HANSEN-DOOLITTLE.

At a simple ceremony performed at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Eric White, Friday evening, Miss Mary Ann Hansen became the bride of Vernon Doolittle. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Hansen of this city and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Judd Doolittle of Sutherlin. The bride wore an afternoon dress of mulberry with black and white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cherry were their only attendants. Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for Washington where they will spend a week. Following their wedding trip they will be at home on North Tenth street.

B.P.W. CLUB MEETS.

The Business and Professional Women's tea held at the home of Mrs. K. K. Mills, Thursday afternoon was a success financially. Thirty-five guests called and a neat sum netted which will be used for civic purposes. Mrs. Larry Levens was in charge of the tea and Mrs. Ruth Caldwell sponsored the program as follows: Vocal numbers by Miss LoDene Jackson, "Concerto" by Ptschaikowsky and "The False Prophet" by Scott, with Mrs. Caldwell at the piano; piano solos, Malcolm Scott, Marylou Wolfard, Joan Metcalf. A bazaar was given in connection with the tea. Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, Mrs. J. P. Graham, Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. C. J. Kem, Mrs. H. W. Lombard and Mrs. H. B. Ferrin poured. The dining room and luncheon table were attractive with holly and poinsettias. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Mary Workman, Miss Opal Wagner, Mrs. Fred Knickerbocker, Mrs. Fred Straussen, and Mrs. Mabel Gates.

TUESDAY BRIDGE MEETS AT DAUGHERTY HOME.

Mrs. W. H. Daugherty was hostess for the Tuesday Bridge club Tuesday, entertaining with a gypsy party and 1:00 o'clock luncheon. The setting was in the basement of the new Daugherty home which was decorated with yuletide greenery and an attractive camp fire. Guests appeared in costume. The luncheon table was centered with miniature Christmas trees and lighted red tapers. A treasure hunt followed the luncheon and at the end of each string guests were given a gift. Christmas exchange of gifts was a feature after which contract bridge was played. Mrs. F. L. Grannis held high score. Mrs. Victor Chambers will entertain the club at luncheon for the next meeting, January 6, and they will then assemble at the city hall for sewing.

STRAIGHT FROM NEW YORK

TUNICS ARE TOPS
Tunic dresses flatter. They give an illusion of height to the shorter figure, a slenderizing effect to the fuller figure. They are high fashion this season. A tunic of plum and aqua printed satin tops the plum crepe, slashed-front skirt of this New York creation designed for dining and dancing.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MRS. MARKHAM.

On the afternoon of December 5th, Mrs. Myrtle Markham was pleasantly surprised by a birthday party given in her honor by Mrs. Peggy Gregg, at the latter's home on the Lorane road. Guests came in costume. Among the outstanding characters were: Mrs. Ora Reed Hemenway as her daughter Margaret, Mrs. Hazel Beach as "a nightmare," Mrs. Rose Lowrance as Willie Willie, the Hobo in tattered shirt and jeans, Mrs. Wanda Carlyle, the girl in shorts (with longies), Mrs. Peggy Gregg as the gracious hostess, in an old rose poplin worn in 1910 by the late Mrs. Clara A. Burkholder, and Mrs. Gladys Rose in an old time black lace gown, topped by a beautiful evening cape.

Guests voted for their choice as best represented character and Mrs. Rose Lowrance was the winner of this prize, closely contested by Mrs. Wanda Carlyle. Mrs. Lowrance carried her worldly goods in a red bandana slung over her shoulder, and dined on a red apple. Mrs. Hazel Beach took group pictures of the entire company.

The honored guest received presents, accompanied by birthday cards, some very beautiful, others very humorous. Autumn flowers and lighted tapers formed the centerpiece of the dining room table from which dainty refreshments were served. Beside those mentioned above were: Julia Hendricks, Genevieve Zysett, Eva Aubrey, May Thies, Lena Sams, Euodora Sams, Mrs. Kermit Sams, Florence Chaffee, Lillie Smith, Margaret Bolton, Belle Evenson, Margaret Manbeck, Belle Burkholder, as "The Belle of the Ball," Bernice F. Laubach, Zarda Absher, Carrie Tedford, Lois Hathaway, Marie Schmitt, Myrtle Powers and J. G. Markham, the only man present who was waylaid and forced to don a kitchen apron and help with the dishwashing. Others sent presents who were unable to be present.—(Contributed by Belle Burkholder.)

CONSTELLATION CLUB HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY.

The Constellation club held its annual Christmas party Thursday afternoon at Masonic temple. A 1:00 o'clock turkey dinner preceded the meeting. Mrs. Schofield Stewart and Mrs. Herbert Lombard were the committee in charge. Mrs. Vern Shortridge donated the turkey. At the business session a vote of thanks was extended Mrs. Shortridge and the club presented her with an electric lamp. Mrs. Ammer became a new member. Exchange of gifts was a feature. Mrs. Fred Bressler presided. The club will have their next meeting January 8th.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS MEET.

Royal Neighbors met Tuesday night in Eagles hall for a business session and social evening. The following officers were elected: Oracle, Nellie Blackmore; V. O., Alice Breedlove; recorder, Edna Burleson; receiver, Elsie DeYoung; Chan., Alice Petersen; marshal, Anna Gates; I. S., Bertha McQueen; O. S., Myrtle Kent; musician, Georgetta Funk; manager, 1 year, Maude Funk; manager, 2 years, Fern Anderson, and 3 years, Margaret Lasater. Installation will be January 13, 1942.

The annual Xmas tree and exchange of gifts was enjoyed. A guessing game was held by which all present found the number for their gift. Candy was furnished by the camp. Grace Jenkins, Bertha Lee, Elsie DeYoung and Edna Burleson served refreshments. Table decorations were in keeping with the holiday season. Gayle Reiersgaard received a birthday gift from the camp.

W.S.C. HOLDS CHRISTMAS MEETING.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church held the Christmas meeting at the church Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Lowell Tedford led the devotion. The lesson consisted of a Christmas story written by Mrs. N. E. Compton and presented by Mrs. J. B. Leonard. As a part of the story Christmas songs were sung by Mrs. Harry Lewis and Mrs. Wayne Monroe. Kaye Leonard sang "Away in the Manger." The story was appropriate to the present world conditions. Decorations consisted of evergreens, holly, lighted candles and a Crache. Instead of the usual exchange of gifts an offering was taken to be given to the Children's Farm Home, Mrs. Newton Land and Mrs. Wilmer Briggs were the hostesses.

W.B.C. club met Thursday at the home of Margaret Lasater for a 1:30 dessert, followed with bridge. Prizes were drawn by Nellie Blackmore and Anna Gates.

INFLATION?

According to our business leaders a severe inflation is almost inevitable. This will mean a rise in the price of all goods. Real estate will rise sharply in price. A house that you can buy now for $1,000 may well cost you $1,500 this time next year. If you have money lying idle, now is certainly the time to invest it. Placing a value of $100 an acre as a basic price in land prior to World War I, prices rose to $240 an acre. Do you want to pay that kind of a price? Act now.
