FRENCH-TIELE

A wedding of interest to Cottage Grove people was that of Mr. Robert French and Miss Mildred Tiele, both of Salem. Mr. French is a brother of Curtis and Frances French, teachers in the local schools. The wedding took place Sunday, July 28 at Leslie Memorial church in Salem with the Rev. Poindexter reading the service. The ceremony was performed at 3:00 p. m. in a beautiful setting of gladioli and lighted candles. Organ music was played throughout the ceremony and Miss Margaret French, sister of the groom, sang "Because."

The bride wore a beige suit with navy accessories and carried a bouquet of roses.

A reception followed in the church parlors, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to Los Angeles, California.

Attending from Cottage Grove were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis French, Miss Frances French and Miss Betty Jean Arnest.

LYON-OWEN

Miss Leola Lyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Lyon, became the bride of Cecil Owen of Atlanta, Georgia, Tuesday, July 30th. The ceremony was performed at noon by the Rev. Paul L. Kunzman of the English Lutheran church at his home in Vancouver, Washington. The young couple will make their home in Cottage Grove. Mr. Owen is stationed at the Brice Creek CCC camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rusco of Ravenwood, Missouri, uncle and aunt of the bride, drove to Vancouver for the wedding. Following the wedding the group went to the home of Leo Lyon, brother of the bride, for a wedding dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Rusco will visit here for about a month.

COUPLE CELEBRATE 50th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Sunday the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. V. Richards near Saginaw was the scene of the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cox of Marshfield, parents of Mrs. Richards, who were visiting at the Richards home. It was also an occasion for a family gathering of the Cox family. There were fifteen members of the family present to enjoy the occasion including five married children and three grand children. All members of the immediate family are living, there have been no deaths.

After the dinner was served, which was in keeping with the occasion, the remainder of the day was spent in visiting. Present in addition to the honored guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson of Coquille, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Snyder of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cox of Marshfield, Miss Grace Cox of Eugene and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Richards.

MATRONETTE CLUB

The Matronette club met last week at the home of Mrs. Mildred Arne. Mrs. Byron Thies was a guest. Members present were Gail Reiersgaard, Louise Waldock, Dorothy Cochran, Grace Schmelling, Marion Cone and Peggy Rohleder. The entertainment for the evening was furnished by Mrs. Rohleder. Refreshments were served at the close by the hostess.

NO EXPENSE CLUB

Mrs. George McQueen entertained the No Expense club of the Neighbors of Woodcraft at her home Thursday for their final meeting until fall. Mrs. Anna Schoen, a former member who has recently recovered from a serious illness was present and Mrs. Ila Kebelbeck, a member who recently moved to Leaburg, was also present.

GARDENIA CLUB

The Gardenia club met Friday with Mrs. Read Hemenway for an all day meeting. A pot luck dinner was served at noon and the afternoon was spent socially. The next club meeting will be held with Mrs. James Hemenway, August 9.

CHESTNUT-PITCHER

Miss Ada Fern Chestnut, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Chestnut, and Alpha Pitcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pitcher, were joined in wedlock Sunday, July 28th, at 4:00 p. m. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. E. Coles in the United Presbyterian church at Albany. The bride wore a black and white ensemble with a corsage of Rubrum lillies. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Maye of Albany, sister and brother-in-law of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Burt Nielsen of Tacoma, Washington, were also present.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of the Cottage Grove high school.

TWO BALL FOURSOME

Ted Denson and Belle Burkholder won the prize Tuesday evening in the two ball foursome at the Cottage Grove golf course with a low net score of 24½. Only seven holes were played due to a late start and fast approaching darkness. A picnic lunch followed the play. Wednesday morning in the ladies play, Mrs. Doris Morelock won the prize on the shortest approach shot of 13½ inches from the pin. Mrs. Faye Sunderland being runner-up with 16 inch approach. Thursday the ladies of the Cottage Grove Golf club are invited to play with the Roseburg ladies on their course. Next Wednesday, August 7th, Cottage Grove ladies are invited for a return match with the Oakway ladies on their course.

SOCIAL MEETING

The regular social meeting of the Eagles lodge was held Friday evening in Eagles hall. A business meeting was held and plans were completed for the annual picnic which will be held for the Eagles and Auxiliary at Rujada on Sunday, August 11. Following business the evening was spent with dancing and refreshments were served at a late hour.

STAFF CLUB

The Staff club of the Rebekah lodge held its regular social meeting Friday evening in I.O.O.F. hall. During the social hour, Mrs. E. J. Kent told of her recent trip to Missouri with her husband. It was announced that the next regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge will be tomorrow evening, August 2nd.

DINNER FOR IRISH-SWARTZ EMPLOYEES

Six employees of the Irish-Swartz store, with Harold Wolfard, manager, enjoyed a dinner served at the Cottage Grove Hotel Coffee Shop, Monday evening. Present were: Clair Hogate, Richard Bushell, Denzil Biggs, Justin Brown, Doc Meadows, Don Nixon and Harold Wolfard.

FAREWELL DINNER

Mrs. Stella Baker entertained at dinner Sunday honoring Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kearney who are leaving this week to make their home at Grants Pass. J. H. Bennett was also a guest.

TOWNSEND NEWS

About twenty-five members of the Cottage Grove club attended the picnic in Eugene Saturday. Robert Townsend addressed the gathering of about 2,000 in a very able and interesting way.

Monday night the club met in the social meeting with a varied program consisting of music, singing and readings. Several visitors from Oklahoma and Kansas who are visiting friends and relatives, were welcomed. The club sponsored a pound party for Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Veatch, who are both ill. A picnic to be at Florence Sunday, August 4, was announced. As Mrs. Sallie Hill, program chairman, was not able to be present, Elmer J. Kent, presided at the meeting.

TO OPEN BEAUTY SHOP IN HOTEL

Mrs. Ben Rohleder, formerly of Stayton, is preparing to open a beauty shop in the balcony of the Cottage Grove hotel. Modern equipment will be arranged and installed for the opening day, Saturday, August 3rd. The new establishment will be known as the Hotel Wave Shoppe. Mrs. Rohleder owned and operated a shop in Scandia, Kansas, before coming to Oregon and spent eighteen months at Stayton previous to coming here.

Specials are offered Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The new shop will be opened nights by appointment. See the announcement of Mrs. Rohleder in this issue.

HOME GROWN ROASTING EARS

Home grown roasting ears have been on the market for several days. Local grown sweet corn is slightly earlier this year than usual, but may not be as plentiful as last year, owing to the prevailing dry weather. Local beans, squash and other vegetables have also been on the market for several days.

Two varieties of berries, the boysenberry and the youngberry, plentiful here up to a few days ago, have disappeared, the crop having been harvested. Some strawberries are selling but the principal items left in the fruit crop are peaches, apples and pears.

FINDS BIG RATTLER

brought in a large rattle snake yesterday afternoon, caught about four and a half miles south of town. The snake had lost part of its rattlers and had only about six left. The reptile measured about three feet.
