MARDEN-HANKS.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Marden was the scene of a pretty home wedding Saturday evening, July 14 at 8:00 o'clock when their daughter Louise Marie became the bride of Roy C. Hanks of Marshfield. The Rev. Ellsworth Tilton read the ceremony in the presence of about thirty-five relatives and friends. The bride wore a floor length gown of white bengaline taffeta in semi-princess style with a fingertip length veil and carried a bouquet of talisman rosebuds and orchid and white sweetpeas. Her going away suit was a pale gold color redingote over green stripe sheer with beige accessories. The corsage was orchid and white sweetpeas. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton sang "I Love You Truly," with Mrs. Wilbur Davis at the piano. At the reception which followed Mrs. Frank Taylor served the bride's cake and Mrs. Richard Marden the wedding cake. Mrs. Davis poured coffee and Mrs. Gene Pike served the punch. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Page of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. R. Marden of Duluth, Minnesota, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Pike and S. H. Marden of Spooner, Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. John Blake of Coquille, Mrs. Harrison Blake and Mrs. Phil Williams of Bandon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor of Black Butte, Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Crane and Raymond of Delight Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Hanks of Eugene. The couple left on a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Marshfield.

SWEENEY-LONG.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Thelma Sweeney, daughter of James Sweeney of Eugene, to Ralph Long, was made recently. The ceremony was performed Saturday, May 31st, at Payette, Idaho. The bride is well known here, having taught in the Cottage Grove elementary schools for the past few years. She was formerly a member of the Springfield junior high school faculty as history teacher. Mr. Long, formerly of Idaho, is a teacher at Myrtle Point. The couple will spend the summer in Eugene where Mr. Long will attend the University of Oregon summer session.

EASTERN STAR.

The Eastern Star chapter met Friday evening in the Masonic temple. Reports were given on the grand chapter meeting held recently in Portland, by those who attended. Mrs. Anna Graham, grand representative, and Mrs. Maxine Ward, grand page, were given recognition. The men of the chapter were in charge of entertainment. Earl Hill was program chairman. Interesting moving pictures taken by Charles Brown and Dave Scholl were shown by them. The next meeting will be held on Friday, June 27th and a memorial service will be held for the members who have died during the past year. Those who were given special recognition at the grand chapter meeting in Portland, Mrs. Ilma Thum, Mrs. Anna Graham and Mrs. Maxine Ward, will be honored. All members are urged to be present for this meeting.

W. C. T. U.

A meeting of the W.C.T.U. was held recently in the Presbyterian church. During a short business meeting plans were made for a picnic to be held in the city park on Tuesday, July 11th. Cards and flowers were sent to all the sick and shut-ins in observance of Flower Mission day. Over sixty bouquets were distributed over town.

FRIENDLY CLUB.

Mrs. James Powell was hostess to the Friendly club at a 1:30 o'clock dessert Tuesday at her home. Mrs. Elmer Tohlen and Mrs. C. N. Land were welcomed into the club as new members. The next meeting will be held at the P. C. Christensen cabin at Lundpark, Tuesday, July 8th.

The afternoon was spent with cards with Mrs. W. A. Edwards of Culp Creek holding high score. At the close of the meeting the club adjourned for the summer months.

TEA FOR VISITOR.

Mrs. C. F. Hoskins entertained at her home recently with a tea for Mrs. Austin of Aberdeen, Washington, mother of Mrs. C. S. Roberts. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Naomi Preston. Mrs. B. R. Job poured.

DOUBLE WEDDING

Miss Maxine Nixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Nixon became the bride of Roger Braswell, son of Mrs. Bessie Braswell, and Miss Margaret Stoneburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stoneburg, became the bride of Forrest Lemley, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lemley at a double wedding ceremony at Carson City, Nevada, Tuesday, June 10th. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harvey at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon in the Methodist church.

Miss Nixon wore a beige suit with pastel pink accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Miss Stoneburg was dressed in navy blue silk with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Both couples are graduates of Cottage Grove high school. Mr. Braswell attended one year at the University of Oregon.

On the return trip the two couples visited at the Shasta dam and at Mt. Lassen. They arrived here Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Braswell are making their home in Cottage Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Lemley are making their home in Eugene where he is employed.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrs. Damon Scott entertained with a party for her daughter Patricia on her tenth birthday anniversary Monday afternoon. A picnic had been planned but because of the rain the party was held indoors. Games were played and weiners roasted at the fireplace. Guests were Shirley Hileman, Phyllis England, Joan Moody, Virginia Haldeman, Patty Sue Schmelling and Malcolm Scott, brother of Patricia. Several nice gifts were presented the guest of honor.

SPECIAL MEETING.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft held a special meeting in the I.O.O.F. hall Tuesday evening. Reports on the recent convention were given and Mrs. Anna Graham gave a report on the convention of district No. 11 held recently in Portland. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Martha Cooley and Horace Hatch. The refreshment committee for the next meeting to be held on Tuesday, July 1st is Mrs. Anna Graham and Mrs. Grace Davis.

PRESBYTERIAN AID.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid met last week on the lawn at the home of Mrs. A. W. Helliwell with Mrs. Verne Williams, Mrs. Harold Houser and Mary VanDenburg as hostesses. Mrs. George Jacobsen and Mrs. L. J. McCoy as captains drew names for the experience social. The Rev. Burns led devotionals. The Aid will not meet again until September. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

ATTEND CONVENTION.

Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Hagen were in Eugene last week for the three day session of the state convention of the Oregon Association of Chiropractic Physicians and auxiliary. The convention was held at the Osburn hotel.

The doctors' program was devoted to lectures and clinics. Friday afternoon the auxiliary was conducted on a tour of Chase Gardens by Frank Chase. This was followed by a tea at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. I. Fischer at which Mrs. H. A. Hagen entertained with piano solos. At the Saturday morning business session, the auxiliary held their regular election of officers at which Mrs. R. M. Peffer of Corvallis was reelected president and Mrs. Hagen was elected secretary. The group voted to donate 100 pounds of powdered milk to "Bundles for Britain."

Saturday evening the annual banquet and dance was held for the doctors and their wives at the Osburn hotel.

TOWNSEND CLUB HAS FATHER'S DAY PROGRAM.

On Monday night the ladies of the Townsend club gave a program in keeping with "Father's Day" consisting of songs and readings. Visitors from the Drain club assisted. The club was asked to furnish the program at county headquarters on Saturday night but asked that the program be postponed until a later date. Mrs. K. L. Adams read a special bulletin. Several members accepted the invitation to visit the Drain club on Thursday evening.

THANK YOU

I appreciate very much the patronage given me since the opening of the new Union Service Station at 6th and Pacific highway, both new and old customers. I especially appreciate the manner in which my former customers remembered me.

I will strive always to give the highest type of service possible.

Again I thank you.
