AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

At a recent meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary reports were given on the breakfast served to the battery and the lunches put up for them on their departure for Camp Clatsop. A report was also given on the skating party given the girl scouts selling 25 poppies during the annual sale held recently. Miss Betty Adkins, who has been chosen by the Auxiliary to represent them at Girls' State to be held at Silver Creek falls, was a guest. The Auxiliary voted to send letters to the senators requesting the deportation of Harry Bridges. Mrs. Max Bird was appointed to serve on the central committee for the local Red Cross drive. Chet Vandenberg represents the American Legion, Loren Schroeder, the Lions club and a member will be appointed from the chamber of commerce. Plans were made to join the Legion in the picnic at the city park August 19. This was the last regular meeting of the auxiliary until September.

AMERICAN LEGION

Officer elected at the meeting of the American Legion this week were as follows: commander, Sam Hunter; first vice commander, Arthur Olson of Creswell; second vice commander, R. B. Reed; adjutant, Claude Sherman; finance officer, Alvis Wicks, re-elected; P. J. Bush, member of the executive committee for five years. Joe T. Smith, Arthur Olson, and John Dunlevy were elected as delegates to attend the state convention to be held at Seaside in September. Alternates are Alvis Wicks, Charles Fuhrer and George Matthews. A picnic is planned for August 19 to be held in the city park. A vote carried to send Charles Fuhrer and John Dunlevy to Portland to attend a meeting of Americans Incorporated, to be held at the Multnomah hotel Saturday and Sunday, June 29 and 30.

LADIES' BIBLE CLASS

The Ladies Bible class of the Methodist church held an all day meeting in the church parlors yesterday. Misses Rilla and Nina Rogers of Creswell were hostesses. A potluck dinner was served at the noon hour. The devotionals and business were in charge of the president, Mrs. Jennie Allen. A handkerchief shower was given for Mrs. Belle Taylor, who is moving into the country. Fourteen members were present and annual election of officers was held. Mrs. Julia Hendricks was elected class teacher, Mrs. Nellie Monroe, assistant teacher; Mrs. Ida Swann, president; Mrs. Jennie Allen, vice-president; Mrs. Elsie Wells, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. May Hogue, assistant secretary-treasurer.

GIRL SCOUT PICNIC

Each patrol of the girl scouts held a picnic last Thursday with their destination kept a secret from the other. The Mountain Laurel patrol went to the steel bridge for a swimming party with Mrs. Sam Hunter and Mrs. Peter Peterson furnishing the transportation. Miss Mary Clerin and Mrs. Alvis Wicks took the Cardinal patrol on an all day picnic to Blue Mountain. They spent the day swimming, playing baseball, hiking and with a treasure hunt. Mrs. Lester Coiner took the Forget-Me-Not patrol on a swimming party at Currin bridge. The whole group will meet at the Max Bird home today at 2:00 o'clock.

ROYAL CLUB

The Royal club met for a picnic at the Harry Tennis home Thursday evening. The evening was spent with cards. High score was held by Mrs. Harley Gates and low by Mrs. Edna Burleson. The club will not meet again until September.

FRIDAY

The special meeting of the Rebekahs with initiation and visitors from Roseburg has been postponed to a later date but the regular meeting will be held.

THURSDAY

The Past Noble Grands will meet in the hall on June 27, Hazel Culver, Nellie Johnson, Mrs. Addie Halgarth and Mrs. C. A. King are the committee.

TUESDAY

The two ball foursome of the golf club has been changed from Thursday to Tuesday. The foursome will be held next week with a potluck dinner at 6:30.

HONORED AT SHOWER

Miss Ruby Allen, bride-elect of Bob Cherry, was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given Friday evening in the Baptist church by a group of her friends. The evening was begun with a guessing game concerning brides and Misses Caroline and Alma Magnusson sang two vocal numbers preceding the opening of the many lovely gifts by the honoree. A beautiful bride's cake was a feature of the occasion and refreshments of cake and coffee were served at the close. About thirty-five were present and gifts were sent by many who could not attend.

TO CELEBRATE SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY

The 60th anniversary celebration of the Cottage Grove Chapter No. 4 O. E. S., will be held the evening of June 28th at Masonic temple. Rex Davis of Salem, past grand patron of Oregon, will be the main speaker. Other grand officers and representatives from fifteen chapters throughout the state of Oregon are invited to attend. Music and a program will follow the closing of the chapter. The birthday cake will be cut by the past matrons of Cottage Grove lodge. Darwin Bristow of Eugene, past patron of this chapter, is also expected to be here for the celebration.

FAMILY GATHERING

A family gathering was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amil Thies. Those present were Mrs. Jensen and daughter Violet, house guests from Los Angeles, California, Ralph Thies and family of North Plains, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Trunnell, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Thies and two children, Floyd, Raymond, Richard, Rosemary and Elva Thies and Miss Louise Lukens, Miss May Aubrey, Jerry McKen and the host and hostess.

MIZPAH CLASS

Mrs. L. W. Coiner entertained the Mizpah class of the Presbyterian church at her home Tuesday afternoon honoring her mother Mrs. Hayes. Mrs. Hoskins, Mrs. Hugh Nixon, Mrs. Nixon Sr., Mrs. Riggs and Sallie Hill were invited guests. The afternoon was spent socially. Refreshments were served at the tea hour by the hostess assisted by her daughter Marjorie.

GARDENIA CLUB

The Gardenia club met for a picnic luncheon at noon Friday in the city park. The afternoon was spent with tennis. Mrs. Kimball, who is visiting here from Oklahoma was a guest. Mrs. Kimball is the mother of Mrs. Jess Forrester. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Roy Mason in two weeks.

TEA FOR VISITOR

Mrs. Schofield Stewart and Mrs. K. K. Mills entertained with a tea on the back lawn of the Stewart home Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Rosa Turtle of Vancouver B. C., who is visiting her daughter, Miss Beatrice Turtle. About fifteen guests were present. Iced tea and fancy cakes were served from tables decorated with sweet peas. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with social conversation.

W. C. T. U.

Regular flower mission day was held Friday by the W. C. T. U. The meeting was held in the Methodist church with the Rev. E. F. McFarland in charge. About thirty bouquets with a scripture were sent to the sick and shut-ins. Brian Stroup and Abigail Trask assisted with delivering the flowers.

MEMBER HONORED

Miss Ruby Allen was honored with a miscellaneous bridal shower last evening by members of the Baptist choir. The shower was held in the church basement following choir practice. Bob Cherry, to whom she will be married, was a special guest. Several lovely and practical gifts were presented the guest of honor. Refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and punch were served at the close.
