Business and Professional Woman's Club Is Organized at Breedlove Home Monday Eve

A business and professional women's club was organized Monday evening at the home of Mrs. H. B. Breedlove and temporary officers elected. The state organizer is expected to pay an official visit to the club soon, at which time regular officers will be chosen. It is hoped that a permanent organization may be effected by September.

Two events were planned by the members present at the initial meeting, one a noon luncheon August 6th and the second a covered dish luncheon at the city park August 19th.

A preliminary survey of the prospective membership reveals that the club may reach fifty before many months. An active membership campaign will get underway soon under the leadership of Mrs. Ed Hoyt, chairman, according to present plans.

Temporary officers elected were: Mrs. Breedlove, president, and Mrs. Donna Cooper, secretary.

METHODIST PICNIC

The Women's local activities and social relations group of the Methodist church held a picnic dinner Wednesday on Mosby creek near Walden. Mrs. C. E. Umphrey presided at the business session at which plans were discussed for their activity program. A social time followed.

The Spanish-American War veterans and auxiliary will meet at the armory in the evening. All members are urged to attend.
