review by Ida M. Tarball entitled "All In A Day's Work." Mrs. S. L. Mackin reviewed a novel, "The Days Are Fleeting" by Percy Marks. During the business session a calendar committee was appointed consisting of Mrs. Harry Reed, Mrs. F. L. Grannis and Mrs. Ralph Ward.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Tuesday Bridge club met with Mrs. C. S. Roberts Tuesday for a 1:00 o'clock luncheon. Guests included Mrs. Raymond Grube of Pendra and Mrs. Frances Sullivan. Mrs. Roberts held high score at bridge. Mrs. Harry Metcalf will entertain the club at their next meeting.

MEN'S BROTHERHOOD

The Methodist Men's Brotherhood held their monthly meeting at the church Monday evening. An evangelistic committee was formed and plans made to help underwrite the week day Bible school, which is being held in the public schools. John Markham, president of the brotherhood, was in charge and inspirational talks were given by several of the laymen.

LA MERCREDI PONT

Mrs. Lena Sams was hostess at her home last night to the La Mercredi Pont club. A 7:30 dessert was served. Mrs. Don Greening and Mrs. Rex Wheeler were guests. The evening was spent with bridge. Mrs. Harold Whitlock will entertain the club at her home in two weeks.

U. S. Hotel Employees
Hotels in the United States employ about 550,000 persons.

Legion and Auxiliary Celebrate the 21st Birthday on Monday

The American Legion Auxiliary joined with the Legion in celebration of the Legion's 21st birthday, held at the armory on Monday evening. A potluck dinner was served at 6:30 p. m. with about 100 guests present. The tables were beautifully decorated with gold and white flowers, with a centerpiece consisting of a huge, gold and white decorated birthday cake, topped with 21 gold candles. Members in charge of the dinner were Mrs. Warren Daugherty, Mrs. S. C. Hunter and Mrs. Alvis Wicks.

The following program was arranged by Mrs. Alvis Wicks:

Greeting by Auxiliary president, Hazel Fuhrer; response and introduction of past commanders, Joe Smith; greetings by Post commander, Chet VanDenburg; response and introduction of past presidents, Neita Grannis; song, "Happy Birthday, Legionnaires," the Auxiliary; introduction of guests; introduction of Dahlia Morris, 20-year Auxiliary member; group singing, led by George Matthews; playette, "The Rummage Sale," with Marie Wicks, Maud Hunter and Mary Clerin.

The Auxiliary Navy Plate was won by Mrs. Gertrude Blakely of Corvallis.

Following the program, the Auxiliary met for a business meeting, with Mrs. Max Bird, as the earliest past president present, taking the chair.

A treasury report was given by Mrs. Warren Daugherty. Mrs. John Dunlevy reported on N.Y.A. classes for girls and the Widow's and Orphans bill now pending in the House.

Mrs. George Matthews reported that the 450 Easter favors and a bouquet had been sent to the Roseburg hospital. An American report by Mrs. Bayard Reed explained the Girl's State Camp to be held at Silver Creek Camp in June. Mrs. F. L. Grannis, chairman of the Girl Scout board, reported on proposed April activities of the Scouts.

Visitors present were: Mrs. Eva Bailey, Mrs. Gertrude Blakely, Mrs. Fred Bennett of Corvallis; Mrs. Arthur Olson and Mrs. De Berry of Creswell; Mrs. Warren Edwards and Mrs. Sandahl of Cottage Grove.

Past presidents of the local unit honored were: Mesdames Max Bird, F. L. Grannis, Fred Bennett, George Matthews, Vinal Randall, Bayard Reed, Phillip Bukowski, Leon Morton and Joe Smith, and Miss Eunice VanDenburg.

Legionnaires Hear Reports

In a business meeting following the supper members of the local Legion heard a number of reports. A representative of the Drain Legion made a report on plans for holding a joint meeting between the Cottage Grove and the Drain posts at Drain on April 2. Claude Sherman made a report on the wildlife meeting held in Eugene last Thursday evening. John Dunlevy reported on plans to attend the service officer's school in Portland next month and Robert Fromm made a report on plans for flag raising in connection with the program dedicating the new union high school building next month.

Highlighting the reports were alibis heard from Warren Edwards of Culp Creek and Art Olson of Creswell on not being able to attend post meetings regularly. Visitors attending Monday evening's meeting included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bennett, former residents, and Mrs. Ed Blakely, all of Corvallis, and Mr. and Mrs. Art Olson and family of Creswell.

World's 'Highest' Highway?

A new highway reaching almost to the top of Mount Evans, near Denver, challenges the claim that the Pike's peak highway, reaching 14,110 feet high, is the world's highest.

Average College Cost

Average cost of attending college for one year in the United States is $540 but costs vary greatly from college to college.

Easter Greetings
To All Our Friends and Customers
Curllette Beauty Shop
Gladys M. Heck, Prop.

PALMER BROTHERS ENLIST

Two more Cottage Grove young men launched themselves on a military career, according to information received from Lieutenant Colonel H. D. Bagnall, Portland recruiting officer. They are two brothers, John C. and Linzy D. Palmer, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Palmer of Disston route. They will serve together in the 76th field artillery, Presidio of Monterey, California.

Both attended Cottage Grove high school and both were members of the local coast artillery unit of the Oregon National Guard prior to their signing with the "regulars." They were accepted for enlistment by Staff Sergeant John T. Costello, Eugene recruiter.

BIBLE CLASS MEETS

The Women's Bible class of the Methodist church met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Emma Webster and F. C. Houser as hostesses. A potluck dinner was served during the luncheon hour. Mrs. J. R. Hendricks led the devotionals. The working time was spent quilting.

Mrs. Celia Handy was the guest of honor and was presented with a lovely birthday gift. There were fourteen members present. Guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton, Misses Rila and Nina Rogers of Creswell, Mrs. Ralph Sears of Delight Valley and Mmes. Fannie Miller and Jackson.

Tops for Your Easter Meal or Entertainment

According to custom the hostess reserves the best to be served last on the meal. . . . That's why our ice cream is so popular as a dessert.

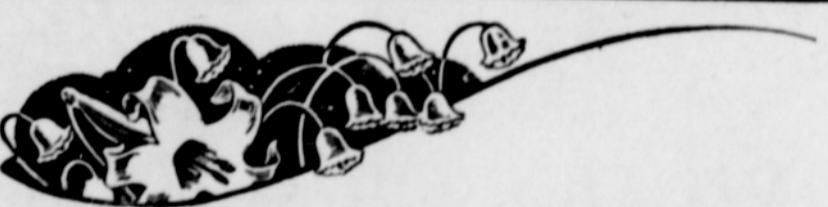

Serve Our Special Easter Bunny Ice Cream This Easter.

Gustafson's
SUPER-CREAMED ICE CREAM STORE
6th & MAIN ST. PHONE 31

THE DOLEMAN DIXIE BAKERY Announces A BIG CONTEST With A CASH PRIZES EACH WEEK

Children are constantly uttering 'Sayings' that for cleverness and humor astound the best adult wits. DOLEMAN'S DIXIE BAKERY will give a cash prize of $2.50 each week for the best 'Bright Saying' of a child or adult about Doleman's Bread. This 'Saying' will be published each week in The Sentinel with the name of the winner.

CONTEST RULES and form will be wrapped with each loaf of DOLEMAN'S DIXIE BREAD, starting Friday. Get it with your bread at any Doleman Dealer Today!

The Easter Parade

will soon be on and many of our new spring clothes will be seen in the front line. Select your Easter needs here and save time and money. . . . Many new things arriving this week to select from.

BEAUTIFUL SPRING HATS
that complete and add charm and dignity to any outfit.
$1.95 to $3.95
New Soft Shades in ROLLINS HOSIERY
that blend with all the new costume colors.
79c to $1.15
COATS $7.95, $9.95 and $15.95
DRESSES $2.95 to $7.95

Arnest's Dress Shop

It's An Old, Old Custom—
Sending Flowers for Easter
For Your Home, Church, Friend
EASTER LILIES
POTTED PLANTS
CUT FLOWERS
And Remember The EASTER CORSAGE
Sunnyside Greenhouses
PHONE 182