CITY BRIEFS

Word has been received here of the marriage of Earl Baldwin of the 11th Cavalry at Monterey, California, to Miss Beulah Shelton of Salinas, California, on May 9th. The wedding took place at Yuma, Arizona. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baldwin of Cottage Grove and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Baldwin of Winlock. He reenlisted in the army May 5th.

Mrs. Sylvia Widenor was employed recently by the Cottage Grove Hotel Coffee Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. George Renshaw and daughter Frances of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Monroe of Eugene visited at the James Monroe home Saturday evening.

Elliot Braithwaite of Salem visited friends in Cottage Grove Sunday. Mr. Braithwaite was formerly employed by Kem's for Drugs and is now with the Capitol Drug store in Salem.

Colen Garoutte left last week for Olympia, Washington, where he is attending an anti-aircraft training camp for the National Guards. He was accompanied as far as Portland by Mrs. Garoutte, who stopped there for a few days visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wells spent the week end visiting friends at Marshfield.

Mrs. Jack Renner and small son Stephen left Tuesday for an extended visit in Portland and in Yakima, Washington.

A group of Theta Rho girls went to Eugene one night last week to attend the regular meeting of the Theta Rho Girls there. Those who went were Doris Smith, Frances Hefflin, Jean Yearous, Alice Trunnell, Grace St. Elmo, Bethel Harris, Mary McKibben and Audrey Turner. They were accompanied by Mrs. McCoy, Mrs. Gunderson and Robert St. Elmo.

Mrs. Martha Bittinger was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lancaster on Mother's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Arnest took their daughters Betty and Doris back to Corvallis Sunday by way of the coast route. The girls had spent the week end here with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hunter and family were Mother's Day dinner guests of Chet VanDenburg and mother and sister.

Mrs. Edward J. Leum and daughter Margaret and Mrs. Harry Wynne visited in Monmouth Tuesday. Margaret will graduate from the Oregon College of Education there on June 4th.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

(FAYE LEBOW, Editor.)

The honor staff for the journalism class of the second semester is listed below. These students are those who are judged by Miss Kem to be the most dependable reporters, to have the best nose for news, and to have made the most outstanding progress in write-up this semester.

Sylvia Michael, who besides all her stories has been Newslette editor for two six weeks; Marcia Brund also editor of Sentinel news one six weeks; Mildred Harris, also editor of Sentinel news one six weeks; Faye Lebow, also editor of Sentinel news one six weeks; Vivian McNew, also business manager Newslette all semester; Ray Randall, Arline Anderson, Beryl Davidson, Patricia Baldwin, Maxine Currin, Elizabeth McGregor, Gerald Mosby, head of sports department.

The minimum number of write-ups required for the semester is 32. Most of these students have handed in over 50. Arline handed in 60, Gerald 67, and Sylvia 70.

Below are the names of students who have served most faithfully this semester on the mimeograph staff outside of class time: Mary McKibben has devoted many periods to this work although she is not taking journalism this semester. She was business manager all last semester; Mary McKibben, Leola Lyon, Elizabeth McGregor, Faye Lebow, Mildred Harris, Marie Hansen, Vivian McNew, Maxine Clary, Beryl Davidson, Marcia Brund, Elsie Saterfield, Dale Snider, and Sylvia Michael. Elizabeth McGregor has assisted Ethel Ann all year as artist. Shirley Hendricks has helped the last 6 weeks as artist.

Girls League Elects

Marcia Brund was installed new president of the girls' league at an assembly held Friday, May 10. The installation was the regular formal ceremony. The girls were all dressed in formals and the stage was decorated with blue and white flowers. Janet Peterson was installed as vice president; Joyce Baldwin, secretary; Cleora Korstjens, treasurer.

Gladys Lemley, retiring president, gave the opening welcome and presided during the ceremony. Peggy Sharpe gave the history of the league. A poem was given by Lois Hansen and Ruth Davenport explained the colors of the girls' league which are blue and white. The creed was given by Martha Arnold. Velma Bennett as the spirit of the girls' league, read a poem and gave the light of inspiration to the new president.

Miss Hayes and Miss Tideman were introduced and each spoke briefly. Miss Hayes accepted a new gavel, a gift from the retiring president, Gladys Lemley, in behalf of the girls' league.

Girls' league pins were awarded as follows: Freshmen, Dorris Bjorset, Joyce Baldwin, Mary Decker, Shirley Woodard, Marian Turner, Leona Hamill, Virginia Brown, Wilma Moore.

Sophomores: Arelita Roberts, Janet Peterson, Juanita Peters, Faye Nixon, Marjorie Earl, Jean Yearous, Helen Wells, Grace Thayer, Alice Trunnell.

Juniors: Bronze pins, Maxine Ewing, Lois Hansen, Sylvia Michael, Silver pins, Mildred Harris, Velma Wilson and Marcia Brund.

Seniors: Gold pins, Betty Adkins, Martha Arnold, Lillian Geer, Mary McKibben, Maxine Stewart, Silver pins, Maxine Ingram.

Federation Officers

Bennett Newton was installed president of the boys' federation by Charles Christianson. Other new officers who were absent are: Vice president, Tommy Jones; secretary, Allan Reed; treasurer, Harold Bauder; sergeant-at-arms, Darrell McKibben, Lee Krause.

The total amount taken in on the queen contest was $113.65. The profit from the sale of ice cream and pop was $6.90. Twenty-two gallons of ice cream were used.

Part of the money earned is to be spent in helping to buy costumes and in general expenses for flowers and loud speaker. A definite general fund is set aside each year for the next annual May Day so that money will be available when the time comes to start working on it the next year. The girls league which sponsors the event will use part of the proceeds to finance their affairs during the coming year.

Lions Take Third

The Cottage Grove Lion track squad, true to Coach French's predictions, garnered a third place in the district meet at Eugene Friday, May 10.

The Lions with 28 points trailed Eugene and Springfield who were tied for first place.

Bob Blackmore in the high hurdles and Bill Earl in the 880 qualified for the state meet to be held Friday and Saturday.

Those placing in the district meet were as follows: High hurdles, Blackmore second, Spies fourth; mile, Jones third, Krause fourth; 220 low hurdles, Blackmore third; 440, Davenport third; pole vault, Earnshaw and Garoutte tied for third; 880, Earl second; javelin, McKibben fourth.

Lions Lose

The St. Mary's Gaels edged out a 11-9 victory over the Cottage Grove Lions in a wild and wooly baseball game at Kelly field May 8. The Lions, most of whom had never played before, gave a good account of themselves and with more experience won't have to bow to any team.

School Briefs

The senior class will put out the last issue of the Newslette this year as customary. It will be a 24-page paper selling for five cents and will be put on sale Class Day.

The junior high school orchestra directed by Mr. Christianson played in the annual grade school music festival held at Junction City high school the evening of May 9. Marcia Brund accompanied the group in the absence of Donna Chestnut.

Today is the date set for the eighth grade visiting day. They will register for next year then be conducted on tours to all classes. A luncheon will be prepared by the Homemaking class and served them by the foods II class.

The C.G.U.H.S. band played at the boy scout circus in Eugene May 4. One of the Eugene high school bands joined the Cottage Grove band with its remaining three numbers toward the middle of the program.

A skating party totaling 113 motored to Midway rink May 10. The sponsors, the junior class, cleared a profit of $11.30 which will be spent for the junior-senior banquet and prom.

Mrs. Phyllis White, from above McCreddie Springs, visited school Thursday, May 9.

Eileen McDonald, junior, has been absent for several days because of an appendicitis attack. She is expected to return next week.

Shirley Jepson returned to school this week after being confined to her home with mumps.

The high school band played five numbers under the direction of Pat Baldwin at the general political meeting held in the armory, Thursday evening, May 9. Mr. Christianson, regular director, was unable to attend.

Grape Industry Legislation
Legislation affecting the grape and its products began early in the history of the United States. The Virginia colonists, seeking to produce good wines in America, passed laws establishing penalties for failure to cultivate the grape. The records do not tell us, however, whether enforcement was attended by as many difficulties as the late prohibition era.
