Several good friendships were ruptured in the heat of the presidential election campaign just passed and these were not the first to be reported. The same thing has happened in years passed and will probably happen again in future years. The main thing is not to take such matters too seriously and to accept the results regardless of whether they are to your liking.

Thanksgiving Day Is Coming But Why Wait? Begin Now

Really there is no need to wait for the day appointed to be Thanksgiving Day. Let's count our blessings and begin at once. Nature and Industry have produced bountiful crops and war has not yet laid its devastating hand on our country. Our people are practicing sanity and are determined not to let crazy schemes and Propaganda warp their judgment. Yes, we do have ample cause for Thanksgiving, so let us begin at once. Safe and sound banks are something to be thankful for, too.
