HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

(MILDRED HARRIS, Editor)

Courtesy Campaign
A committee composed of students representing the various classes and activities of the school is starting a campaign similar to the courtesy campaign of last year, but for the purpose of making students conscious of ideals of honor in their relations with one another.

So if you see posters here and there, and students filling out those mysterious questionnaires, you'll know that the newly organized "honor" committee is accomplishing things.

Members of this group with a worthwhile purpose, are George Stout, F.F.A.; Martha Arnold, senior; Harry Sturges, junior; Harold Bauder, sophomore; Carolyn Keibelbeck, freshman; Jim Blickle, honor society; George Dugan, Hi-Y; Bill Earl, letterman; Janet Peterson, Home Ec; Mary McKibben, Service club; Gladys Lemley, girls' league; and Paul Davenport, boys' federation.

At a recent meeting of the committee, Harry Sturges and Gladys Lemley were appointed co-chairmen.

The campaign for self-reliance is on!

Graduate Speakers Chosen
The faculty committee chosen to select student speakers, announced Tuesday that George Stout, Bill Spies, Miriam Ferrin and Eathel Ann Newton had won the honor of speaking at the commencement exercises. These students were selected from a group of five boys and five girls previously elected by the senior class.

Moving Pictures Shown
Moving pictures of past May festivals, pet parades, track meets and other events of interest to the students were shown by Cleo Morelock in the assembly Friday. Pictures showing the first work done on the new school building were shown. Vinal Randall, Cottage Grove's nominee for the Wiltshire award, was presented with a miniature engraving by the Wiltshire Engraving company in Eugene. Vinal was chosen as one of the four outstanding football players in the Lane-Douglas league. The students who recently won prizes in the essay contest on "Tourist Attractions of Cottage Grove" were presented their checks from the Chamber of Commerce by Miss Kem. Freda Stalder received $7.50 as first prize; Betty Adkins $5.00, second; Rita Bridwell $2.00 third. Checks of one dollar each were presented to 10 honorable mentions as follows: Ada Hopman, Charles Peck, Gladys Lemley, Eloise Jones, Montana Crossett, Audrey Turner, Margaret Monson, Bill Spies, Gerry Kem and Nancy Anlauf.

Rehearsals for Senior Play
Rehearsals for the senior play "Smilin' Through" began this week with Miss Dodson as director. The play will be presented the night of the May Festival for which a definite date has not yet been set. "Smilin' Through," written by Allan Langdon Martin, is a comedy-drama in three acts.

The cast, which was announced Tuesday, is as follows: Moonyeen Clare, Doris Smith; Kathleen Dugannon, Gladys Lemley; Ellen, Geraldine Kem; Mary Clare, Bessie Sheldon; John Carteret, Bryce Barrett; Dr. Harding, Jim Blickle; Kenneth and Jeremiah Wayne, Bill Earl; Willie Ainly, Charles Peck; first man, Paul Davenport; second man, Bill Spies; Third Man, Maurice Boykin; first woman, Lillian Geer; second woman, Montana Crossett; third woman, Pauletta Powell; and fourth woman, Elizabeth McGregor.

The production staff consists of Betty Adkins, prompter; Margaret Monson, wardrobe manager; Vinal Randall, stage scenery manager and property man.

Basket Social
A basket social is to be sponsored by the juniors of the high school in the gym, Friday, March 29. The date was originally scheduled for March 15. The student body is invited to attend the social. The girls are to bring the baskets and the boys are to buy them. A program is being planned and games will be played. The party will serve as a farewell to the old gym.

Questions on Sports
With much pomp and ceremony, Professor Duganinsky (George Dugan) and Professor Mosbyinsky (Gerry Mosby) marched solemnly into room 3 Wednesday while pep club was in session to pop questions on sports to the three girls and three boys who were holders of the lucky numbers.

The three feminine members of the contest were Mary Barr, Doris Bjorset and Marjorie Earl with Doris coming out as high scorer. The three boys who tried to demonstrate their skill were Roy Barr, Bill Workman and Victor Schricker. Victor emerged as high point man. Victor and Doris were then contested against each other with Doris victorious. Each contestant received a prize.

School Briefs
Miss Deal displayed white sport sweaters to the gym class Wednesday, March 13. These sweaters are not limited to any class or club. Any girl in school may buy one. They are white with blue emblems. The cost is $1.50 with the emblems and $1.25 without the emblems.

Two new students, Richard Laird, a sophomore of California, and Nadine Morgan, a freshman of Canada, registered Monday.

Velma Wilson, junior, has gone on a pleasure trip, to recuperate from the flu. She expects to visit Arizona, Nevada, Utah and California. She will probably return just before spring vacation.

Jean Teel Stewart was absent from school all last week, because of illness and has not yet returned.

This Friday's assembly will be based entirely upon the new school building which will be opened after spring vacation. The next Friday's assembly will be in the nature of a farewell to the old school building.

For the second consecutive day in interclass softball play, the winning team come from behind to win by one run as the frost defeated the juniors 4-3, March 15.

The annual interclass track meet will be held March 29 this year. Only those having at least 12 practices will be eligible to compete. Track lettermen cannot compete in the events they have won letters in but may do so in other events. The first meet of the season will be the Hayward Relays in Eugene, April 12.

By the width of a power line the seniors defeated the sophomores 3-2 in the first interclass softball league tilt, Thursday, March 14. With the sophomores leading 2-1, Christian, senior center fielder, struck a towering fly that hit a powerline in left field. The ball dropped safely for a hit, scoring Peck with the run that tied the score. McAllister later scored the winning run.

You Get All the Gravy
No longer need picnickers sacrifice half the gravy or the mayonnaise dressing to a paper plate that is more like a blotter. A new paper plate recently developed has an "eating surface" of aluminum foil, water-and-grease-proof and impervious to heat and cold.

Decline of Jobs
Municipal jobs declined from 718,000 in 1929 to 697,000 in 1937.

Second Half of Spring Bowling Tourney On

The second half of the spring bowling tourney is underway at Bob's alleys. Many changes have taken place in the past few weeks to the extent that practically every team has had the pleasure of climbing to one of the three prize winning positions and then the disappointment of dropping to the bottom of the list. These changes in positions are caused by all teams bowling consistently and total scores have been within 200 pins difference most of the time.

The standing of the teams at the end of the first half of the present tourney:

Quality Market	18,975
Thaxton Motors	18,710
Standard Oil	18,699
Texaco	18,668
Post Office	18,639
Safeway	18,592
Irish-Swartz	18,524
Gustafson's	18,143

Fantastic Indian Masks
Fantastic Indian masks, many of them made with real hair and teeth, can still be bought in many sections of Mexico. The state of Guerrero produces some of the finest masks, while Michoacan makes many for its religious dances. Animal masks, such as heads of tigers, frogs, serpents and lions, are very popular in Guerrero.

Huge Kodiak Bears
Found roaming on Kodiak island, a bear, whose hide squares 11 feet 4 inches, whose skull measures 12 inches in width, 11 inches in length, was the trophy of D. S. Hopkins, of Spokane, whose wife bagged a mere nine-foot specimen.
