MONSON-CLEARWATER.

Miss Margaret Monson, daughter of Mrs. Armorer Miller, and Leonard Clearwater, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Clearwater of Springfield, were united in marriage Saturday, November 1st, at Kelso, Washington. The ceremony was performed at 11:30 a. m. in the Presbyterian church by the Rev. Phillip A. Lavine. The couple were unattended. The bride wore a brown and gold afternoon dress with brown accessories and a gardenia corsage. The bride is a graduate of Cottage Grove high school with the class of 1940 and the groom graduated with the class of 1938 of the Springfield high school.

Mr. Clearwater received his call to the army and left for Ft. Lewis on Tuesday. Mrs. Clearwater will remain in Cottage Grove at the home of her mother until her husband is permanently stationed, when she will go to be with him.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR MISS TEETERS.

Miss Eleanor Teeters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Teeters, soon to become the bride of Lloyd Wagner of Eugene, was the recipient of many lovely gifts at a miscellaneous shower held at the H. B. Ferrin home last Saturday evening.

Preceding the shower a 7:30 dessert was served, and games pertaining to love and marriage were enjoyed by the guests. Since Mr. Wagner is attached to the Air Corps of the U. S. Army, airplanes were a feature of the evening, and patriotic color had its place.

Invited guests were the Misses Margaret Read, Virginia Lamb, Lois Baldwin, Huldah Rose, Eunice VanDenBerg, Myrtle Kem, Mesdames B. R. Job, W. H. Daugherty, J. Ted Burns, A. W. Helliwell, C. E. Beidler, George Matthews, A. C. Spriggs, Laverne Van Hyning (Eugene), Ralph Hawley, Vinal Randall, Max Bird, Robert Cherry, L. M. Malsbury, Wm. Thum, Frank Grannis, Ralph Teeters, and the honoree.

LODGES HOLD PARTY.

The Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges held a Halloween party last Thursday evening in I.O.O.F. hall with about 85 in attendance. Committees in charge of planning the party were C. A. King, Ray Dallas, and Bert Hatch for the Odd Fellows and Mrs. Minnie Sweet, Mrs. Minnie Willits and Mrs. Mearl McKibben for the Rebekahs. A program for the evening was presented as follows: Group singing, reading, Bert Hatch; barter shop stunt, Ray Dallas and C. A. King; reading, Mrs. Anna Petrie; "Guess Who," Mrs. E. J. Kent; reading, Mrs. Rosa Peterson; reading, Mrs. Fred Fleck; violin selections, Frank Hazen, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Nellie Blackmore; violin solo, L. D. Tucker, accompanied by Mrs. Blackmore; group singing. Refreshments were served at the close of the program followed by games and old fashioned dancing.

HONORED AT LUNCHEON.

Mrs. Lena Sams was the guest of honor Tuesday at a luncheon given at the home of Mrs. Alvis Wicks. Mrs. Sams plans to leave soon to make her home in Eugene. Guests included Mrs. S. T. Rose, Mrs. Joe Saffey, Mrs. J. S. Markham, Mrs. Paul Dyksterhaus, Mrs. James Tedford and Mrs. Sams. The honored guest was presented with a corsage and a handkerchief shower. Guests were all teachers in the primary department of the Methodist Sunday school.

LACOMUS CLUB.

The LaComus club met for a 1:30 dessert Tuesday at the home of Mrs. G. B. Pitcher. Two guests, Mrs. Nelson Durham and Mrs. Della Richmond, were present. Mrs. T. C. Wheeler won the prize for high score at bridge. Names were drawn for the Christmas exchange. Mrs. T. C. Wheeler will entertain the club at her home for their next meeting.

B.P.W. CLUB.

The B.P.W. club held their first meeting of the month yesterday with a noon luncheon at the Rainbow cafe. The meeting was called to order by the president, Alice Breedlove, and the flag salute was followed by the group. Guest speakers for the day were Mrs. Ed Bankie and Miss Davenport of the American Red Cross, Eugene Branch. Mrs. Helen Hagen, secretary, read the minutes and a report was made on the evening meeting held at the home of Mrs. Mary Workman. The president read a letter from the state president instructing the club in regards to the Newport convention to be held November 15 and 16. She urged the Cottage Grove club to send as many delegates as possible. Mrs. Irene Boyd reported on the sale of tickets for the Chinese benefit card party held last evening in the I.O.O.F. hall. Because of limited time all business was not transacted so the president will call a special meeting for a later date. Five prospective members' names were given to the investigating committee. A letter from Governor Sprague of Salem congratulating Cottage Grove for organizing a business and professional women's club was read and the meeting was adjourned by Mrs. Breedlove.

REBEKAH LODGE.

The Rebekahs held their regular meeting Friday evening in the I.O.O.F. hall. During the business session first nomination of officers was held as follows: Noble grand, Mrs. Rosie Peterson; vice grand, Mrs. Florence Morris and Mrs. Vera Ziebeck recording secretary, Mrs. Alice Conner; financial secretary, Mrs. Mina Clark and Mrs. Martha Eastham; treasurer, Mrs. Stella Baker. At the meeting November 7th, four candidates will be initiated and second nomination of officers will be held. Oakridge, Creswell and Walterville lodges will be guests at this meeting. Mrs. Nellie Johnson was appointed chairman of the refreshment committee.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PARTY.

Mrs. Carl Jenkins entertained with a Halloween party at her home Friday evening for the young adult class of the Baptist Sunday school. The guests were in costume and several games in keeping with Halloween were played. Refreshments were served at the close by the hostess. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bowden, the Rev. Erle White, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cherry, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Evenson, Miss Irma Raiser, Miss Rodney Hood, Willard Hood and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jenkins.

STRAIGHT FROM NEW YORK

PEPLUMS ARE POPULAR
The new "interrupted silhouette" this year is achieved with peplums, tiers and tucks. This New York creation features a perky, plicated peplum that fastens on like a little apron over this feather-weight wool dress of casual red. Slanted pockets are hidden beneath the peplum to complement the high pockets on the bodice. The look is soft and feminine, typical of this season's fashion trend.

ALTAR SOCIETY.

Mrs. William Zimmerly entertained the Catholic Altar Society at her home Monday afternoon. Mrs. Frank Gierau assisted as hostess. A dessert was served followed by the usual business meeting. Committee reports were given and a report was made of the rummage sale held Saturday at the Mt. States Power company office. It was voted to hold election of officers annually, during the month of January, and the nominating committee was appointed as follows: Mrs. Leo Waldo, Mrs. Glenn Flatters and Mrs. C. J. Kem. Mrs. Joseph Bricher, Mrs. Lou Brissette and Mrs. J. W. Tarr were appointed to make recommendations on the necessary changes in the constitution and by-laws of the society. The recommendations will be read at the next meeting. Plans were also made for the annual Christmas party, which will be held Monday, December 1st at the home of Mrs. Joseph Bricher. Mrs. J. W. Tarr will assist as hostess.

SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS ENTERTAIN.

Teachers of the union high school and teachers of the grade schools were entertained with a "Hobo" party October 29th by Messrs. and Mmes. Charles Beidler, Earl Garoutte, Roy Hands, George McReynolds, Vinal Randall, Clyde Wright, Joe T. Smith, Clyde Umphrey, Alvis Wicks, Wilbur Workman and Worth Harvey.

The party was held in the recreation building at the Vinal Randall home which was decorated "barn fashion" with autumn leaves, pumpkins, cornstalks and bales of straw. The evening was spent with games and ended with group singing around a campfire. Mrs. Wilbur Workman, dressed as a gypsy, accompanied the singing on her ukelele.

Prizes for the best costumes were awarded to Miss Mildred Deal and George West. In the liars contest, Miss Julia Tomlinson was given the first prize. For refreshments, in keeping with the "hobo" idea, each guest was given a "hand out" in a paper sack.

PAST MATRONS.

The Past Matrons club of the Eastern Star chapter was entertained at a 1:30 dessert Monday at the home of Mrs. Nelson Durham. A business and social afternoon followed the dessert. Mrs. Charles Freeman of Portland, house guest of Mrs. S. L. Godard, and Mrs. H. B. Ferrin were guests. Plans were made to hold the Christmas meeting in the Masonic hall on Monday, December 1st. It will be a no-hostess affair.

LEGION AUXILIARY.

The American Legion Auxiliary met at the armory on Monday evening for a business meeting. Following the opening ceremony, Mrs. Clyde Roberts was installed as vice president by Past President Hester Reed.

A hospital report was given by chairman Nell Bukowski, that the department is asking for gifts to be sent to Roseburg hospital. A gift shop is maintained at Christmas where disabled veterans may choose gifts for their families from the gift shop. Magazines no older than 1938 issues were also requested for the hospital.

Hester Reed, Americanism chairman, read parts of Henry Morgenthau Jr.'s speech on inflation. It was voted that the chairman secure copies of this speech for local distribution. Aneta Grannis was appointed to act as emergency volunteer service officer as part of her duties as National Defense chairman.

A report on the national defense activities of the Girl Scouts was given by June Bird. Mrs. Bird also reported on child welfare and it was voted to purchase necessary clothing for a child in a local disabled veteran's family. The flannel pajamas and nightgowns being made for the child welfare department were distributed among the members present that they might be completed.

Three new members were received: Mrs. Claud Cruson, Mrs. Glennie Frost and Mrs. Ethel Costo. Both Mrs. Cruson and Mrs. Frost were charter members of this Unit and Mrs. Cruson has served two terms as Unit president.

The matter of holding a rummage sale was discussed but it was decided that it would be postponed for the present.

The next meeting will be on November 17th, when Unit members will entertain the Legionnaires with a short program and refreshments following the business meeting. The Unit members are asked to bring sandwiches.

Members were reminded that the Legion and Auxiliary breakfast would be held on Armistice Day at 8:30. All members are to meet at the Rainbow cafe.

HALLOWEEN PARTY.

Jane Beidler entertained at her home last Thursday evening with a Halloween party for a group of her friends. Decorations and the various games were in keeping with the season. Refreshments were served at the close to the following guests: Pat Kelly, Pat Sorenson, Vada Crosby, June Malcolm, Betty Bagley, Marjorie Coiner, Mary Ann Hall, Shirley Allen, Roberta Bagley, Donna Porterfield, Carol Hunter, Helen Axley, Dorothy Jean Peterson, Beverly Whitlock, Jack Summers, Dean Summers, Bill Boyce, Ross Adkins, Robert Hagen, George Hypes, Ralph Long, John Leonard, Walter Sorenson and Dale McFarland. Miss Eva Wolfe and Willard Newton assisted with the games.

SUNSHINE CIRCLE.

Seventeen ladies of the Sunshine Circle of the Christian church met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Stella Baker for a potluck luncheon. A business session was held followed by quilting. Mrs. J. M. VasBinder and Mrs. J. V. Stewart were guests of the circle for the day. Mrs. Stewart gave a reading entitled, "A Day in Grandmother's Time." A generous check was presented the church officers on the remodeling of the baptistry, which is underway. The circle will meet next Wednesday in the church parlor for work and business.
