

Honestly, He Was This Big!

With the opening of fishing seasons throughout the country, disciples of Isaac Walton are brushing up their acquaintance with lake and stream. Although the motor car and ever-expanding highways have made hardly a stream safe from the ardent fishing fan, the wary trout is still a match for all but the expert angler. Here Ralph Harris, who has driven his 1940 Chevrolet to the water's edge, is returning from a jaunt upstream to tell Evelyn Clark about the one that got away.

Local Postmaster Attends Convention

N. J. Nelson, local postmaster, attended the meeting of the Oregon chapter of the National Association of Postmasters held in Corvallis Friday. This was the largest convention ever held by the association and was attended by over 200 postmasters from over the state.

The association selected Bend as their next meeting place for next year and elected their state officers at this meeting.

Among prominent men speaking to the association were Harrison Parkman, Washington, D. C., who is purchasing agent for the post-office department and personal representative of James A. Farley, postmaster general; William Dixon, Washington, D. C., who is superintendent of postmasters, and Paul R. Younts, Charlotte, N. C., who is president of the national postmasters association.

Mrs. Nelson and her son Bob accompanied Mr. Nelson to Corvallis and visited at the home of their daughter and brother, Mrs. Darwin Woodcock.

Mountain States Co. Completes New Line

The Mountain States Power company has just completed three months work on their extended power line in the Lorane district. The work was started April 1st and the power was turned on June 11.

The new line is about 14 miles in length and will serve about 100 possible customers. Among the new customers are four sawmills in that vicinity.

The line follows the main Lorane road over the mountain to Lorane, and then south along the territorial road to the mills of the Addison brothers.

Butchers Defeat Knicks, 8 to 4

(By Bachelder and Harpole.)

Quality Market and Knickerbockers treated a gala crowd to seven innings of fast softball Monday evening with the Butchers coming out on the long end of an 8 to 4 score. Tilton, star pitcher for Quality Market, was not in town but the Butchers were out in front all the way, and sewed up the contest with a 6 run rally in the third inning.

Highlights of the game was the hitting of Butterworth and Skade for Quality and Cox, Lusk and Denson for Knicks.

In the opener Creswell received a scare from the Eagles team but managed to eke out a 6 to 4 win over the Lodgemen. Carter hit 4 for 4 to lead all hitters.

In Friday's games, "Punk" Heim held McCoy's to 3 hits to win for Dorena 12 to 3. A rejuvenated Grove Hardware team battered out a 14 to 9 win over the Culp Creek team in the nightcap.
