GRAHAM-WEST.

Miss Agnes Graham, daughter of Mrs. Toy Graham, and Chester West, son of Mrs. L. West, were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lovegren, Sunday afternoon, November 23rd at 2:30 o'clock. The vows were read by the Rev. Atwood Foster as the couple stood before the fireplace. Baskets of bronze and gold mums were placed on either side of the fireplace and on the mantel. About thirty relatives and friends witnessed the beautiful ceremony. Mrs. Atwood Foster played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Mrs. W. D. Lovegren sang "Because," immediately following the ceremony.

The bride wore a white taffeta floor length gown with a white net veil and carried a bouquet of large white chrysanthemums and tiny yellow buttonhole mums. She was attended by Miss Genevieve Coblenz, who wore a gown of gold taffeta and carried a bouquet of pale gold mums. The groom was attended by Carl Linde of Curtin.

Mrs. West is a graduate of Cottage Grove high school with the class of 1934. Mr. West is employed at Seaside, where the couple will make their home.

YOUNG-GILLIS.

Miss Lillian Young, daughter of Mrs. J. E. Young, became the bride of Warren R. Gillis, son of Mrs. L. W. Gillis of Vancouver, Washington, Saturday, November 22nd at Eugene. The ceremony was performed at 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. Norman K. Tully, Presbyterian minister. The bride wore an afternoon dress of tangerine red wool with brown accessories and a corsage of white gardenias and pink rosebuds. Miss Dorothy Zimmerly was maid of honor. She wore a teal blue street dress of wool with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Verne Thoreson acted as best man.

The bride is a graduate of Cottage Grove high school. The groom attended Oregon State college at Corvallis, where he was affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gillis left for Portland and points along the northern coast on a wedding trip.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Grace E. Stowell has announced the engagement of her daughter Ruth to Robert E. McKown, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McKown of Portland. The announcement was made at the Alpha Psi Delta fall formal in Salem November 15. Miss Stowell, who attended Cottage Grove high school and Oregon State college, is employed with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company in Portland. Mr. McKown is attending Willamette university at Salem. No date has been set for the wedding.

STRAIGHT FROM NEW YORK

BE PICTURESQUE
Evening gowns this winter are dramatic. They "do things" for you—give you glamour and an air of distinction. An outstanding style is this portrait gown with striking mold-ed top, sweeping skirt. It is a New York creation of black crepe and flesh-colored satin.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Visitors were present from Medford, Albany and Corvallis at the district convention held Monday afternoon and evening in the I.O.O.F. hall by the Degree of Honor. The meeting began with a luncheon at 12:30 with forty-eight present. Mrs. Merle King and Mrs. Bonnie Schaffer were in charge of table decorations which were in keeping with the fall season. Mrs. Leontine Knickerbocker gave the address of welcome, which was responded to by Mrs. Harpole of Corvallis, who represented the lodges of the state. Mrs. Violet Hyde of Albany, state president; Mrs. Ethel Lindholm of Portland, Junior state president; and Mrs. Lois A. Geiser of Battleground, Washington, national second vice president and regional director, were present and the afternoon was spent with a round-table discussion. A banquet was served at 6:30 at the Rainbow cafe with fifty-four in attendance. Mrs. Genevieve Nelson was in charge of table decorations, with the patriotic motif being used. Following the banquet the initiatory degree was conferred upon six candidates by the local lodge. Those receiving the degree were June Hubbell, Edith Bradshaw, Mary Martin, Evelyn Leabo, Mary Ann Smith and Frances Shilling. Each one present was presented a red carnation, the lodge flower, and all officers were presented corsages. Mrs. Ethel Lindholm received a gift from the lodge with Mrs. Helen Cochran, president, making the presentation. Mrs. Wilson of Medford, Mrs. Geiser and Mrs. Lindholm reported on the national convention held last summer at St. Paul, Minnesota. The Medford and Albany Glee clubs entertained with vocal numbers and the Albany chapter presented a drill.
