SOCIAL TWELVE CLUB.

The Social Twelve club met at the home of Mrs. Art Wright for a 1:30 dessert last Thursday. The rooms were decorated with bouquets of mixed flowers. Unusual favors of putnia seeds in egg shells were cleverly arranged at the places. A business meeting followed the dessert. Plans were made to omit the next May meeting and to meet with Mrs. W. A. Hemenway in her new home on the second Thursday in June. Mrs. N. E. Compton and Mrs. C. F. Hoskins were appointed as a committee to plan the annual picnic to be held the latter part of June. A guessing game was played and the remainder of the time spent with fancy work.

W.C.T.U.

Mrs. E. F. McFarland entertained the W.C.T.U. at her home Friday afternoon. Mrs. C. N. Land led the devotions and Mrs. T. M. Boyd was in charge of the program. Mrs. William Morelock related the origin of Mother's Day. Mrs. Frank Hauser read a poem. Mrs. McFarland gave a reading. Mrs. Albert Hull sang a solo and Mrs. N. E. Compton gave a reading. An article was read by Mrs. James Tedford. A special meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. W. V. McGee and a quilt will be tied for the children's farm home at Corvallis. The hostess served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

GARDEN CLUB.

Mrs. Glenn Flatters was hostess to the Garden club at her home Friday afternoon. A discussion was held and the decision made not to send a delegate to the state convention at Grants Pass. The members present voted to send in a group for chrysanthemum plants. The theme of the program, which was led by Mrs. D. W. Sturges in the absence of Mrs. Andrew Brund, was the origin and growing of mums. Refreshments were served at the tea hour. The club will meet again on June 6th at the home of Mrs. Joe Schneider.

EASTERN STAR.

Eastern Star chapter met Friday evening in the Masonic temple for their regular business meeting after which the officers entertained the remaining members of the chapter. Group singing was held and refreshments of sandwiches and coffee served. The mothers present were honored. Mrs. W. B. Johnston received a gift for being the mother who had been married the greatest number of years and Mrs. Francis Horn received a gift for the mother who had been married the least number of years. Miss Marian Jehne received the door prize.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.
