

LION ROARS

As Echoed From Cottage Grove Union High School

(JANET PETERSON, Editor)

Lions 4th Conference Game.
The Cottage Grove Lions will tangle with their fourth conference opponent when they meet Eugene High next Tuesday night at Cottage Grove.

The Axemen, sitting on top of the league fence with one win to no losses, easily downed their Junction City opponents in their only league contest by a score that was entirely one-sided.

The Lions on the other side, seem to be getting hotter and hotter with each game and promise to be steaming to the danger point when the date for their tilt rolls around.

To Junction City.

The Cottage Grove Lions, gunning for their second conference victory, will travel to Junction City next Friday night to see the Tigers about a little matter of a basketball game.

The Lions were upset in their league opener with Springfield but turned the tables in their second game by trimming the Uni. High Golden Tide.

The Tigers, on the other hand, have only one league game—and one league defeat, at the hands of the league leading Eugene High Axemen.

The Grovers will probably take the floor with a slight edge over the Tigers but as the Lions seem to play better as the underdogs, the game will probably provide many thrills.

Honor Staff to Publish Newsette.

The honor staff which will publish the Newsette until the new journalism class is ready to take over the publication duties was announced Friday by Miss Kem, journalism instructor. This staff was chosen on their dependability, best journalistic writings, the most stories accepted for the Newsette and the Sentinel, the most accurate and neat notebook. Those elected on the staff are: Lucille Abeene, Adele Bostick, Marjory Earl, June Eastburn, Al- den Garoutte, Maxine Hunter, Mary Jackson, Faye Nixon, Janet Peterson, Alan Reed, Brian Stroup, Clifford Van Prooyen and Jean Yearous.

Typists Visit Here.

Two of the outstanding typists from Behnk Walker Business college of Portland were the guests of Cottage Grove union high school typists Tuesday. Isaac Walker brought with him Miss Louise English, typing instructor of the business school, and Miss Florence Boyer, one of the outstanding typing students. Miss English typed 133 words per minute perfect and Miss Boyer typed 88 words per minute perfect. The wrong postures and keyboard regulation were demonstrated by Miss English, which brought many laughs from the students. She also typed 108 words per minute perfect, while carrying on a conversation with Miss Hayes, and 124 words per minute perfect while spelling common misspelled words.

Hi-Y Club.

The Hi-Y met at the home of Robert Daugherty Monday. The meeting was what we call a slam meeting. These meetings are for the purpose of helping the Hi-Y members individually. If you slam a fellow you also have to tell something good about him. Part of the meeting was spent playing ping pong and reading magazines.

Basket Social.

The basket social, although not very well attended, was a real success in every way for about twenty dollars was made toward the basketball warm-ups, which have been ordered.

It seems the floor was so slick that a few of the boys just about stood on their nose trying to get their girl friend's shoe in the middle of the dance floor. There was a lot of fun in dancing the Virginia Reel, as George Dugan knows. After the dance the blankets were auctioned off by Mr. French.

Dramatics Club Holds Tryouts.
The Dramatics club held tryouts for the three outstanding plays chosen by the club members Tuesday. The plays chosen were: "Antic Spring," "His First Dress Suit," and "The Perfect Gentleman." All of these plays are one-act plays. The casts for the plays has not been announced, but will be as soon as possible. The name chosen by the club is the "Footlights Club."

Briefs.

A one-page extra edition of the Newsette was put out and given to the students free last Friday. The purpose of the extra edition was to advertise and boost the basketball which was held last Friday night.

The band accompanied the team to Eugene January 18, when the team played University High. The band played at the quarters and at the hall.

Miss Kem was presented with a cyclamen Friday by her last semester journalism class to show their appreciation for all the work and help she has given the class.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce has taken over the ticket sales this week for the benefit basketball game between its Cottage Grove Independents and the Oregon Frosh, for the "Fight Infantile Paralysis Campaign."

The Latin club received its "Junior Classical League" pins in the Latin club meeting Monday. A spell-down in Latin was held. The work on projects were continued.

Bill Carmen and Lile Hughey withdrew from school this week. Hazel Wells, post graduate, and Dorothy Harris, senior, entered school this week.

The men who were so interested in our school building Thursday are from the University of Oregon. Dr. Poling, Mr. Bushong, and Dean Lighton, dean of physical education at the University, were among them.

Peggy Sharpe was a week-end visitor in Eugene and Corvallis.

Nancy Anlauf returned to school January 20 after several weeks illness.

Dorothy Gieran, a student at Northwestern Business school, and her brother Bob, who is working in Portland, were week-end visitors in Cottage Grove.

Elsie Saterfield, senior, moved to Grants Pass last week. The Cottage Grove F.F.A. basketball team defeated Junction City F.F.A. by a score of 43-23 at Junction City Wednesday night, January 14. Gordon Elfvig led the scoring with 22 points.

Miss Deal, Miss Mehlen and Mr. Gilchrist have been absent because of illness. Miss Mehlen returned Tuesday and Miss Deal is expected to return soon. It has been reported that Mr. Gilchrist is quite ill at the home of his uncle in Eugene. Mrs. Glass is substituting for Mr. Gilchrist and Mrs. Preece for Miss Deal.

SIX SELECTEES TO BE INDUCTED.
Six selectees drawn from the Lane county draft board No. 1 will leave today for the induction station at Portland, where they will take the final physical examination. Selectees drawn leaving are: Ben F. Floyd and Lloyd Robert Keene of Eugene, volunteers; William E. Fanshier, Dexter; Cecil M. Johnson, Theodore Bowling, Donald R. Buell, all of Eugene.

Indians and Turkeys
The Pueblo Indians kept turkeys long before the coming of the Pilgrims. Rooms in the pueblos were assigned to the turkeys, which were regarded as sacred and kept mainly for their feathers.

Stock Market

The livestock market at the Portland Union Stock Yards for the week ended January 18th, showed a new high top in hog prices since August 1938, with mid-week sales at $9.50 per cwt. There was a good demand for cattle and prices were from strong to 25c higher; and fat lamb prices were up 25 to 35c, with slaughter cows showing a full 50c advance. There were 3,100 cattle, 275 calves, 4,250 hogs and 2,400 sheep sold during the past week on this open market.

This week's market opened Monday with 2,300 cattle, 140 calves, 2,875 hogs and 1,750 sheep in the market trading.

The cattle market was active Monday on a strong to 25c higher basis. Fed steers reached a new high for the season of $11.50, with the best cows and heifers earning some price gain. Most of the medium to good fed steers sold from $10.00 to $11.00, with two loads at $11.15 and $11.50. Short fed steers ranged down to $9.00, with very common steers downward to $8.00, and cutty kinds down to 7.50 or under. Fed heifers brought $9.00 to 9.50, with common to medium beef heifers around $7.00 to 8.75, and cutty dairy heifers down to $5.75. Canner to common cows bulked at $4.50 to 6.25, shelly cows down to $3.75 or below. Fat dairy cows around $7.50, with good beef cows sold from $7.00 to 7.75, odd head sold from $7.00 to 7.90, with common grades downward to $6.00. Good to choice vealers were unchanged at $10.50 to $11.50, with select to $12.00.

Prices in the cattle alleys Tuesday were generally steady with Monday's trading, quality considered.

The hog market was very uneven Monday, opening at steady levels and closing with a 25 to 40c decline. Early sales of sorted truck lots weighing 170 to 215 lbs. were mainly $8.75, with a few up to $8.85 and 9.00, but late sales ranged down to $8.50, with late sales at $9.00 early, with late sales at $8.60 to 8.75. Heavy butchers sold at $8.00 to 8.25, with light lights around $7.75 to 8.25. Packing sows were mainly $6.00 to $6.50. A few selected lots of feeder pigs brought $8.75 to 9.00, with the bulk of the offerings at $8.00 to 8.50.

Tuesday's hog market was 20 to 25c lower than Monday's opening sales, with the bulk of the 170 to 215 lb. offerings $8.50 to $8.80.

Fat lambs sold Monday about 50 to 60c higher, with slaughter ewes sharing a part of the gain. Good to choice fed woolled lambs ranged from $9.50 to 9.85, with truck-ins mainly at $9.50 down. Shorn lambs ranged up to $8.75. A few medium to good slaughter ewes cashed at $4.00 to 5.50.

Tuesday's sheep receipts were very light, but prices were quotable nominally steady with Monday's sales.

The following quotations are based on prices being paid in Tuesday's trading:

CATTLE: Good grain-fed steers $10.00 to 11.50. Good grain-fed heifers $9.00 to 9.50. Good beef cows $7.50 to 8.00, medium $6.50 to 7.25, common $5.50 to 6.25, canners $4.25 to 5.00. Bulls, medium to good $7.00 to 7.90, common $6.00 to 6.50. Vealers, good to choice $10.50 to 11.50, select $12.

HOGS: Good to choice 170 to 215 lb. butchers $8.50 to 8.80; 230 to 285 lb. butchers $7.75 to 8.25; packing sows $5.75 to 6.50.

SHEEP: Good to choice woolled lambs $9.25 to 9.85; medium to good $8.00 to 8.50. Slaughter ewes, good to choice $5.00 to 5.50. Shorn lambs $8.50 to 8.75.

CAR FOUND BEFORE MISSED BY OWNER.
It didn't seem quite right to Kelly Cooper when he returned from Portland to find someone had broken open a window in a cabin and taken possession. The doubt increased when he found an unidentified guest in bed with muddy boots on, and a bedspread wadded up for a pillow.

The doubt was further aggravated by the failure of his guest to suggest payment for either lodging or damage.

So Mr. Cooper called a cop—and Bullis of the state police took over. On questioning the guest, Dave Steifel, quickly admitted he had appropriated the car at Cottage Grove, and stopped off in our county when overcome by fatigue. Likewise he admitted just coming out of stir, via a parole. So Bullis gathered him in, and notified the owner of the car, Undertaker Karl Mills of Cottage Grove, that his car was found undamaged. It proved a surprise to Mills, who didn't know up to that time that it had been stolen.

Steifel was returned Wednesday to Lane county, where he will undoubtedly solve the free lodging problem and can go to bed with his boots on, as the mood moves him.—Oakland Tribune, January 17.
