

LION ROARS

As Echoed From Cottage Grove Union High School

(Jean Yearous, Editor.)

Six seniors, Lois Hansen, Marjessa Smith, Maxine Ewing, Mildred Harris, Dick Smith and Paul Anderson were formally initiated into the Omicron Chapter of the Honor Society, Thursday of last week in the high school library at 8 o'clock. Teachers, alumni, Honor Society members and parents were invited guests. Marcia Brund gave a piano solo. Bill Spies sang a solo. The new members were instructed to give an impromptu skit. The remainder of the evening was spent socially.

Basket Tourney Ends.

The high school interclass basketball tournament ended last week with the traditionally lowly freshmen sitting on top of the pile with a perfect score, having successfully trampled their three superiors.

The mighty seniors toppled only to the freshman. The juniors, last year's victors, slumped to one victory while the sophomores proved easy meat for everybody and finished with the perfect score of .000.

Receive Letters.

Arline Anderson, Margaret Monson and Ray Randall, in payment for their hard work as last year's yell leaders, received their long over due letters. They were presented with a seven-inch C by Curtis French at the freshman assembly last Friday.

As Ray Randall, last year's head yell leader, was unable to attend, his letter was given to Faye Nixon to send to him.

The emblems presented were a yellow C with a megaphone on the panel.

Initiation for 50 Girls.

The initiation of about 50 new G.A.A. girls was held last Friday, November 29, during the day. The girls were required to wear overalls, a different shoe on each foot, have pig-tails in their hair, carry some symbol of a sport, carry an egg and have the letter girl officers sign it. During the noon hour the new members played the letter girls in a game of volleyball and beat them. The girls had to parade up and down the halls also.

Freshman Assembly.

The freshmen assembly Friday was well received by the other three classes. The program was the freshmen album, class of 1940, presented by Patricia Duncan and Larna Brown. The welcome by Donald Davenport. Among the characters portrayed were: Shirley Culver, acrobatic dance; Tommy Linbaugh, a reading; the freshmen basketball boys were next; Joan King sang a solo, "My Little Gypsy Sweetheart," members of the band and majorette, Evelyn Pentico; Mildred Collier and Cleone Perry played two clarinet duets; Keith Wooley and Jim Wilden a trumpet duet, "The Bells of St. Mary's," accompanied on the piano by Pat Baldwin; a skit dramatized by Jimmy Boyce, Kenneth Hansen and Richard Lasater, "Call the Next Witness; Tressi Premazzi, two accordion solos.

Room 13: President, Fred Borin; vice president, Kathleen Chambers; secretary, Dottie Ann Clark. Room 2: president, Eddie White; vice president, Frances Michael; secretary, Joan King. FFA Banquet.

Several important amendments concerning points for letters and elections of executive committee members were made to the FFA constitution at the meeting Tuesday. A committee of three was appointed to take care of the forming of cooperatives. Plans for the Parent-Son banquet were discussed and several banquet committees appointed.

The annual FFA parent-son banquet will be held in the high school cafeteria Thursday evening December 12. The banquet has always been well attended because of the parents' interest in FFA work and the fact that the boys receive points toward their letters for coming and bringing their parents. An open house to allow the parents to inspect the agriculture department will be held prior to the banquet. Talks on subjects of interest will be given by several members.

Home Ec Club.

The Home Economics club reported at Tuesday's meeting that $8.40 was made on the pay assembly which they sponsored last Wednesday.

In the dues contest Virginia Allen's side won and is to be treated by Melba Pittsly's, the losing side.

The annual Christmas party for little children is to be held December 18. Committees were chosen to plan and carry on this party.

Briefs.

Members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce club worked quite late Sunday night helping to put up decorations on Main street.

The Latin club elected the following officers for the coming six weeks: President, Jerry Mosby; vice president, Joan King; secretary, treasurer, Virginia Brown. The new project committee was Virginia Brown.

It was victory for the third period gym class when they beat the second period gym classes in a volleyball game 23 to 22 last Monday noon in the gymnasium. The fifth period gym class beat the fourth period gym class 30 to 25 last Monday noon.

Carlton Woodard, a former student, now a second year student at Menlo high school in Menlo, California, is captain of the high school football team.
