MOORE-VAN HYNING.

In the presence of about fifty relatives and close friends, Miss Marian Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Omer Moore of Corvallis, became the bride of Laverne Van Hyning, son of Mr. H. Van Hyning of Tigard.

The ceremony took place Sunday afternoon, December 22, at the home of the bride's parents with the Rev. Ellsworth Tilton, pastor of the Methodist church of Cottage Grove, officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a dress of nutria with brown accessories. She carried a round bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums. Miss Kathleen Moore, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a dress of hunters green with a corsage of gardenias and rose buds. Leland Moore of Tigard accompanied Mr. Van Hyning.

A large window and white tapers formed the background for the ceremony. The Christmas motif was beautifully carried out in the decorations. Preceding the ceremony Miss Flora Secher, accompanied by Miss Glenna Walker, played two violin solos, "At Dawn" and "Because." Mr. Donald Paulsen, cousin of the bride, played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. A reception immediately followed the ceremony. The bride cut and served the three-tier wedding cake. Assisting with serving were Misses Maryjane Smith of Cottage Grove, Lucille Major of Corvallis and Sarajane and Pauline Moore, sisters of the bride.

Mrs. Van Hyning is a graduate of Cottage Grove high school and attended Oregon State college last year.

A Delightful Trip

(By Belle Burkholder)

The Ski-Laufers of Eugene held an enjoyable week-end party at Belknap Hot Springs Lodge, Saturday evening and Sunday, December 28 and 29. Dancing Saturday evening with a midnight lunch, followed by a late breakfast Sunday and a trip to Hand Lake to ski. About 30 attended, the following from Cottage Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Carlson and the writer.

There was no snow at Belknap but a heavy frost at night, with temperature about 34 degrees at 8:00 a. m. Sunday. The snow at Hand Lake was ideal for skiing with a warm sun, and skiers sliding down the slopes in their shirt sleeves. The snow was not very deep, but deep enough. There was none apparently at White Branch. Sunday many more cars came up the highway to park for the trip to the lake. Among these newcomers was Vinal Randall Jr. of Cottage Grove.

Upon returning to the hotel, about 2:30 p. m. several of the party went swimming in the hot springs pool, which was smoking in the cool winter air, felt good, and was ideal for soothing sore muscles and bruises, if any, the aftermath of skiing. A few icicles of about finger length were frozen on buildings at the lake and on trees. The scene of winter beauty was enhanced by a bright sun, necessitating the wearing of smoked glasses. But hoods and mittens were not really required.

Sunday I awoke at 6:30 a. m., was the first woman down to breakfast. I went out in the kitchen to get a drink of water and said to the negro cook, "I want a drink," and he said, "We don't serve liquor in the morning," with a broad grin.
