

SOCIETY—

Miss Rodney Hood, Reporter
Telephone 159

JOHNSTON-WELDEN

The Sellwood Christian church in Portland was the scene of a beautiful wedding Saturday evening, October 4th at 8:00 o'clock when Miss Phyllis E. Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Johnston of Portland, became the bride of Glenn C. Welden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morton V. Welden of Cottage Grove. The Rev. Albert Kribs read the service in the presence of 100 guests and an unusual coloring was lent the affair as the groom, his best man and the two ushers were all in U. S. army uniforms.

The church was beautifully decorated in asters and dahlias with a greenery arrangement of palms and ferns. Two sisters of the bride, Lois Fitzgerald and Lorraine Kivi, sang as a duet, "I Love You Truly," and Mrs. Fitzgerald sang, "At Dawning," accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. S. Fitzgerald, who also played the wedding music.

The bride was attired in a combination of white lace and net over white satin and her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Her matron of honor, Virginia Clay, wore turquoise and her bridesmaids, Margaret Howard and Elaine Erickson, wore peach and blue. The best man was Rob Britton and the ushers were Chester Ferguson and Glen Lecklider. The little ring bearer was the bride's nephew, Richard Kivi.

The bride is a graduate of the High School of Commerce and is employed in a clerical position. The groom is a member of the 29th Engineers, stationed for the present in Portland.

A reception was held at the church. Assisting were Mesdames L. P. Fitzgerald, Martin Kivi, Floyd Zitzgerald and Thomas Dodge. Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Welden, Richard, John and Lois Welden, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welden of Vaughn and Mrs. William Rasor, Mrs. Jack Rasor and Mrs. Beluah Barker, all of Bremerton, Washington were also present.

The young couple are now at home at 609 S. E. Taylor Street in Portland.

LEAGUE MEETS.

The Eugene chapter of the Lane County Hard of Hearing league met last Thursday at the home of the president, Mrs. G. R. Hyslop, at Eugene. The membership is divided into two parts and each part is conducting a membership campaign, the losing side to entertain the winning side on November 29th. All local hard of hearing persons are eligible and welcome to join the league. Miss Belle Burkholder, local member, attended the meeting. She will entertain the group at her home for their first meeting in November. A potluck luncheon will be served and all hard of hearing persons in this community are invited to come and bring a covered dish or sandwiches. Coffee, cream and a covered dish will be served by the hostess.

LADIES GOLF.

Eight ladies were present for the usual golf play Wednesday. Mrs. Ella Zimmerly won the prize ball for low number of putts, 17 for 9 holes. The first Wednesday of each month is reserved for potluck luncheons at the club house or at a local restaurant. The usual play is each Wednesday at 1:00 p. m.

At golf play yesterday, Mrs. Ella Zimmerly and Mrs. Merle King tied with a score of 48. In the shingle tournament a shingle was to be placed at the point where the handicap and plus par was reached but both Mrs. King and Mrs. Zimmerly played the entire course without having to place shingles.

MATRONETTE CLUB.

Mrs. Gail Reiersgaard was hostess to the Matronette club at her home last Thursday. A 7:30 dessert was served followed by a social evening. Mrs. Vera Weinkauf and Mrs. Katherine Barton were welcomed as new members. Mrs. Ben Rohleder will entertain the club at her home in two weeks.

AUTUMN ENTERTAINING CALLS FOR FLOWERS

A choice selection awaits you here.

Sunnyside Greenhouses

1704 West Main
Tel. 182

Social Calendar

FRIDAY

Hebron Grange open meeting at the hall, 8:00 p. m. Members bring sandwiches, cookies and cups.

The Hobby club will meet at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Mae Wilson on Second street.

The Rebekah lodge will meet at 7:30 and entertain the Springfield lodge and all Rebekahs and Odd Fellows over the age of 65. Eva Aubrey is chairman of the refreshment committee.

MONDAY

American Legion Auxiliary at the armory, 8:00 p. m.

TUESDAY

The Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet for a 7:30 dessert and social at the home of Mrs. J. P. Graham. Mrs. Eunice Smith will assist as hostess.

WEDNESDAY

London 4-H Mother's club at the clubhouse, 10:30 a. m. Potluck dinner at noon.

DEGREE OF HONOR.

The Degree of Honor lodge held their social meeting Tuesday evening in Eagles hall. At the business session Edith Bradshaw, Frances Schilling and Betty Bushnell were accepted for initiation. Plans were further discussed for the convention to be held here on November 24th and committees were appointed as follows: Mrs. Carl King, chairman of a committee to be in charge of the luncheon arrangements; Mrs. Frances Swanson, chairman of the serving committee; Mrs. Vera Ziebeck, chairman of hall decorating committee; Marie Lemmer, chairman of welcoming committee; Ethel Hammond and Helen Cochran, courtesy committee. Mrs. Genevieve Nelson was appointed to arrange for reserving the banquet room of the Rainbow cafe for the banquet to be held in the evening.

At the next meeting, practice will be held for the convention at which time the initiatory degree will be conferred upon the three candidates. At the close of business, refreshments of pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee were served by Mrs. Richard Bushell and Miss Rodney Hood. Table decorations were of the Halloween motif. Two tables of bridge followed with Mrs. Carl King winning the prize for high score and Mrs. Vera Ziebeck for low.

PRESBYTERIAN AID.

The Presbyterian Aid met last week and held their experience social. Mrs. Mabel Helliwell, president, presided. Plans were discussed for raising money and making improvements to the church. The Aid was divided into two groups for the experience social and Mrs. George Jacobsen was captain of one group assisted by Mrs. J. P. Graham. Mrs. L. J. McCoy was captain of the other group assisted by Mrs. Nellie Blackmore. Mrs. Jacobsen's group won the contest with $95.88 and Mrs. McCoy's group received $60.61. The devotions consisted of each member reading a passage of scripture. Plans were made to hold a covered dish luncheon at the next meeting in November. The losing group will be the hostess committee. Refreshments were served by the hostess committee with Mrs. C. A. Beidler as chairman. The Halloween motif was used in decorations.

FRIENDSHIP CLASS.

The Friendship class of the Presbyterian church met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Elmer Bushell. Miss Dorothy Moore and Miss McCleod were hostesses. Election of officers were held and the remaining time spent in sewing for Bundles for Britain. Mrs. Gladys Hall was elected president, Mrs. A. W. Shofstall, vice president, and Mrs. W. A. DeMoy, secretary. The meeting for November will be held at the home of Miss Eunice VanDenburg.

ASSOCIATION MEETS.

The Cottage Grove unit of the Oregon State Beauty Shop Owners' association met for a luncheon at the Gray Goose cafe Wednesday at noon. Echo Galdabini was welcomed as a new member and new officers were elected for the coming year. Echo Galdabini was elected president, Inez Hoyt vice president, and Gladys Adams secretary-treasurer.

Watch for the big 4 page, 2 color poster giving full details of REXALL ONE CENT SALE OCT. 22-24-5 reaching you next Monday. Study this poster and make ready to cash in on the one sale you've been waiting for.

Common "cents" will save dollars for you when spent at the REXALL ONE CENT SALE Save With Safety KEM'S FOR DRUGS The Rexall Store 10-1tc

YUNKER-SUTHERLAND NUPTIALS.

Announcement of the marriage of Horace Sutherland of Marshfield, former Cottage Grove resident, to Miss Gertrude Yunker of Eugene was received by the Sentinel Tuesday.

Vows were solemnized October 10th at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Davis of Eugene, with Rev. Davis, former pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. Following the ceremony the couple left for San Francisco, where they will visit a fortnight before returning to Marshfield, where Mr. Sutherland is employed in the Marshfield post office. Mr. Sutherland former clerk of the Cottage Grove post office, was transferred to the Marshfield office about a year ago.

W.C.T.U.

Mrs. W. V. McGee entertained the W.C.T.U. at her home Friday afternoon. The devotions were led by Mrs. Elsie Wells followed by the lesson with Mrs. James Tedford in charge. A report was given on the address made recently at the Jefferson school assembly on the subject of "Temperance and Missions," by Mrs. Camp of Creswell. Mrs. J. Palmer was elected delegate to the state W.C.T.U. convention to be held in Portland during the coming week. A vote was carried to bring a special offering to the next meeting to be used for purchasing temperance books for the use of the grade school teachers.

HONORS HUSBAND.

Mrs. Sam Warren entertained at her home Tuesday evening with a surprise party for her husband on his birthday anniversary. Guests were his Sunday school class of the Baptist church. Twenty-four were present and the time was spent in group singing and social conversation. Refreshments of punch and a beautifully decorated birthday cake were served. Mrs. Martha Marsh and Miss Phyllis Vincent assisted the hostess in serving. The guest of honor was presented a beautiful table lamp and other presents.

TO VISIT LODGE.

Mrs. Ina Stewart, Mrs. Rosa Peterson, Mrs. Nellie King, Alice Conner, Rosa Lewis, Effie Ballew, Vera Ziebeck, Della Baker, Martha Eastham, Florence Morris, Lita Stewart, Zula Hansen, Mrs. Melvie St. Elmo, Marion Armstrong, Millie Hodgson, Donna Cooper, and Elsie Currin are planning to attend the Rebekah lodge meeting at Waltherville this evening. The initiatory degree will be presented by the Waltherville lodge.

MIZPAH CLASS.

The Mizpah class of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday at the church for a business and social afternoon. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Mrs. George Hohman, president; Mrs. William Chestnut, vice president; Miss Stella Adams, second vice president; Mrs. O. W. Blackmore, secretary-treasurer. Names for the Polly Annas were drawn. The Halloween season was suggested in refreshments served by Mrs. Hohman and Mrs. Bramble.

STUDY CLUB.

The Study club met in the city library Tuesday evening. Roll call was answered with the name of an American explorer. Mrs. William Thum reviewed the book, "Wabash River" by William E. Wilson and Miss Mariette Hamant gave a report on the book, "Hatcher Ide," by Booth Tarkington. Plans were made to hold guest night on October 28th.

M. P. G. CLUB.

Mrs. Roy Short was hostess to the M.P.G. club at her home Tuesday. A 1:00 o'clock luncheon was served followed by a social afternoon. Mrs. Ted Burns was a guest. Mrs. Joe T. Smith will entertain the club at her home for their next meeting.

CHURCHES

First Baptist Church, Ercile L. White, pastor.—Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Mrs. W. C. Martin, superintendent. Morning worship, 11:00. Sermon subject, "Return to Thy First Love."

B.Y.P.U. at 6:30 p. m. Evening service, 7:30. Drama, "The Missionary Dollar," to be presented by members of the Missionary Society. Special offering to be taken for student fund which provides scholarships for Oregon Baptist young women preparing for full time Christian service.

Mid-week prayer service Thursday evening at 7:30.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH. Rev. J. Ted Burns, Pastor. Sunday School 9:45 a. m. Worship 11:00 a. m. Christian Endeavor 7:00 p. m. Wednesday Bible study 7:00 p. m. All who desire to worship or rest are welcome here.

METHODIST CHURCH. Rev. W. A. Briggs, Pastor. Church school 9:45 a. m. Morning worship 11:00 a. m. Youth Fellowship 6:30 p. m. Evening worship 7:30 p. m. Choir Practice, Tuesday 7:30 p. m. Prayer meeting and Bible study Thursday evening 7:30 p. m.

Hebron Christian Church, H. S. Young, pastor.—Bible school, 10:00 a. m.; morning worship and communion service, 11:00 a. m.

At the present time the congregation is meeting in the Grange Hall. This is due to the fact that their church building is being destroyed because of the Cottage Grove dam which is going in at this community. Plans are being made for the erection of a new building on some property which has been given to the church by Mrs. Wills of the Hebron community.

Free Methodist Church, Corner So. 6th and Harrison, Harold P. Hoffman, pastor.—We have closed our evangelistic effort and now push forward in our regular routine.

We are expecting a group of business men who are a part of our Oregon Conference, Laymen's Council headed by Roy Harrington, president of the Council, to be with us over a week end soon. Watch for further announcement. They will have charge of a Sunday morning and afternoon service.

From October 28th to November 2nd, our District Elder, the Rev. Earl F. Aiken, will be with us for a week of special services and our quarterly meeting over the week end. (This will be of special interest to the community as well as the church. Remember the dates.)

Sunday services as follows: Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; morning worship, 11:00 a. m. Message by pastor: "The Hope of the Church."

Evening service, 7:30 p. m. Evangelistic message by pastor. "The Sole Remedy for Sin." "Scriptural Holiness Our Theme and God's Message." Heb. 12:14. "The church with the friendly handshake."

Christian Science Society, 242 Second Street.—Sunday school, 9:45; forenoon service, 11, subject "Doctrine of Atonement." Evening service second Wednesday of each month at 8:00 p. m. The Bible, Christian Science literature and the writings of Mary Baker Eddy may be borrowed or purchased before or after the Wednesday service.

Church of Christ, Gordon L. Hypes, Minister.—Bible school at 9:45 a. m. Church, 11:00 a. m. Sermon, "The Wisdom of God's Fool."

Christian Endeavor, 6:30 p. m. Church, 7:30 p. m. Sermon, "Pattern of Purpose."

Catholic church, Father Anthony Gerace.—Mass each Sunday at 9:30 a. m. except fourth Sunday, at which time it will be at 8:00 a. m.

Corona Portables. The Sentinel.

LORANE COUPLE MARRIED.

Miss Mabel Drew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Drew, and Vinton Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder of Lebanon were married at the home of the bride's parents near Lorane, Sunday, October 5. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Norman K. Tully of Eugene. The bride is a graduate of Lorane high school of the class of 1940. Mr. Snyder taught music in Lorane high school the past three years. They will make their home at Rogue River where he is teaching music in the high school.

WOMEN'S BIBLE CLASS.

The Women's Bible class met yesterday at the home of Mrs. May Hogate with Mrs. Ida Swann as assistant hostess. A potluck luncheon was served at the noon hour. Sixteen members were present and one guest, Mrs. Lila Veatch. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Swann and a short business meeting followed. Three dollars was allowed by the class to be used in paying for the electric fan being placed in the furnace. Twenty-three calls were reported and fourteen bouquets given. Two quilts were tied and completed. One was presented to the parsonage and the other sent to the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis. The next meeting will be held in the church parlors with Mrs. Ira Beidler and Mrs. Florence Mills as hostesses.

SURPRISE SHOWER

Mrs. Frank Gierau, Mrs. Joe Bricher and Mrs. Leo Waldoct entertained yesterday at the Waldoct home with a surprise miscellaneous shower for Miss Thelma Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Phillips, who will be married October 26th in the Catholic church to Melvin Keele of Ft. Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keele of Culp Creek. A dessert was served followed by the presentation of many lovely gifts to the guest of honor.

TUESDAY BRIDGE

Mrs. O. E. Woodson was hostess to the Tuesday Bridge club this week at a 1:00 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. G. B. Pitcher. After the luncheon the group went to Mrs. Woodson's home for bridge. Mrs. W. L. Workman won the prize. All members were present and names were drawn for the Christmas exchange. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. C. S. Roberts in two weeks.

PAULINE CIRCLE

The Pauline Circle of the Ladies Council of the Christian church went to Eugene Wednesday to spend the day at the home of Mrs. Laura Kirtley. A covered dish luncheon was served with fifteen ladies present. The time was spent socially.

JUSTAMERE CLUB

The Justamere club was entertained Tuesday at a 1:30 dessert at the home of Mrs. Palmer Johnson. Mrs. Ralph Saltzman held high score at bridge. The next meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. J. B. Leonard.

HOLINESS MEETING.

The Willamette Holiness Association will conduct an all day day meeting Tuesday, October 21, at the Eugene Nazarene church, 8th and Madison Sts. Services at 10:30 and 1:30 with basket lunch at noon.

Real Estate—

Still the Safest Investment

160 acres, 6 miles from town. 20 acres in cultivation. Good pasture. Some timber. Good barn, no house. Fenced sheep tight. $1,600 cash.

90 acres 1½ miles from town. Good pasture, fair buildings, year round creek. Livestock goes with the place. $1,775, $600 down and rest at $15 month.

6-room house, modern and in good condition. Three-fourths acre ground. $1,800, $600 down and rest by month.

105 North H street. $2,200 including the furniture. Good house, dandy location. Brings high rental.

902 Birch Street, $2,000, easy terms.

105 acres, 40 in bottom ground in cultivation, on highway. Electricity and modern plumbing in the house. 1½ miles from town. $6,500.

198 acres—80 can be cultivated, good orchard, buildings poor. Close to town. $5,250, terms.

Real Estate RODMANS Insurance
DICKERS IN DIRT

UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR TO ADDRESS LIONS

Dr. William C. Jones, political science professor of the University of Oregon will address the Lions club today on the subject of "Assumptions of Democracy."

Reports of committees was the principal item of business transacted at the regular meeting last Thursday. Reports were heard from: L. C. Schroeder of the membership committee, who announced that a membership contest would likely be staged between the members of the local club and those of the Junction City club, starting shortly after the first of the year. Waldo DeMoy gave a financial report and an estimated budget for another year. Worth Harvey and Robert Fromm reported on the program committee and announced that a tentative program had been completed up to the first of the year. W. C. Martin reporting for the publicity committee, said that plans would likely be made soon to sponsor a road sign jointly with the Chamber of Commerce, the signs to be uniform and to give information regarding the time and meeting place of the various civic clubs. Myron Perry and Wayne Mackin were guests at the last meeting.

Doctors for Jury Duty

Physicians and nurses should serve on juries in order that courts may have the benefit of their professional intelligence, according to Mrs. Curtis Bok, wife of the Philadelphia Common Pleas judge.

Hallowe'en ice cream in the following flavors: Licorice, Harvest Moon, Pumpkin and Orange-Chocolate at Gustafson's of course.

10-1tc-41

There'll Be No Blackout in Your HALLOWE'EN ENTERTAINING

with plenty of noise makers, masks, serpentine, costumes, candies in Hallowe'en colors, and favors.

Brown's Drug Store

Cottage Grove Pharmacy
PHONE 244

Remember Bressler's

—When You Think of Your Home

Builtwell Davenport and Chairs

Builtwell Swing Rockers

Olympic Circulators

Fashion-Flow Bed Room Sets

Simmons' Springs and Mattresses

Speed Queen Washers

Bigelow Rugs

BRESSLER'S FOR FURNITURE

Trade in Your Furniture for New.

FREE DELIVERY

Terms to Suit Your Budget.

COOL NIGHTS! KEEP WARM!

We just received a shipment of Cats Pajamas and Lovlee Lady Gowns. The most beautiful in winter sleeping garments. Chenille materials, in plain and stripes. Colors bluish and maize and blue. Knitted gowns in T-rose.

We also have a beautiful and large assortment of gowns and pajamas in satins and silk crepes. Tailored and lace trimmed. The best of fitting slips in materials; Fruit of the Loom, knitted taffetas, white and T-rose, lace trim satin. Have plain satins in T-rose, white, navy and black.

PANTIES, BRASSIERS AND GIRDLES.

Come in and see—Watch for our window display.

THE SMART SHOP

ALICE BREEDLOVE, Prop.