STEWART-JOHNSON.

At a beautiful church wedding Sunday, October 26th, Miss Anita Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Stewart, became the bride of Louis Johnson in the presence of about twenty-five close friends and relatives. The ceremony was performed in the Christian church at 8:00 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Gordon Hypes read the vows as the couple stood before the altar between huge baskets of fall flowers. The bride was attractive in a black and white ensemble with black accessories. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums centered with a white gardenia. Her maid of honor, Miss Anna Bain, wore a green street dress with brown accessories and a corsage of rosebuds and gardenias. Red Barger acted as best man.

The bride is a graduate of Cottage Grove high school class of 1941 and the groom attended schools in Atlanta, Georgia.

A reception was held for the couple at the home of Mrs. Roy Lyon immediately following the ceremony. A beautiful three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and decorated with rosebuds and love birds was served with the bride cutting the first piece. Jello and punch were served with the cake and Mrs. Lyon was assisted in serving by her mother, Mrs. L. H. Bain and her sister, Miss Anna Bain.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their home at Culp Creek. Mr. Johnson is employed at the Bohemia mines.

PHILLIPS-KEELE.

Miss Thelma Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Phillips, and Melvin Keesee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keesee of Culp Creek, were united in marriage Sunday, October 26th at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic church in Cottage Grove. The single ring ceremony was performed at 9:00 o'clock in the morning by the Rev. Anthony Gerace of Eugene. Several close friends and relatives were guests. The bride was gownned in an afternoon frock of maroon velvet with maroon colored accessories and a corsage of rosebuds. She was attended by Miss Clydene Darby of Roseburg, who wore an afternoon dress of black with black and white accessories and a gardenia corsage. Fred Phillips, brother of the bride, acted as best man. A breakfast was served at the home of the bride following the ceremony for members of the bridal party and the immediate families. The young couple will make their home at Ft. Stevens, where Mr. Keesee is stationed with Battery E, 249th Coast Artillery.

WADE-MALSURY.

The marriage of Miss Carol Bernadine Wade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wade to Lowell Murry Malsbury of Lebanon, Kansas, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents at 2:30 o'clock Friday, October 24th, the Rev. Gordon Hypes officiating. The bride wore a dress of blue velvet with a corsage of gardenias. The living room where the ceremony was performed was decorated with huge baskets of autumn flowers. Those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wade, Miss Wilma Wade, Warren Wade, Mrs. Max McGuire, Miss Olive Gawley and Miss Eleanor Teeters. The bride is a graduate of the class of 1941 of Cottage Grove high school. The young couple will be at home at 1404 West Main St. in Cottage Grove.

STUDY CLUB.

The Study club met Tuesday at the Rainbow Cafe with Mrs. Olive Barber of Marshfield, speaker of the evening, for a dinner, following which the group went to the city library for the remainder of the evening. Mrs. Barber, who was introduced by Mrs. Ilma Thum, gave a talk on the philosophy of life. The speaker was also presented a beautiful corsage. There were about forty guests present. Preceding the meeting, Mrs. Barber was entertained at the home of Mrs. C. J. Kem. Mrs. Kem, Mrs. Harry Reed and Mrs. Thum were in charge of arrangements for the evening.

STRAIGHT FROM NEW YORK

THE "TWO-PIECE LOOK"

Whether it's an evening gown with skirt falling in graceful elegance to the floor, or a street-length afternoon frock—it's the "two-piece look" that's top fashion today. The tunic, so popular this season, gives it the pearl grey dinner gown with its slit skirt and silver studded coral belt. The other New York creation, an afternoon dress, grey-green in two tones, has smoothly fitting jumper top with side lacings, and a tucked skirt.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarland received an announcement recently of the wedding of their son, Corporal David Rex McFarland, to Miss Rose Brown of Santa Rosa, California. The wedding took place at 9:30 a. m. Saturday, October 25th at Reno, Nevada. Corporal McFarland is a graduate of the class of 1939 of Cottage Grove high school. He is stationed with the 79th Pursuit Squadron at Hamilton Field, California, but was called recently to foreign service in South America.
