U. S. TRAINS YOUTHS FOR SEA

The United States Maritime Service is meeting the threatened shortage of skilled merchant seamen by training youths who have had no previous seagoing experience. Young American citizens in good physical condition 18 to 23 years of age are being enrolled for a seven months' course of instruction in the duties of the deck, engineers, and stewards departments. Enrollees are paid $21.00 monthly; clothing, food, and quarters are furnished by the Government.

The training course qualifies those young men for jobs on American merchant vessels where pay starts at $72.50 a month with food and quarters furnished.

For detailed information write to U. S. MARITIME SERVICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

Silk Creek School Has Program, Open House

The Silk Creek grade school students presented one of the best programs of the school year last Friday evening at the school house. There was a large audience attending. The highlights of the evening were the scenery which was painted by the upper grade students, the seventh grade project, and the dolls in foreign dress which were arranged about the flag with the picture of the national capital drawn in the background.

The program consisted of the girls' quartet singing several numbers: "The Donkey," "Santa Lucia," "Juanita," "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," "Italian Street Fair," "Pledge," and "Who Has Seen the Wind." The entire school sang several chosen selections. The first three grades presented a one-act play, "The Old Lady in the Shoe." The characters were, the Old Lady, Audrey Ellis; Bo-Peep, Rosemary Hanks; Boy Blue, Marion Calvert; Jack, George Taylor; Jill, Mary Durgin. The grades four to six presented a one-act play, "Story Books in Review." The characters for this were LeRoy Ellis, real boy; fairy, Donna Tarr; Rumpelstiltskin, Loran Munro; Roland the Knight, Junior Whaley; Robin Hood, Leo Munro; Florence Nightingale, Etta Mae Taylor; Clara Barton, Maxine Allen; Ting Fang, Alice Hanks, and Ali Baba, Charles Schull. The seventh and eighth grades also presented a one-act comedy, "The Unburied Woman." The characters were Mrs. Pokabout, Eunice Allen; Mrs. Talsket, June Durbin; Mrs. Goround, Helen Hudgins; and Mr. Bright, Delmer Myers. The plays presented by the grades one to six were both written by the teacher, Miss Margaret Leum.

The open-house displayed a picture map of the Silk Creek community as well as a relief map of the same. A booklet on Silk Creek was also prepared by the seventh grade students who had this as their project for the year. Many other interesting booklets and work were displayed.

The program was concluded with the school and the audience singing the "Star Spangled Ban-

FORMER STUDENTS LISTED.

Listed among the recently honored students selected for membership in Phi Beta Kappa, National Honor fraternity at the University of Oregon, were the Misses Lucy and Eunice Edwards who graduated from Cottage Grove high school in 1936.

E. J. Edwards, father of the girls, was formerly Smith-Hughes instructor in the local schools. The family is living in Eugene at the present time. Both girls made outstanding records in scholarship while in high school also.

HEBRON GRANGE.

A special meeting of Hebron Grange was called last Friday evening by Master Earl Murry. Business relative to the purchase of the new hall site was attended to. The resignation of Mrs. Chas. Fuhrer, secretary, was presented and accepted and Miss Vivian White appointed to act until a new secretary is elected.

It was reported that Hebron Grange had placed second in the last quarterly state sales slip contest and received a prize of $7.50 cash.

Two half scholarships to the 4-H Summer School were won by the Grange from Irish-Swartz, for the most sales slip totals of purchases by members during the past year. Ruth Harris and Gerry Mickey of the Latham school are to receive the scholarships for the best club records in the school during the year.

Members of the Grange met at the building on Sunday to do necessary work before meetings can be held at the hall. A basket dinner was served by the women at noon. The regular business meeting will be held June 6th. The men are in charge of refreshments.
